PREFACE

The Memphis, Tennessee Municipal Code, originally published by Matthew Bender & Company, has been kept current by regular supplementation by Matthew Bender & Company, Inc., its successor in interest.

Beginning with Supplement 7, Municipal Code Corporation will be keeping this code current by regular supplementation.

This 2012 republication includes all amendatory legislation through Ord. No. 5414, adopted November 1, 2011, and was accomplished under the supervision of Beth Tattershall, Code Editor.

During original codification, the ordinances were compiled, edited and indexed by the editorial staff of Matthew & Company.

The Code is organized by subject matter under an expandable three-factor decimal [hyphen] numbering system which is designed to facilitate supplementation without disturbing the numbering of existing provisions. Each section number designates, in sequence, the numbers of the title, chapter, and section. Thus, Section 2.12.040 is Section .040, located in Chapter 2.12 of Title 2.* In most instances, sections are numbered by tens (.010, .020, .030, etc.), leaving nine vacant positions between original sections to accommodate future provisions. Similarly, chapters and titles are numbered to provide for internal expansion.

Editor's note—The section numbering used prior to and in the 2012 republication consists of a three-part numbering system, with each part referring to title, chapter, and section, separated by hyphens. Section 4 of Chapter 2-12 of Title 2 would therefore be numbered 2-12-4.

In parentheses following each section is a legislative history identifying the specific sources for the provisions of that section. This legislative history is complemented by an ordinance disposition table, following the text of the Code, listing by number all ordinances, their subjects, and where they appear in the codification; and beginning with Supplement No. 7, legislation can be tracked using the "Code Comparative Table and Disposition List."

A subject-matter index, with complete cross-referencing, locates specific Code provisions by individual section numbers.

HOW TO USE YOUR CODE

This Code is organized to make the laws of the city as accessible as possible to city officials, city employees and private citizens. Please take a moment to familiarize yourself with some of the important elements of this Code.

Numbering System.

The numbering system is the backbone of a Code of Ordinances; Municipal Code Corporation uses a unique and versatile numbering structure that allows for easy expansion and amendment of this Code. It is based on three tiers, beginning with title, then chapter, and ending with section. Each part is represented in the Code section number. For example, Section 2.04.010 is Section .010, in Chapter 2.04 of Title 2.*

Editor's note—The section numbering used prior to and in the 2012 republication consists of a three-part numbering system, with each part referring to title, chapter, and section, separated by hyphens. Section 1 of Chapter 2-4 of Title 2 would therefore be numbered 2-4-1.

Title.

A title is a broad category under which ordinances on a related subject are compiled. This Code contains about 15 to 20 titles. For example, the first title is Title 1, General Provisions, which may contain ordinances about the general penalty, code adoption and definitions. The titles in this code are separated by tabbed divider pages for quick reference. Some titles are Reserved for later use.

Chapter.

Chapters deal with more specific subjects, and are often derived from one ordinance. All of the chapters on a related subject are grouped in one title. The chapters are numbered so that new chapters which should logically be placed near certain existing chapters can be added at a later time without renumbering existing material. For example, Chapter 2.06, City Manager, can be added between 2.04, City Council, and Chapter 2.08, City Attorney.

Section.

Each section of the Code contains substantive ordinance material. The sections are numbered by "tens" to allow for expansion of the Code without renumbering.*

Editor's note—The section numbering used prior to and in the 2012 republication does not separate sections by "tens," as described above. Instead, sections are numbered in sequential whole numbers. In the event a new section is to be inserted between two existing sections, the new section will be assigned a decimal number falling between the two sections. For example, a new section inserted between sections 2-4-1 and 2-4-2 would become section 2-4-1.5.

Tables of Contents.

There are many tables of contents in this Code to assist in locating specific information. At the beginning of the Code is the main table of contents listing each title. In addition, each title and chapter has its own table of contents listing the chapters and sections, respectively.

Ordinance History Note.

At the end of each Code section, you will find an "ordinance history note," which lists the underlying ordinances for that section. The ordinances are listed by number, section (if applicable) and year. (Example: (Ord. No. 272, § 1, 1992).)

Beginning with Supplement No. 7 a secondary ordinance history note will be appended to affected sections. Ordinance history notes will be amended with the most recent ordinance added to the end. These history notes can be cross referenced to the Code Comparative Table and Disposition List appearing at the back of the volume preceding the index.

Statutory References.

The statutory references direct the Code user to those portions of the state statutes that are applicable to the laws of the municipality. As the statutes are revised, these references will be updated.

Cross-Reference Table.

When a Code is based on an earlier codification, the cross-reference table will help users find older or "prior" code references in the new Code. The cross-reference table is located near the end of the code, under the tabbed divider "Tables." This table lists the prior code section in the column labeled "Prior Code Section" and the new Code section in the column labeled "Herein."

As of the 2012 republication, this information can be found in the Code Comparative Table.

Ordinance List and Disposition Table.

To find a specific ordinance in the Code, turn to the section called "Tables" for the Ordinance List and Disposition Table. This very useful table tells you the status of every ordinance reviewed for inclusion in the Code. The table is organized by ordinance number and provides a brief description and the disposition of the ordinance. If the ordinance is codified, the chapter (or chapters) will be indicated. (Example: (2.04, 6.12, 9.04).) If the ordinance is of a temporary nature or deals with subjects not normally codified, such as budgets, taxes, annexations or rezones, the disposition will be "(Special)." If the ordinance is for some reason omitted from the Code, usually at the direction of the municipality, the disposition will be "(Not codified)." Other dispositions sometimes used are "(Tabled)," "(Pending)," "(Number Not Used)" or "(Missing)."

Beginning with Supplement No. 7, this table will be replaced with the "Code Comparative Table and Disposition List."

Code Comparative Table and Disposition List.

Beginning with Supplement No. 7, a Code Comparative Table and Disposition List has been added for use in tracking legislative history. Located in the back of this volume, this table is a chronological listing of each ordinance considered for codification. The Code Comparative Table and Disposition List specifies the ordinance number, adoption date, description of the ordinance and the disposition within the Code of each ordinance. By use of the Code Comparative Table and Disposition List, the reader can locate any section of the Code as supplemented, and any subsequent ordinance included herein.

Index.

If you are not certain where to look for a particular subject in this Code, start with the index. This is an alphabetical multi-tier subject index which uses section numbers as the reference, and cross-references where necessary. Look for the main heading of the subject you need, then the appropriate subheadings:

BUSINESS LICENSE
See also BUSINESS TAX
Fee 5.04.030
Required when 5.04.010

The index will be updated as necessary when the Code text is amended.

Insertion Guide.

Each supplement to the new Code will be accompanied by an Insertion Guide. This guide will tell the Code user the date of the most recent supplement and the last ordinance contained in that supplement. It will then list the pages that must be pulled from the Code and the new pages that must be inserted. Following these instructions carefully will ensure that the Code is kept accurate and current. Removed pages should be kept for future reference.

Page Numbers.*

When originally published, this Code was numbered with consecutive page numbers. As it is amended, new material may require the insertion of new pages that are numbered with hyphens. (Example: 31, 32, 32-1.) Backs of pages that are blank (in Codes that are printed double-sided) are left unnumbered but the number is "reserved" for later use.

Editor's note—The page numbering system used in the 2012 republication is a prefix system. The letters and numbers to the left of the colon are an abbreviation which represents the title number of the volume. The number to the right of the colon represents the number of the page in that portion. For example, the page number assigned to page 25 of Title 4 would be T4:25.

Electronic Submission.

In the interests of accuracy and speed, we encourage you to submit your ordinances electronically if at all possible. We can accept most any file format, including Word, WordPerfect or text files. If you have a choice, we prefer Word, any version. You can send files to us as an e-mail attachment, by FTP, on a diskette or CD-ROM. Electronic files enable us not only to get you your Code more quickly but also ensure that it is error-free. Our e-mail address is: ords@municode.com.

Checklist of Up-to-Date Pages

(This checklist will be updated with the printing of each Supplement)

From our experience in publishing Looseleaf Supplements on a page-for-page substitution basis, it has become evident that through usage and supplementation many pages can be inserted and removed in error.

The following listing is included in this Code as a ready guide for the user to determine whether the Code volume properly reflects the latest printing of each page.

In the first column all page numbers are listed in sequence. The second column reflects the latest printing of the pages as they should appear in an up-to-date volume. The letters "OC" indicate the pages have not been reprinted in the Supplement Service and appear as published for the original Code. When a page has been reprinted or printed in the Supplement Service, this column reflects the identification number or Supplement Number printed on the bottom of the page.

In addition to assisting existing holders of the Code, this list may be used in compiling an up-to-date copy from the original Code and subsequent Supplements.

The table below allows users of this Code to quickly and accurately determine what ordinances have been considered for codification in each supplement. Ordinances that are of a general and permanent nature are codified in the Code Book and are considered "Includes." Ordinances that are not of a general and permanent nature are not codified in the Code Book and are considered "Omits."

In addition, by adding to this table with each supplement, users of this Code of Ordinances will be able to gain a more complete picture of the Code's historical evolution.

5. The chief ethics officer shall place and publish formal ethics opinions and advisory ethics opinions, as well as any requests for them, on the board of ethics' website for public access. The chief ethics officer may annotate or otherwise organize the opinions and requests for opinions, so that they are easily searchable.

D. Procedures for evaluations and hearing of complaints regarding conduct.

1. Complaint procedures.

a. Any citizen of the city, including but not limited to the chief ethics officer or any member of the board of ethics, may submit a complaint in writing and under oath, alleging that one or more officers or employees have violated or may have violated any provision of this chapter within one month of the alleged violation.

b. The complaint must be signed by the complainant and notarized, and must contain the following:

(i) The complainant's legal name and current mailing address;

(ii) The name or names of any officers or employees who committed or may have committed the alleged violation;

(iii) A summary of the facts giving rise to the complaint; and

(iv) Some explanation of why those facts constitute or may constitute a violation of this chapter.

c. Anyone filing a false complaint will be subject to the penalty(s) for perjury.

d. The chief ethics officer, or his or her designee, may assist complainants in completing the form of a complaint.

e. The complaint must be filed with the chief ethics officer. Upon receipt, the chief ethics officer shall promptly provide a copy of the complaint to the officer or employee named therein and to the board of ethics. As used in this section, unless otherwise noted, the term "provide" means to send by U.S. mail or to hand deliver.

f. During years in which the city holds municipal elections, the chief ethics officer shall not accept any complaints during a period from the last day on which a person may qualify as a candidate until after 11:59 p.m. of the following election day. If a special election is called, the chief ethics officer shall not accept any complaints relating to the office subject to the special election during a period from the last day on which a person may qualify as a candidate for the special election until after 11:59 p.m. of the date of the special election.

g. The chief ethics officer will evaluate the complaint, applying the law of the standards of conduct to the facts alleged in the complaint.

h. Within 14 days from receipt of the complaint, the chief ethics officer shall:

(i) Issue a report including a copy of the complaint, concluding whether the facts alleged in the complaint, if true, would give rise to a violation of the code of ethics, and recommending that a hearing be held on the complaint; or

(ii) Dismiss the complaint, subject to the approval of the board of ethics.

i. The city ethics officer shall promptly provide a report or a dismissal of complaint to the chair of the board of ethics.

j. If the chief ethics officer dismisses a complaint, the board of ethics shall at its next meeting vote on whether to approve the dismissal. If the board of ethics, by a majority vote, approves the chief ethics officer's dismissal of the complaint, then the complaining party may, within 30 calendar days, request in writing that the board reconsider its decision. If the board of ethics fails to approve the chief ethics officer's dismissal, or if the board of ethics, by a majority vote, agrees to reconsider a complaint, then the chief ethics officer shall issue a report on the facts and circumstances of the complaint.

k. After receiving the chief ethics officer's report, the chair of the board of ethics shall call a public meeting of the board, including appropriate notice to the public. The chief ethics officer shall also provide notice of the meeting to the complainant and to the officer or employee named in the complaint.

l. At the board of ethics meeting, the board shall evaluate the chief ethics officer's report, and may accept or reject the chief ethics officer's recommendation. The board may decide to dismiss the complaint or call for a hearing on the complaint.

m. Whether or not the board of ethics holds a hearing on the complaint or dismisses the complaint, it shall issue a decision in writing. Any decision shall require the affirmative concurring vote of at least four members of the board. If a hearing is to be held, no final decision shall be made or issued until after the hearing is held. The decision shall be filed with the chief ethics officer, who shall promptly place all such decisions on the board of ethics' website for public access, and provided to the complainant and to the officer or employee named in the complaint.

n. From the time a complaint has been received by the members of the board of ethics, until a written decision has been issued by the board, no member of the board shall participate in any communication regarding the allegations or merits of the complaint, outside of the board's public meetings or hearings, except as contemplated by these procedures.

o. If a complaint is filed against a member of the board of ethics, the city council will sit in designation as the board of ethics for any hearing contemplated by this chapter pursuant to the process outlined in article 27, section 185 of the Memphis City Charter.

2. Hearing procedures.

a. If the board of ethics calls for a hearing on a complaint, the hearing shall be conducted as follows:

(i) The hearing shall be noticed to and open to the public, in accordance with state law and these procedures.

(ii) Notice of hearing shall be provided to the complainant and to the person or persons named as respondents in the complaint. The hearing shall be held no less than 30 days after notice of hearing is provided to the respondent.

(iii) A hearing panel consisting of the chairperson and two members of the board of ethics selected at random shall hear the complaint.

(iv) The complaint shall be prosecuted in a hearing before the hearing panel by the chief ethics officer or, with the approval of the board of ethics, by counsel designated and hired for that purpose by the chief ethics officer.

(v) The complainant shall not be considered a party to any proceeding before the board of ethics, but to the extent possible, the complainant shall be kept apprised of the progress of the proceeding by the chief ethics officer.

(vi) The hearing need not be conducted in accordance with technical rules relating to evidence and witnesses, but the hearing shall be conducted in a manner most conducive to determination of the truth. Any relevant evidence may be admitted if it is the sort of evidence which responsible persons are accustomed to rely on in the conduct of serious affairs, regardless of the existence of common law or statutory rules which might make improper the admission of such evidence in civil actions. Either party may impeach any witness regardless of which party called the witness. No still or moving photography shall be allowed in the hearing room during the hearing. The hearing shall be recorded by court reporter or some other form of stenographic transcription or recording.

(vii) The respondent and the chief ethics officer may, but are not required to, submit material to the hearing panel. If either does wish to submit such material to the board, the party must file the material with the board of ethics, and provide a copy of the same to the other party and the board of ethics, at least seven calendar days prior to the hearing.

(viii) The parties shall have a full and fair opportunity to present their positions and facts to the hearing panel at the hearing. Each party has the right to the assistance of legal counsel at its own expense. Each party shall be allotted a reasonable amount of time to make its presentation to the hearing panel.

(ix) The parties may each call witnesses to give testimony at the hearing, which testimony shall be given under oath, with the witnesses stating their legal names. All witnesses will be subject to cross-examination. Each party must file with the hearing panel a list of the witnesses that the party intends to call at the hearing, and provide a copy of the same to the other parties, at least seven calendar days prior to the hearing. At the hearing, no party shall be permitted to call upon any person to give testimony if that person's name was not included on such list; however, the hearing panel may permit such an unnamed witness to be called by a party if, in the panel's judgment, there was good cause for not timely naming the witness, and the other parties would not be unduly prejudiced.

(x) Should the hearing panel determine that justice requires that further witnesses be called, it may call witnesses to give testimony at the hearing, which testimony shall be given under oath, with the witnesses stating their legal names.

(xi) If any witness refuses to appear before the hearing panel, the board of ethics may request that the city council subpoena the witness to appear before the hearing panel. Any party may request that the board do so.

(xii) The members of the hearing panel may ask questions of any party, counsel, or witness at any time during the hearing.

(xiii) The hearing panel may, in the exercise of its discretion, permit interested persons present at the hearing to offer testimony under oath, even if those persons were not called as witnesses by any party.

(xiv) The hearing panel may continue a hearing to a later date.

(xv) All findings of fact by the hearing panel shall be rendered upon a showing of the preponderance of the evidence.

(xvi) Upon the conclusion of the hearing, the hearing panel shall deliberate toward a decision on the matter in public session, shall render written findings and conclusions of law in the matter, and shall arrive at a decision on such findings and conclusions by majority vote.

(xvii) All decisions of the board of ethics shall be placed and published within 30 days on the board of ethics' website for public access. The chief ethics officer may annotate or otherwise organize the decisions so that they are easily searchable.

3. If, after a hearing, a hearing panel of the board of ethics decides that an officer or employee violated any provision of the code of ethics, then the board may take one or more of the actions listed in section 2-10-13, as decided by affirmative concurring vote of at least two members of the hearing panel.

E. Reporting; whistleblower protection; abuse of process; complicity.

1. Officers and employees are encouraged to report suspected ethical violations to the board of ethics.

2. No officer or employee shall use or threaten to use any officer authority or influence to discourage, restrain or interfere with any other person for the purpose of preventing such person from acting in good faith to report or otherwise bring to the attention of the board of ethics information relating to an ethics violation or investigation.

3. No officer or employee shall use or threaten to use any officer authority or influence to effect any action to retaliate against any person who reports, initiates a complaint, or otherwise brings to the attention of the board of ethics information relating to a board investigation or an ethics violation.

4. No officer or employee shall file a complaint with the board of ethics absent a good-faith basis for their allegations.

5. An officer or employee shall not falsely accuse another officer or employee of failing to comply with this chapter.

6. No officer or employee may knowingly induce, encourage, or aid anyone to violate any provision of this chapter.

7. Any violation of this subsection shall be subject to investigation and action by the board of ethics.

F. Accessibility. Because the purpose of the board of ethics can only be fulfilled if it furthers the goal of accountability, responsibility, and transparency in the ethical conduct of municipal government, the board of ethics shall operate, to the greatest extent possible, in a manner that is open and accessible to the public. Thus, the board of ethics shall establish and maintain policies and procedures, including an internet website that is searchable to the greatest extent possible, that will promote the widest possible dissemination of information about its activities and operations, including any hearings, decisions, and opinions of the board of ethics and the chief ethics officer. Further, the city acknowledges and affirms that the board of ethics is, in all respects, subject to the access requirements of the Tennessee Public Records Act, T.C.A. § 10-7-503, and the Tennessee Open Meetings Act, T.C.A. § 8-44-101 et seq.

G. Hearings may be closed. The hearing shall be closed upon the request of the officer who is prosecuting an indictment or in the discretion of the board when to do otherwise would jeopardize the proceedings on an indictment in a court of law.

Sec. 2-20-2. Total impasse dispute procedure.

A. Generally.

1. Definitions. As used in this section the following terms shall have the indicated meanings:

Business day means a day other than a Saturday, Sunday or legal holiday under the laws of Tennessee.

Economic items shall be defined as items such as wages, insurance, shift differential and other items which require the expenditure of Memphis light, gas and water division (the "division") funds to an identifiable portion of any recognized unit which economic items provide to those employees direct benefits except that economic items such as pension benefits and any item excluded by the Charter of the city, or other state laws shall not be considered economic items.

Negotiations deadline means that point in time which is 60 days prior to the expiration date of a current memorandum of understanding, or, in the event of an economic reopener, 60 days prior to the ensuing contractual period.

Total impasse means that point at which each party declares its last position in economic matters to be final and each party declares such position to be unacceptable, or the parties do not reach agreement by midnight of the negotiations deadline.

2. The final position of the division on economic items as defined in this section, shall be in writing and shall be designated as the "final offer." If the division presents its final offer more than three business days prior to the negotiations deadline, then after the division presents its final offer, the officially recognized employee organization (organization(s), herein) shall indicate in writing its acceptance of that final offer or its final position on economic items as defined in this section. This response of the organization(s) shall be made before the negotiation deadline.

3. If the division makes its final offer to the organization(s) less than three business days before the negotiations deadline, the chief spokesperson of the organization(s) shall tentatively accept or reject the offer in writing at the same negotiation session that the final offer of the division was received. If the organization(s) rejects the final offer of the division, the organization(s) through its chief spokesperson, shall set forth in writing the final position on economic items as defined in this section of the organization(s) at the time of the rejection of the final offer of the division and during the same negotiation session that the final offer was received. If after the tentative acceptance by the organization(s) of the final offer of the division, should the employees of the organization(s) fail to ratify the final offer of the division, then the final position of the organization(s) shall be its last position at the bargaining table, before the final offer of the division had been given.

4. Items, economic or noneconomic, mutually agreed to prior to the declaration of impasse as defined in subsection B of this section, shall be made part of any future agreement or memorandum of understanding. Non-economic items not mutually agreed to prior to the declaration of impasse as defined in subsection B of this section, will remain as stated in the previously agreed upon memorandum or agreement between the parties.

5. At any time before the point of impasse either party (with written notice to the other party), may call for the appointment of a mediator to assist the parties in negotiating an agreement. It shall be the function of the mediator to bring the parties together to attempt to effectuate a settlement of outstanding issues. The mediator shall have no power to compel either of the parties concerning any aspect of negotiations or the agreement to be negotiated. The mediator may be selected by agreement of the parties (with each party agreeing to share equally in the costs) or by a request by either party to the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service for the appointment of a federal mediator.

B. Procedure after seven consecutive days. In the event a total impasse is reached and the impasse continues for seven consecutive days ("seven-day period"), the following procedures shall be followed:

1. Each party, or any one of the parties, shall, before 5:00 p.m. on the next business day following the expiration of the seven-day period give written notice to the chairperson of the Memphis City Council, and to the other party, that a total impasse in discussions has been reached (the "impasse notice"). At the executive session or regular council meeting in the week next following the receipt of the impasse notice the chairperson of the Memphis City Council will conduct a drawing by lot to establish from the members of the Memphis City Council a three-member impasse resolution committee, (the "committee"). The first two selections will be for committee members and the third will be for the committee chairperson. At the meeting in which the chairperson of the committee is selected, each party shall deliver to the committee chairperson a notice that identifies the specific economic items which are at impasse. It is the duty of councilmembers to serve on impasse committees, if selected.

2. The committee shall develop a combined list of impasse items which must be in accordance with the final position of the parties in subsection (A)(2) of this section on or before 5:00 p.m. on the second business day next following the committee's selection.

3. Each party shall submit in writing to the committee the last best offer with respect to such items which each party proposed at the time of total impasse on or before the fourth business day next following receipt of the combined list of impasse items required by subsection (B)(2) of this section. The final position of each party as defined in subsection (A)(2) of this section shall be considered its last best offer for the purpose of this section. Any supporting information must also be presented at this time and all economic items must be addressed.

4. The committee is to determine which total package constituting the last best offer on "economic items" as defined in this section of either the division or the organization(s) shall be made part of the new memorandum of understanding between the division and the organization(s). The committee may not alter the last best offer of either party.

5. The committee shall establish its own rules and procedures and conduct such investigations and hearings as it deems appropriate but with adequate opportunity for the division and the organization(s) to present their respective positions. The committee shall adopt for recommendation to the Memphis City Council the last best offer on "economic items" as defined in this section of either the division or of the organization(s).

6. In an expeditious manner, but in no case later than 30 days from submission of the dispute to the committee, a written report on the last best offers submitted by both parties, and a recommendation of one of the offers as the final resolution of the dispute shall be immediately provided to both parties and all members of the Memphis City Council. If, after receiving the committee's report, the council does not, at one of the next two regularly scheduled city council meetings, veto the recommendation by a majority vote of its membership, then the committee's recommendation shall be final. However, if the city council decides to take up the committee report as an agenda item, the parties shall be given at least 48 hours' notice. At the city council meeting when the committee report is to be discussed, each of the parties is to be given one hour to present a summary of the issues and their position. The council may then either accept the report of the committee or determine that the total package constituting the last best offer on "economic" items as defined in this section of the other party (the last best offer of the party not selected and recommended by the committee) shall be made part of the new memorandum of understanding between the division and the organization(s). The decision made by the city council shall become effective and the city council shall take whatever action is appropriate to implement.

7. Once this impasse resolution procedure has been implemented by notification of the chairperson as provided for in subsection (B)(1) of this section, neither party may alter their final position as defined in subsection (A)(2) of this section. However, either party may, at any time, accept the final position total package of the other party as originally submitted to the city council. Such acceptance shall be the final understanding. Further, the parties may mutually agree upon some or all items at impasse any time before final council action. Such mutually agreed upon items will be removed from the impasse list of both parties by notification to the chairperson of the council and shall be made a part of any future agreement or memorandum of understanding.

(Code 1967, § 2-370; Code 1985, § 2-257; Ord. No. 3288, § 1, 4-5-1983; Ord. No. 4245, § 1, 3-22-1994)

Sec. 2-20-3. Authority and duties of board of commissioners.

A. Salaries. "Employees," for the purpose of this section, means all regular full-time or part-time employees of the Memphis light, gas and water division but does not include members of the board of commissioners of the Memphis light, gas and water division. Any increase in the salaries or compensation of the president of the Memphis light, gas and water division shall be submitted to the city council for approval. All other increases in the amounts of salaries or compensation for other employees may be approved by the board of commissioners of the Memphis light, gas and water division, provided that no such increase shall result in annual compensation to such employee in excess of that of the president.

B. Contracts. The board of light, gas and water commissioners shall have authority to make contracts entailing any obligations or involving any expenditure for any amount without the consent and approval of the city council of the City of Memphis, so long as the amount is within the budget established by the board of commissioners of the Memphis light, gas and water division and approved by the city council.

C. Budget submittal. The board of commissioners of the Memphis light, gas and water division shall, on or before December 1 of each year, provide and forward to the city council for distribution to councilmembers a copy of the preliminary budget adopted by the board of commissioners for the coming calendar year, and the council shall schedule such review as it deems necessary by the energy committee on or before January 15 of the calendar year. The board of commissioners shall thereafter forward to the city council, on or before February 15 of the calendar year. The board of commissioners shall thereafter forward to the city council, on or before February 15 of the calendar year, the final budget adopted by the board of light, gas and water commissioners. The city council shall, by separate resolution, adopt and/or amend and approve the budget of the Memphis light, gas and water division; provided, however, the council shall approve in any such budget all amounts as are necessary to meet the requirements contained in the bond resolutions applicable to the electric, gas and water divisions, which bond resolutions have been approved by the council.

D. Form of budget. The budget of the Memphis light, gas and water division shall be submitted by the Memphis light, gas and water division in such form as to comply with the requirements of the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, the accounting principles applicable to utilities, the regulations or any other applicable regulatory body, and in accordance with the provisions of the bond resolutions approved by the city council for the electric, gas and water divisions.
(Code 1985, § 2-258; Ord. No. 3509, §§ 1—4, 11-5-1985)

Sec. 2-20-4. Provision of natural or artificial gas and electric services within city.

A. Without a franchise granted by the council of the city, no person, firm or corporation ("person") shall have the right or privilege:

1. To erect, construct, operate or maintain or use any natural or artificial gas pipeline, plant or system or gasworks, or electric light and power system or works within the city in order to sell or distribute or provide nonmunicipal natural or artificial gas or electrical power and energy to itself or any other user or consumer within the city; or

2. To use the streets or alleys of the city for such purpose; or

3. To interconnect any building, structure or facility of any kind to any natural or artificial gas pipeline or system, or electrical line or system other than to the natural gas or electrical system of the Memphis light, gas and water division.

4. Subsection A of this section shall not apply to the on-site generation or production and self-consumption of electricity, natural or artificial gas.

B. No ordinance for the grant of a franchise for an electric distribution system or a natural or artificial gas distribution system as set forth in subsection A of this section shall be granted except under such terms and conditions as shall preserve the financial integrity of the Memphis light, gas and water division and the amount of in lieu of tax payments received by the city from the Memphis light, gas and water division. Such franchise ordinance shall require that any franchise holder shall pay to the city a maximum franchise fee of five percent of gross receipts of the electric or gas distribution system. Gross receipts shall include the costs of operation and the costs of purchased electric power and natural gas. If the franchise holder is distributing to itself, the gross receipts shall include not only the cost of operation of the distribution system, but the cost of the electricity or gas to be distributed. The franchise holder shall be required to make all of its records available to the city for the purpose of determining the franchise fee. If the franchise holder is also the owner of any natural gas facilities or the producer of electricity, the cost of the natural gas or the cost of the electricity shall not be less than the average annual cost for the preceding calendar year of electricity (demand and commodity charges) or such natural gas (commodity charge only) to the Memphis light, gas and water division for the purpose of computing the franchise fee. If franchises are granted by Shelby County and the City of Memphis, the franchise fee of the city shall be computed by applying the city percentage the total gross receipts within both Shelby County and the City of Memphis. One-half of that amount shall be allocated to facilities and one-half to consumption. The amount payable to the city from the portion allocated to facilities shall be its proportion of the value of facilities within the city to the total value of facilities. The amount payable to the city from the portion allocated to consumption shall be its proportion of the amount of consumption within the city to the total consumption. The allocation between the city and the county shall be adjusted as of the effective date of any annexation by the city and prorated for the franchise year.

C. Unless a franchise has been given or granted it is unlawful for any person:

1. To erect, construct, operate or maintain or use any natural or artificial gas pipeline, plant or system or gasworks, or electric light and power system or works within the city in order to sell or distribute or provide nonmunicipal natural or artificial gas or electrical power and energy to itself or other consumer within the city; or

3. To interconnect any building, structure or facility of any kind to any natural or artificial gas pipeline or system, or electrical line or system other than to the natural gas or electrical system of the Memphis light, gas and water division.

D. The above provision shall not apply to a cogeneration facility permitted by law whereby any excess is to be distributed by the Memphis light, gas and water division.

E. If any person constructs, operates or maintains any natural or artificial gas pipeline, plant or system or gasworks, or electric light and power system or works or sells or distributes any natural or artificial gas or electricity within the city, or makes any connections with gas or electrical lines or systems contrary to the provisions of the foregoing; then, in addition to any other remedies and measures provided by law, the city attorney or the general counsel of the Memphis light, gas and water division may commence an action in the name of and on behalf of the city for suitable and appropriate legal and equitable relief.

In emergencies MLG&W may enter into emergency purchases, as defined herein, which emergency purchases shall be later ratified by the council. MLG&W may also purchase natural gas and other derivative instruments as long as the aggregate annual amount of these purchases are approved by the council in the annual budget of MLG&W.

2. Sec. 2-22-8. Asphaltic binder paving of streets constructed as part of standard improvement contracts; costs.

A. The developer entering into a standard improvement contract with the City of Memphis shall be responsible for bearing the full expense of the asphaltic binder, surface course paving and striping on all streets located within the city limits of Memphis which are required to be constructed, widened, improved, modified or adjusted by the developer as a part of the standard improvement contract as prescribed below.

1. All paving materials, pavement markings and construction methods shall meet the requirements of the standard construction specifications of the City of Memphis and the plans approved by the city engineer.

2. The thickness, width and type of base material shall meet the requirements of the Memphis and Shelby County Unified Development Code and the Standard Construction Specifications of the City of Memphis Division of Engineering for each type and classification of street unless an alternative base material is approved by the city engineer.

3. a. Upon satisfactory completion of all other work required in the standard improvement contract, and after supplying the city engineer with standard density test data provided by an independent soils testing laboratory, the developer shall pave each street specified in the contract with an asphaltic binder, one and one-half inches thick.

   b. Upon satisfactory inspection of the asphaltic binder course by the City of Memphis, the developer shall pave each street specified in the contract with the surface course, one and one-half inches thick; unless otherwise specified by the approved engineering plans.

   c. If a pavement marking plan is required by the city engineer, the developer shall install all pavement markings on each street in accordance with the approved engineering plans.

4. No contract for subdivision development improvements shall be accepted by the Memphis City Council until such time as the developer has posted a performance bond for ten percent of the value of the public infrastructure improvements required herein. Said performance bond shall remain in force through the warranty period, as described in subsection (A)(5).

5. All standard improvement contracts and other contracts providing for the construction of roads to be maintained by the City of Memphis shall require the developer to provide a one-year bonded warranty for ten percent of the value of all labor and materials installed within the dedicated right-of-way for roadway pavement, drainage structures, sanitary sewer house connections and other improvements provided by the developer. The warranty is to be provided for the purpose of repairing failures to listed improvements that occur during the warranty period due to construction damage, defects in materials and workmanship, including, but not limited to, backfill and sub-grade compaction. All such repairs shall be at the developer's sole expense. The warranty to be provided pursuant to this section shall not extend to deficiencies arising from earthquake, flood and other natural catastrophes, acts of God or any other occurrences for which the developer cannot reasonably be held responsible. The one-year period (the warranty period) will begin upon acceptance by the Memphis City Council of all improvements completed by the developer. The value of the bond supplied during the warranty period shall be equal to ten percent of the value [of] all labor and materials installed within the dedicated right-of-way for roadway pavement, drainage structures, sanitary sewer house connections and other improvements provided by the developer (the warranty bond). The warranty shall require the developer to rectify all deficiencies that subsequently occur in the pavement, sub-grade compaction or utilities construction within the right-of-way within seven working days of having been notified by the City of Memphis Division of Public Works that deficiencies exist. Developer shall immediately repair and otherwise rectify any and all deficiencies to the satisfaction of the city engineer. Upon expiration of the warranty period, the developer shall request a final inspection from the city engineer. A written report of such inspection, outlining items to be repaired, shall be delivered to the developer within seven working days after the developer's request. Developer will promptly make any and all corrections required to the work and notify the city engineer when such work is ready for reinspection. When the city engineer determines by such inspection that the roadway system and all appurtenances are in good condition, the paving bond shall be released.

6. The following timetable shall apply to the implementation of the paving requirements set forth herein:
   a. For all unexpired standard improvement contracts entered into between the City of Memphis and the developer before the effective date of this section, pavement standards stated in such contract shall remain in force.
   b. For all standard improvement contracts entered into between the City of Memphis and developer before the effective date of this section, but which contracts have expired, a contract extension will not be approved without an accompanying amendment that complies with the requirements outlined herein.
   c. For all subdivision improvement contracts entered into between the City of Memphis and developer after the effective date of this section, the requirements herein apply in full.

B. Affordable housing fee reimbursement. The city engineer shall be authorized to administer the reimbursement of certain fees collected by him or her elsewhere in this chapter and certain sewer development fees collected by him or her under title 13. Only new residential subdivisions (lots and the residential structures thereon) located within the city limits of Memphis which have been certified by the division of housing and community development as meeting the affordable housing guidelines of the city shall be eligible for fee reimbursement. In order to receive certification by the division of housing and community development, affordable housing developments must comply with the following procedures:

1. The developer shall make application to the director of housing and community development for entry into the affordable housing program. Upon receipt of an application, the director of housing and community development shall certify the maximum number of residential lots and houses in a new development which shall be eligible for participation in the program. The director of housing and community development shall then notify the city engineer of the certification in writing, specifying both the number of lots and houses so certified and the name of the subdivision in which they are located.
2. Upon receipt of all other necessary preliminary approvals, the developer shall enter in to a standard improvement contract through the city engineer's office, and shall pay to the city all standard fees chargeable at the time of contract execution. The contract shall include a provision under which the city will reimburse the developer for the following fees:
   a. Engineering administration fees;
   b. Sewer development fees;
   c. Asphaltic binder paving.

   The fees shall be reimbursed on a per lot, pro-rata basis as determined by the ratio of initially certified affordable housing lots to the total number of lots in the development. Reimbursement shall be made only after the sale of a house and lot to an owner/occupant and receipt by the city engineer of final written certification of such sale from the director of housing and community development.
3. The standard improvement contract shall stipulate a nonextendable four-year time limit (from the date of contract approval by the city council) during which the developer may receive reimbursement. The city engineer shall close the affordable housing reimbursement provisions of a contract upon the earlier of: (1) reimbursement of fees for the maximum number of lots and houses receiving initial certification; or (2) the expiration of the four-year time limit.
4. If no standard improvement contract is required by the development, the city engineer may collect the required fees and establish the affordable housing requirement schedule by resolution of the city council.

In no event shall the amount of any such award exceed the sum of $500.00 or ten percent of the first year's net savings or net increases in revenue to the city, as estimated to the division, or to the city, as estimated by the committee, whichever is the lesser sum.

M. Cash awards in excess of $500.00; quality council to authorize payment. If and when the committee finds and determines that a suggestion is worthy of cash award in excess of $500.00, and the division director concurs, the division director may recommend to the quality council that they authorize payment of such higher award. The following percentages will then apply: savings of $5,000.00 to $25,000.00, an award of $500.00, plus five percent of any amount from $5,000.00 to $25,000.00; savings of $25,000.00 to $100,000.00, an award of $1,500.00, plus one percent of any amount over $25,000.00.

2. Division directors;
3. Deputy directors;
4. Chief administrative officer;
5. Members of the auditing staff;
6. Any person who is not an employee of the city at the time the suggestion was received by the committee;
7. Supervisory personnel for suggestions related to their own area of responsibility.

O. Awards with no definite monetary value and/or noncash award. Each committee may make an award not to exceed a value of $50.00, but not less than $10.00 for suggestions concerning safety and other matters that do not save the city directly but improve operations. The amount of such an award shall be determined on the basis of criteria established by the quality council. Alternatively, each committee may, at any time, award non-cash certificates of commendation and other forms of recognition not involving the payment of money for any suggestion whenever it deems such to be appropriate.

P. Patents and copyrights. The city shall be entitled to implement use and put into operations, in effect, any suggestions submitted by any persons pursuant to the provisions of this section without paying any royalties or other moneys, whatever, for the privilege of doing so, and any person so submitting any suggestions to the city shall be deemed, by submitting a suggestion, to have agreed to the above. Subject to the above rights of the city, any employee of the city who submits any suggestion pursuant to this section may copyright or patent such suggestion and shall be entitled to any rights, privileges or emoluments resulting therefrom.

Q. Appropriations. No cash award shall be made and no money shall be expended pursuant to the provision of this section, unless money has been appropriated by the city council, and there exists an unencumbered balance of such appropriations sufficient for such purpose. The division director shall make recommendations to the council respecting the amounts of money that should be appropriated for such purposes.

R. Annual report. As soon as possible, following the close of each fiscal year, the committee shall make and file with the quality council an annual report of this activity in the immediately proceeding fiscal year; a copy should be provided to the division director.

Sec. 3-4-4. Discrimination in hiring persons previously convicted.

A. Definitions. The following words, terms and phrases, when used in this section, shall have the meanings ascribed to them in this subsection, except where the context clearly indicates a different meaning:

Applicant means any person considered for, or who requests to be considered for, employment by the city.

City means the City of Memphis or any division, department, agency or office thereof, unless specifically excluded by this section.

Conviction means any sentence arising from a plea or verdict of guilty, including a sentence of incarceration, a suspended sentence, a sentence of probation or a sentence of unconditional discharge.

Employment means any occupation, vocation, job, or work for pay, including temporary or seasonal work, contracted work, contingent work and work through the services of a temporary or other employment agency; or any form of vocational or educational training with or without pay. The term "employment" shall not, for the purposes of this section, include any sworn position.

Otherwise qualified means any applicant who meets all other criteria for a position or consideration for a position.

Relationship to the job means the nature of criminal conduct for which the person was convicted has a direct and/or specific negative bearing on a person's fitness or ability to perform one or more of the duties or responsibilities necessarily related to the employment sought.

B. Except as otherwise dictated by state and federal law, the city shall not inquire about an applicant's conviction history until after it has been determined that the applicant is otherwise qualified for the position. City job applications shall not contain a "box" or inquiry regarding a job applicant's prior convictions. This subsection does not apply to police, fire and emergency medical services positions.

C. After an applicant has been identified as otherwise qualified for the position, the city will offer a conditional offer of employment to the applicant, pending a conviction history check by the human resources division. Prior to conducting any conviction history check on an applicant, the applicant will be required to complete a form listing any criminal history. Once the form has been received the city must provide a standard written notification to the applicant advising:

1. That a conviction history check is going to take place;
2. That he or she will have the opportunity to rebut a decision by the city should it decide to retract the conditional offer of employment; and
3. What kinds of specific evidence the applicant can present during this rebuttal.

D. 1. If, as a result of a conviction history check, the city finds a valid reason to refuse, rescind, or revoke the offer of a position to an applicant, then the city must immediately notify the applicant of the potential adverse employment action, and provide the applicant with a photocopy of the conviction history report with a highlight of the particular conviction that relates to the job's responsibilities, thus warranting a denial of employment.

2. The applicant or current employee shall have ten business days, after receipt of notice and the photocopy of the conviction history report from the city, to respond to the city regarding the conviction history report. The city shall provide the applicant with an opportunity to present information rebutting the accuracy and/or relevance of the conviction history report, including information pertaining to any of the factors listed in this subsection D. The city must review all information and documentation received from the applicant prior to taking any final action as to whether to hire said applicant.

E. In making a determination concerning a previous criminal conviction, the city shall consider the following factors:

1. The nature of the crime and its relationship to the job for which the person has applied;
2. The information pertaining to the degree of rehabilitation of the convicted person;
3. The time elapsed since the conviction or release;
4. Any information produced by the person, or produced on his behalf, in regard to his or her rehabilitation and good conduct;
5. The age of the person at the time of occurrence of the criminal offense or offenses;
6. The gravity of the offense; and
7. The public policy of the city, as expressed in this section, to encourage the employment of persons previously convicted of one or more criminal offenses.

F. In no case may records of conviction which have been erased be used, distributed or disseminated by the city or any of its agencies in connection with employment, except as dictated by law.

G. In order to prevent discrimination against municipal employees in accordance with federal guidelines, any information pertaining to an applicant or employee's record of conviction obtained by the human resources division in conjunction with the hiring process shall remain confidential within that division, and shall not be used, distributed or disseminated by the city or any of its agencies, to any other division, entity, or individual, except as dictated by law.

The city shall have the right to discipline any employee for misconduct, incompetency, inefficiency, insubordination, failure to perform duties, falsifying an oath, failure to observe the personnel rules or the rules of the individual department, or a related serious offense. The city may terminate, suspend or demote an employee for just cause, and the employee shall be given a written notice of the reasons for the action. Terminations, suspensions and demotions shall be appealable to the civil service commission as provided for in this chapter. Just cause shall exist when the employer had a reasonable basis for the action taken. Enumeration of the above-stated disciplinary actions, which are reviewable by the commission, shall not be construed as a limitation on powers of the city to impose other less stringent disciplinary measures which shall not be appealable to the commission. Services of any employee may be terminated when the necessity for his or her job or position no longer exists or when funding is no longer available, and such action shall not be reviewable by the commission.

multiple suspensions, only that suspension which causes the total number of days suspended to exceed five days within a six-month period and any subsequent suspension within such period shall be appealable to the commission. If an employee has previously elected a remedy other than as provided by federal law, he or she shall be barred from appealing to the civil service commission, except that informal appeals within the particular division or within the administration shall not bar an appeal to the commission. In no event shall the ten day time period for appealing to the commission be waived.
(Code 1985, § 9-42)

Sec. 3-8-9. Hearings—Generally.

Upon an employee's appeal from his or her termination, demotion or suspension, a hearing shall be held before the hearing board of the commission within a reasonable time thereafter, not to exceed 60 days from filing of the appeal unless the time shall be extended by consent of all parties. Notice of the time and place of the hearing shall be sent to the city and the appealing employee. Any employee who has been indicted by a federal or state grand jury or against whom a presentment or information has been filed shall be granted, upon his or her request and at his or her election, a postponement of hearing before the civil service commission until such indictment, presentment or information has been finally disposed of by a court of competent jurisdiction. The hearing board shall consist of the chairperson and two commissioners, and a majority vote shall be required to reverse or sustain the disciplinary action of the city. At such hearing both the appealing employee and the official whose actions are being reviewed shall have the right to be heard and to present evidence and to be represented by themselves or by legal counsel of their choosing. The burden of proof required to sustain the action of the city shall by a preponderance of the evidence. If, after a presentation of the proof, the commission finds that there exists a reasonable basis for the disciplinary action taken, the action of the city shall be sustained. The decision of the commission shall be stated in writing and shall include the commission's findings of fact and inclusions therefrom. In the event the decision is not unanimous, the commission shall indicate how each member voted. The written decision and the commission's findings of fact and inclusions shall be sent by the commission to the division director involved, the director of personnel, the employee, and attorneys for each side. The decision of the commission shall be appealable by either the city or the employee by common law writ of certiorari, as provided by state law.
(Code 1985, § 9-43)

Sec. 3-8-10. Hearings—Conduct.

A. During the hearing any witness to be called by either the employee or the city shall be excluded from the hearing room unless actually testifying, except that the appealing employee and a designated representative of the city may be present in the hearing room even if they are expected to testify.

B. The hearing need not be conducted in accordance with technical rules relating to evidence and witnesses, but the hearing shall be conducted in a manner most conducive to determination of the truth. Any relevant evidence may be admitted if it is the sort of evidence which responsible persons are accustomed to rely on in the conduct of serious affairs, regardless of the existence of common law or statutory rules which might make improper the admission of such evidence in civil actions. Either party may impeach any witness regardless of which party called the witness. No still or moving photography shall be allowed in the hearing room during the hearing. The hearing shall be recorded by court reporter or some other form of stenographic transcription or recording.

C. Prior to or during the hearing the commission may grant a continuance to either party for any reason it believes to be important to its reaching a fair and proper decision. B. The committee shall be authorized and empowered to report and make recommendations to the pension board to invest and reinvest the principal and income of the trust fund in any and all stocks (common or preferred), bonds, mutual funds, notes, debentures, mortgages, equipment, trust certificates and in other evidences of indebtedness or ownership and such other property, real or personal, investments and securities of any kind, class, character or location, as well as in units of any commingled, collective, common pooled or mutual trust fund, savings accounts, certificates of deposit and time deposits of a bank described pursuant to section 4-12-3; provided that the total sum invested in common stocks, convertible bonds or debentures shall not exceed 65 percent of the total trust fund; and further, provided, that all investments shall be of a quality grade, all commercial class "A" or comparable; and provided, further, that the total real estate investments shall not exceed five percent of the total trust fund portfolio; and shall be limited to commingled pools in corporate institutions showing an annual corporate real estate inventory of at least $5,000,000.00, with all such holdings of real estate or property to be of declared legal status in the United States; and

1. To keep in its discretion, such portion of the trust fund in cash or cash balances as the comptroller may from time to time deem to be in the best interest of the trust fund.

C. Specific functions of the investment committee include, but are not limited to, the following:

1. 5. Such other activities as may be reasonably related to the foregoing.

D. Regular meetings of the investment committee shall be held quarterly for the purpose of reviewing the performance measurement and other reports provided by the investment consultant in respect to each adviser and the pension fund as a whole, generally reviewing the statement of investment objectives, asset allocation strategy, and investment adviser strategies, meeting with investment advisers to the pension fund, and other relevant matters as may come to the attention of the committee or its advisers. The date, time, and place of such meetings shall be determined by the chairperson. At the option of the chairperson, one of the four quarterly meetings may be designated an annual meeting. The chairperson may also call additional meetings as needed.

E. Representatives of the investment committee and the investment consultant shall meet with the pension board periodically, as requested by the pension board, but not less than annually, to report on the status of the pension fund's investment activities, the committee's activities, and to make recommendations, as necessary and advisable to the pension board.

F. Representatives of the investment committee and the investment consultant shall make semi-annual reports to the personnel, intergovernmental and annexation committee along with recommendations on the city's investment policy.

2. If such participant and his or her surviving spouse die before distribution of his or her interest under this plan commences, his or her entire interest shall be distributed not later than five years after such later death; provided:
   a. If any portion of such interest is to be distributed to his or her spouse or his or her surviving children, such distribution will commence within one year of the participant's death and will be made in level payments over a period not greater than such spouse's or children life or life expectancy; and

CHAPTER 4-20. LIMITATION ON BENEFITS

Sections:

Sec. 4-20-1. Code §415 Limitations on Benefit Attributable to Employer Contributions.
Sec. 4-20-2. Limitations on 25 highest paid employees.

Sec. 4-20-1. Code §415 Limitations on Benefit Attributable to Employer Contributions.

A. Compliance with Code §415. The limitations in this Section are intended to comply with the provisions of §415 of the Internal Revenue Code (the "Code") as applicable to governmental plans, the provisions of which are incorporated by reference. The plan shall be administered in compliance with the provisions of Code §415 and regulations under that section that are applicable to governmental plans and applicable provisions of the final regulations issued by the Internal Revenue Service on April 5, 2007. Employer-financed benefits provided by the retirement system shall not exceed the applicable limitations set forth in Code §415, as adjusted under section 415(d) to reflect cost of living increases, and the retirement system shall adjust the benefits payable to participants and beneficiaries subject to the limitation each calendar year to conform with the adjusted limitation. For purposes of section 415(b) of the Code, the applicable limitation shall apply to aggregated benefits received from all qualified pension plans of the employer. If there is any discrepancy between the provisions of this Section and the provisions of Code §415 and the applicable regulations promulgated thereunder, such discrepancy shall be resolved in such a way as to give full effect to the provisions of the Code.

B. Basic limitation on benefit. Notwithstanding any provision in the plan to the contrary and except as provided in subsection (b) hereof, the annual benefit payable to a participant under the plan to the extent attributable to employer contributions, shall not exceed the defined benefit dollar limitation.

C. Exceptions. The limitations under subsection (a) shall not apply if the participant's annual benefit attributable to employer contributions under the plan or any other defined benefit plans maintained by an affiliate does not in the aggregate exceed $10,000. For Limitation Years ending after December 31, 2001, the defined benefit dollar limitation is $160,000, as adjusted, effective January 1 of each year, under Code §415(d) in such manner as the Secretary of the Treasury shall prescribe, and payable in the form of a straight life annuity. A limitation as adjusted under Code §415(d) will apply to limitation years ending with or within the calendar year for which the adjustment applies.

D. Adjustments to basic limitation.

1. Adjustment for early retirement. If a participant's benefit under the Plan commences before age 62, the defined benefit dollar limitation shall be adjusted (in the manner prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury) so that it is the actuarial equivalent of an annual benefit equal to the defined benefit dollar limitation commencing at age 62. The reduction under this subparagraph shall not reduce the defined benefit dollar limitation below (i) $75,000 if the benefit begins at age 55, or (ii) if the benefit begins before age 55, the equivalent of the $75,000 limitation for age 55.

2. Adjustment for deferred retirement. If a participant's benefit under the plan commences after age 65, the defined benefit dollar limitation shall be adjusted (in the manner prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury) so that it is the actuarial equivalent of a benefit equal to the defined benefit dollar limitation commencing at age 65.

3. Adjustment for less than ten years of participation. If a participant has completed less than ten years of participation in the plan, the defined benefit dollar limitation shall be adjusted by multiplying it by a fraction, the numerator of which is the participant's number of years (or part thereof) of participation in the plan and the denominator of which is ten; provided, such adjustment shall in no event reduce the defined benefit dollar limitation to an amount which is less than one-tenth ($1/10^{th}$) of the defined benefit dollar limitation [as determined without regard to this subsection (d)(3)].

4. Adjustment for less than ten years of vesting service. If a participant has completed less than ten years of service, the limitation referred to in (b) and the exception described in (c) shall be adjusted by multiplying the amounts described in such limitation and exception by a fraction, the numerator of which is the participant's number of years of service (or part thereof) and the denominator of which is ten; provided, such adjustments shall in no event reduce the limitation or exception amount to a figure which is less than one-tenth ($1/10^{th}$) of such limitation or exception amount as determined without regard to this subsection (d)(4).

5. Actuarial equivalence. Actuarial equivalence under subsections (d)(1) and (d)(2) shall be determined using a five percent interest assumption and the applicable mortality table prescribed under code section 417(e)(3)(A)(II).

E. Special rule for survivor and disability benefits. Regardless of the above, the early retirement reduction and the ten year phase-in do not apply to survivor and disability benefits.

F. Treatment of multiple defined benefit plans. The limitations of this section with respect to any participant who at any time has participated in any other defined benefit plan maintained by the employer shall apply as if the total benefits payable under all defined benefit plans in which the participant has participated were payable from one plan.

G. Special definitions applicable to Code §415 limitations.

1. Current accrued benefit. The term ""Current Accrued Benefit" shall mean a participant's accrued benefit, when expressed as an annual benefit within the meaning of Code §415(b)(2), determined as of the last day of the last limitation year beginning before January 1, 1987, without regard to any change in the terms of the Plan or any cost of living adjustments, if any, occurring after May 5, 1986.

2. Defined benefit dollar limitation. The term ""Defined Benefit Dollar Limitation" shall mean, for Limitation Years ending after December 31, 2001, $160,000, as adjusted, effective January 1 of each year, under Code §415(d) in such manner as the Secretary of the Treasury shall prescribe, and payable in the form of a straight life annuity. A limitation as adjusted under Code §415(d) will apply to limitation years ending with or within the calendar year for which the adjustment applies.

3. Defined benefit plan. The term "Defined Benefit Plan" shall mean any qualified retirement plan maintained by the employer which is not a defined contribution plan.

4. Compensation. The term "Compensation" as used in this section shall mean compensation as defined in the Regs. 1.415(c)-2(a) and shall be adjusted for types of compensation paid after a participant's severance from employment as provided in the final regulations under Section 415 of the Internal Revenue Code effective April 5, 2007 (IRB 2007-18, T.D. 9319).

For purposes of this section "Limitation Year" shall mean the plan year.
(Code 1985, § 25-50; Ord. No. 3907, § 1, 12-5-1989; Ord. No. 5763, § 1(25-50), 12-15-2020)

Sec. 4-20-2. Limitations on 25 highest paid employees.

A. Definitions. For purposes of this section:

1. Annual compensation means, for each participant, either:
   a. His or her average annual compensation;
   b. Such average annual compensation over the last five years; or
   c. His or her last annual compensation if such compensation is reasonably similar to his or her average regular annual compensation for the five preceding years.

2. Benefit means, for each participant, an amount which includes:
   a. Any periodic income;
   b. Any withdrawal values payable to a living participant; and
   c. The cost of any death benefits which may be payable after retirement on behalf of a participant, but shall not include the cost of any death benefits with respect to a participant before retirement nor the amount of any death benefit actually payable after the death of a participant whether such death occurs before or after retirement.

3. Full current costs means the normal cost of the plan for all years since the establishment of the plan, plus interest on any unfunded liability during such period. The "normal cost" of the plan for any year refers to the amount actuarially determined which would be required as a contribution by the city for such year to maintain the plan if the plan had been in effect from the beginning of employment of each then included participant and if such costs for prior years had been paid and all actuarial assumptions had been fulfilled.

4. Restricted date means the original effective date of the plan or the effective date of any subsequent amendment which substantially increases benefits.

5. Unrestricted date means the tenth anniversary of any restricted date.

B. Application. The limits in subsection C of this section shall apply to a participant only if both:

1. His or her anticipated annual benefit exceeds $1,500.00; and

2. Such participant was among the 25 highest paid employees as of a restricted date; and either

3. The plan is terminated before an unrestricted date; or

4. The benefit of such participant becomes payable before an unrestricted date; or

5. The benefit of such participant becomes payable after an unrestricted date but before the full current costs of the plan for the first ten years of the plan have been met.

If subsection (B)(4) of this section is applicable, the limitations shall remain in effect until the later of the expiration of the ten-year period commencing with the applicable restricted date or the date on which the full current costs have been met. If subsection (B)(5) of this section is applicable, the limitations shall continue to apply until the full current costs have been met for the first time.

C. Benefit limitations. A participant's benefits shall not exceed the amount which can be provided from whichever of the following is greater:

1. A dollar amount equal to the present value of the benefit guaranteed for such participant under ERISA section 4022, determined in accordance with regulations of the pension benefit guaranty corporation ("PBGC") on the date this plan terminates or, if earlier, on the date the participant's benefit commences, as if this plan had terminated on such date, provided the participant is a substantial owner within the meaning of ERISA section 4022(b)(5);

2. A dollar amount equal to the present value of the maximum benefit described in ERISA section 4022(b)(3)(B), determined in accordance with regulations of the PBGC on the date this plan terminates or, if earlier, on the date the participant's benefit commences, as if this plan had terminated on such date, without regard to any other limitations in ERISA section 4022, provided the participant is not a substantial owner within the meaning of ERISA section 4022(b)(5);

3. The city contributions, or funds attributable thereto, which would have been applied to provide benefits for the participant, if this plan had not been amended so as substantially to increase benefits;

4. $20,000.00; or

5. The sum of:

    a. The city contributions, or funds attributable thereto, which would have been applied to provide benefits for the participant if this plan had been terminated on the date before such amendment (if applicable); and

    b. The amount computed by multiplying the number of years for which the full current costs of this plan were met after the restricted date by 20 percent of the first $50,000.00 of the participant's annual compensation.

D. Exceeding the limitations. The limitations in subsection C of this section may be exceeded for the purpose of making current benefit payments to retired participants who would otherwise be subject to such restrictions, provided that:

1. The city contributions which may be used for any such retired participant in accordance with the restrictions in subsection C of this section, are applied to provide either a level amount of benefits in the normal form provided for under this plan, or a level amount of benefits in an optional form of benefit not greater in amount than the level amount under the normal form of benefit payment; and

2. The benefit thus provided is supplemented by monthly payments to the extent necessary to provide the full pension in the normal form called for by this plan; and

3. Such supplemental payments are made only if the full current costs of this plan have been met or if the aggregate of such supplemental payments for all such retired participants does not exceed the aggregate city contributions already made under this plan for the current plan year.

E. After meeting full current costs. If city contributions are sufficient to meet the full current costs of the plan at the unrestricted date, or if the full current costs are met for the first time after the unrestricted date, the excess of the benefit payable under the plan over the amounts actually paid under the limits of subsection C of this section shall be paid in a lump sum to the retired or terminated participant, if living, or if deceased, to his or her spouse or, if no spouse, his or her child.

F. Plan termination. If the plan is terminated while the limitations of this section are in effect, that portion of the assets of the trust fund arising from city contributions in excess of the foregoing limitations shall be allocated to satisfy the liabilities for the benefit of participants, including retired participants, whose benefits are not limited by this section; provided, if assets remain after the satisfaction of all liabilities for the benefits of such participants, such remaining assets shall be allocated in a nondiscriminatory manner, for the benefit of all participants, including participants whose benefits are otherwise limited by this section.

G. Change in law, regulation or ruling. The limitations provided in this section automatically shall become inoperative and of no further force and effect if Congress provides by law or the United States Department of the Treasury provides by regulations or the Internal Revenue Service provides by ruling that the limitations imposed by this section are not required.

Sec. 4-20-3. Rollover distributions.

A. Application. Notwithstanding any provision in the pension system to the contrary that would otherwise limit a distributee's election under this section, a distributee may elect at the time and in the manner prescribed by the board of administration to have any portion of an eligible rollover distribution from the pension system paid directly to an eligible retirement plan specified by the distributee in a direct rollover.

B. Definitions.

1. "Eligible rollover distribution." An "eligible rollover distribution" is any distribution of all or any portion of the balance to the credit of the "distributee," except that an "eligible rollover distribution" does not include: any distribution that is one of a series of substantially equal periodic payments (not less frequently than annually) made for the life (or life expectancy) of the "distributee" or the joint lives (or joint life expectancies) of the "distributee" and the "distributee's" designated beneficiary, or for a specified period of ten years or more; any distribution to the extent such distribution is required under Code Section 401(a)(9); the portion of any other distribution that is not includible in gross income (determined without regard to the exclusion for net unrealized appreciation with respect to employer securities); and any other distribution that is reasonably expected to total less than $200.00 during a year.

2. "Eligible retirement plan." An "eligible retirement plan" is an individual retirement account described in Code Section 408(a), an individual retirement annuity described in Code Section 408(b) (other than an endowment contract), a qualified trust (an employees' trust) described in Code Section 401(a) which is exempt from tax under Code Section 501(a), an annuity plan described in Code Section 403(a), an eligible deferred compensation plan described in Code Section 457(b) which is maintained by an eligible employer described in Code Section 457(e)(1)(A), and an annuity contract described in Code Section 403(b), that accepts the "distributee's" "eligible rollover distribution." However, in the case of an "eligible rollover distribution" to the surviving spouse or a non-spouse beneficiary as provided herein, an "eligible retirement plan" is an individual retirement account or individual retirement annuity.

3. "Distributee." A distributee includes an employee or former employee. In addition, the employee's or former employee's surviving spouse and the employee's or former employee's spouse or former spouse who is the alternate payee under a qualified domestic relations order, as defined in Code § 414(p), are distributees with regard to the interest of the spouse or former spouse. In addition, a rollover shall be permitted in accordance with Code Section 402(c)(11). In general, this includes a direct trust to trust transfer by a designated beneficiary to an inherited individual retirement account or annuity or other trust of a type specified by the Secretary of the Treasury.

4. "Direct rollover." A direct rollover is a payment by the pension system to the eligible retirement plan specified by the distributee.

C. Non-spouse beneficiary rollover right. For distributions after December 31, 2009, a non-spouse beneficiary who is a "designated beneficiary" under code section 401(a)(9)(E) and the regulations thereunder, by a direct trustee-to-trustee transfer ("direct rollover"), may roll over all or any portion of his or her distribution from the Pension System to an individual retirement account the beneficiary establishes for purposes of receiving the distribution. In order to be able to roll over the distribution, the distribution otherwise must satisfy the definition of an eligible rollover distribution.

a. Certain requirements not applicable. Although a non-spouse beneficiary may roll over directly a distribution as provided above, any distribution made prior to January 1, 2010 is not subject to the direct rollover requirements of code section 401(a)(31) (including code section 401(a)(31)(B), the notice requirements of code section 402(f) or the mandatory withholding requirements of code section 3405(c)). If a non-spouse beneficiary receives a distribution from the Plan, the distribution is not eligible for a "60-day" rollover.

b. Trust beneficiary. If the participant's named beneficiary is a trust, the Plan may make a direct rollover to an individual retirement account on behalf of the trust, provided the trust satisfies the requirements to be a designated beneficiary within the meaning of code section 401(a)(9)(E).

c. Required minimum distributions not eligible for rollover. A non-spouse beneficiary may not roll over an amount which is a required minimum distribution, as determined under applicable Treasury regulations and other Revenue Service guidance. If the participant dies before his or her required beginning date and the non-spouse beneficiary rolls over to an IRA the maximum amount eligible for rollover, the beneficiary may elect to use either the five-year rule or the life expectancy rule, pursuant to Treas. Reg. §1.401(a)(9)-3, A-4(c), in determining the required minimum distributions from the IRA that receives the non-spouse beneficiary's distribution.

D. Roth IRA rollover. For distributions made after December 31, 2007, a participant may elect to roll over directly an eligible rollover distribution to a Roth IRA described in code section 408A(b).

C. Involuntary transfer from the county.

1. An involuntary transfer county employee shall become a participant of this 1948 plan as of his or her employment creditable service date, provided, he or she became an employee before July 1, 1978. Such participation shall be mandatory as a condition of his or her employment.
2. Except for purposes of sections 4-24-12(A) and 4-24-16, the accrued benefit of an involuntary transfer county employee shall be determined as the excess, if any, of a. minus b., where:
    a. His or her accrued benefit is based on his or her total years of service, including county transfer service, and his or her average monthly compensation as of his or her date of retirement or earlier termination of employment as an employee, as the case may be; and

B. Involuntary transfer from the city.

1. The head of each city department shall apply the rate of contribution to the compensation of each participant, and shall certify to the comptroller on each payroll the amount to be contributed, and shall promptly furnish to the board a copy of each payroll; and such amount shall be deducted by the comptroller and shall be paid into the trust fund and credited by the board as employee contributions of the participants for whom the contributions were made. (Code 1985, § 25-72; Ord. No. 3907, § 1, 12-5-1989)

Sec. 4-24-9. Prohibition against interest.

The city shall not have any right, claim or interest in the trust fund or in any contributions made to the trust fund, and this 1948 plan may not be amended to use the trust fund for any purpose other than the exclusive benefit of the participants and, where applicable, their spouses or children; provided the comptroller shall return any portion of a contribution which was made under a mistake of fact, provided such return is made within one year after such contribution is made.

Sec. 4-24-18. Distribution.

A. Beneficiary priority. The death benefit of section 4-24-16 or section 4-24-17 shall be paid to the surviving spouse (as such term is defined in section 4-4-1) until the spouse's death. If there is no spouse, or upon the spouse's death, the death benefit shall be made or shall continue to be paid to or on the behalf of the participant's surviving child and handicapped child (as the terms "child" and "handicapped child" are defined in section 4-4-1), for as long as the individual is a child or handicapped child; provided, however, any handicapped child shall be entitled to receive only 50 percent of the benefit payment any other child of the participant shall be entitled to receive. If payments are made to more than one child, the death benefit shall be payable in equal shares; provided, if any child becomes ineligible to receive benefits because of death or attainment of age, the death benefit shall be divided equally among the remaining eligible children. No surviving spouse of a participant's spouse shall be entitled to any benefits from this 1948 plan as a result of the participant's spouse's interest in a benefit payable under section 4-24-16 or 4-24-17.

B. Payment after refund. If a participant's employee contributions have been refunded under section 4-24-14 before his or her date of death, credits against such refund shall be made in lieu of cash death benefit payments under section 4-24-16 or 4-24-17 until such credits have fully offset such refund amount.
(Code 1985, § 25-93; Ord. No. 3907, § 1, 12-5-1989; Ord. No. 5763, § 1(25-93), 12-15-2020)

Sec. 4-24-19. Residual benefits and refund of employee contributions.

A. Notwithstanding any other sections of this 1948 plan, a participant's beneficiaries, in the order of priority as set forth in section 4-24-19(B) hereof, shall be paid any excess of the participant's total accumulated employee contributions, minus the aggregate total retirement and death benefit payments under this 1948 plan made to the participant, the participant's spouse, children, or any other designated beneficiary, following the death of all such individuals.

B. For a participant whose employment terminates due to death, whose beneficiaries are not entitled to any benefit under any other section of this Plan, such participant's beneficiaries, in the order specified below, shall be entitled to receive a refund of the participant's contributions, less the aggregate of any amount of such contributions paid to the participant, the participant's spouse, children or any other designated beneficiary, prior to the participant's death. The beneficiaries of the benefit under this section (or in the case of residual benefits the beneficiaries of any residual benefits under section 4-24-19(A) hereof) shall be:

1. The beneficiary or beneficiaries designated by the participant (in accordance with procedures established by the board). Notwithstanding the foregoing to the contrary, if the participant is married at the time of such designation, if the beneficiary or beneficiaries designated by the participant is not the participant's spouse, the participant's spouse's written consent to such specific beneficiary or beneficiaries shall be required for such designation to become effective, and such consent shall be witnessed by a notary public or by the benefits manager of the city, the total rewards officer of the city, or such other person representing the board as duly designated by the board. A participant's spouse may give a general consent acknowledging the spouse's right to consent to any beneficiary or beneficiaries and relinquishing such right, in which event any future revocation and/or redesignation of beneficiary(ies) by the participant shall not require further spousal consent. The consent of the spouse must acknowledge the effect of such election and, once given, cannot be revoked by such spouse. Any spousal consent shall only be applicable to the spouse granting such consent, or

2. The participant's spouse, if married to the participant at the time of his/her death, or

3. If no such spouse, the participant's surviving child and handicapped child, as those terms are defined in section 4-4-1(6), or

4. If no such surviving child and/or handicapped child, to the participant's surviving child as the term "child' is defined in section 4-4-1(6) but without regard to the child's age or status in an educational institution, or

5. If no such surviving child to the alternative beneficiary or beneficiaries designated by the participant (in accordance with procedures established by the board) or

6. If the participant failed to designate an alternate beneficiary or beneficiaries as provided above, to the participant's estate.

If there is more than one eligible beneficiary the benefit shall be divided equally among the eligible beneficiaries unless the beneficiaries are designated beneficiaries by the participant as provided above whereupon the benefit will be divided in accordance with the designation by the participant, or if no such designation then equally. For purposes of this section, the terms "spouse" and "child" shall mean any person who the board determines in good faith under the plan is the legally recognized spouse or child of the participant. Each beneficiary, or his/her duly appointed representative, shall be responsible for making application, in accordance with uniform procedures established by the board, for any benefit due him/her under this section. A beneficiary shall have no claim against the board, or the pension system, or the city by reason of the failure of such beneficiary to apply properly or timely for benefits under the pension system.
(Code 1985, § 25-94; Ord. No. 3907, § 1, 12-5-1989; Ord. No. 5763, § 1(25-94), 12-15-2020)

ARTICLE 5. DROP PROGRAM

Sec. 4-24-21. Deferred retirement option plan (DROP).

A. DROP overview. Except as provided in subsection F of this section, means an eligible employee (as defined in subsection B of this section), who has made the election described in subsection C of this section, will participate in the program and receive the benefit described in subsection D of this section, and receives distributions in the form described in subsection E of this section.

B. Definition.

Eligible employee means any employee who is a participant who has attained his or her normal retirement date and has at least 25 years of service.

C. Election. An eligible employee can make an irrevocable election to participate in the DROP program (as described in subsection D of this section), during December, March, June, or September, by completing an election form to participate in the DROP program for a maximum one-year, two-year, or three-year period beginning on the effective date of the election, and agreeing to retire no later than the end of his or her one-, two-, or three-year period of participation in the DROP program. The December election is effective on the next January 15; the March election is effective on the next April 15; the June election is effective on the next July 15; and the September election is effective on the next October 15.

D. Participation and benefits. During the one-year, two-year, or three-year period elected by the employee:

1. The employee's contributions and the city's contributions to the plan shall cease as of the effective date;

2. No additional years of service or compensation shall be considered (with the exception no possible ad hoc benefit increases granted by the city), so the employee's benefit under the plan is frozen (or fixed) as of the date his or her election is effective;

3. The employee's frozen benefit shall be calculated as though the employee retired on the effective date of his or her election, and a DROP account shall be established for such eligible employee; and

4. A DROP account shall be established for each electing employee. The DROP account shall be a recordkeeping account for the benefit of electing participants, which beginning on the effective date of the electing participant's election, shall be credited with an amount equal to the monthly pension benefit the electing participant would receive had he or she retired and begun receiving payments on the effective date.

Interest shall be credited each calendar quarter on the average monthly balance in the DROP account during such quarter based on 25 percent of the 90-day treasury bill yield published in the last Wall Street Journal of such quarter.

E. Distribution from DROP program. As soon as is administratively feasible after the employee has ceased to participate in the DROP program, the city will begin to pay the employee his or her monthly benefit, and also, pay the employee in a lump-sum, the balance in his or her DROP account as of the end of the last quarter. The lump-sum payment of the DROP account may be rolled-over at the participant's direction.

F. Exceptions and limitations. In the event an employee who has elected to participate in the DROP program becomes disabled or dies in the line of duty as defined in section 4-4-1(27), 4-24-12(A) or 4-24-16, the participant's election shall be retroactively revoked and such participant or beneficiary shall be eligible for line of duty disability retirement or death benefits as defined in section 4-24-12(A) or 4-24-16 as if the DROP program had never been elected.

B. The beneficiaries of the refund under subsection A of this section shall be the person so designated by the participant in writing, or, if no such designation, his or her estate. Sec. 4-28-19. Distribution.

A. Beneficiary priority. The death benefit of section 4-24-16 or section 4-24-17 shall be paid to the surviving spouse (as such term is defined in section 4-4-1) until the spouse's death. If there is no spouse, or upon the spouse's death, the death benefit shall be made or shall continue to be paid to or on the behalf of the participant's surviving child and handicapped child (as the terms "child" and "handicapped child" are defined in section 4-4-1), for as long as the individual is a child or handicapped child; provided, however, any handicapped child shall be entitled to receive only 50 percent of the benefit payment any other child of the participant shall be entitled to receive. If payments are made to more than one child, the death benefit shall be payable in equal shares; provided, if any child becomes ineligible to receive benefits because of death or attainment of age, the death benefit shall be divided equally among the remaining eligible children. No surviving spouse of a participant's spouse shall be entitled to any benefits from this 1978 plan as a result of the participant's spouse's interest in a benefit payable under section 4-24-16 or section 4-24-17.

For each participant hired on or after July 1, 2012, the death benefit of 4-24-16 or 4-24-17 shall be paid to the surviving spouse until the spouse's death. If there is no spouse, or upon the spouse's death, the death benefit shall be made, or shall continue to be paid to or on the behalf of the participant's child and handicapped child (as the terms "child" and "handicapped child" are defined in section 4-4-1), for as long as the individual is a child or handicapped child; provided, however, any handicapped child shall be entitled to receive only 50 percent of the benefit payment any other child of the participant shall be entitled to receive. If payments are made to more than one child, the death benefit shall be payable in equal shares; provided, if any child becomes ineligible to receive benefits because of death or attainment of age, the death benefit shall be divided equally among the remaining eligible children. No surviving spouse of a participant's spouse shall be entitled to any benefits from this 1978 plan as a result of the participant's spouse's interest in a benefit payable under section 4-24-16 or section 4-24-17.

B. Payment after refund. If a participant's employee contributions have been refunded under section 4-28-14 before his or her date of death, credits against such refund shall be made in lieu of cash death benefit payments under section 4-28-16 or 4-28-17 until such credits have fully offset such refund amount.
(Code 1985, § 25-193; Ord. No. 3907, § 1, 12-5-1989; Ord. No. 5416, § 3, 12-6-2011; Ord. No. 5763, § 1(25-193), 12-15-2020)

Editor's note—Ord. No. 5763, adopted Dec. 15, 2020, shall be effective on January 28, 2021.

Sec. 4-28-20. Residual benefits and refund of employee contributions.

A. Notwithstanding any other sections of this 1978 plan, a participant's beneficiaries, in the order of priority as set forth in section 4-28-20(B) hereof, shall be paid any excess of the participant's total accumulated employee contributions, minus the aggregate total retirement and death benefit payments under this 1978 plan made to the participant, the participant's spouse, children, or any other designated beneficiary, following the death of all such individuals.

B. For a participant whose employment terminates due to death, whose beneficiaries are not entitled to any benefit under any other section of this plan, such participant's beneficiaries, in the order specified below, shall be entitled to receive a refund of the participant's contributions, less the aggregate of any amount of such contributions paid to the participant, the participant's spouse, children or any other designated beneficiary, prior to the participant's death. The beneficiaries of the benefit under this section (or in the case of residual benefits the beneficiaries of any residual benefits under section 4-25-194(a) hereof) shall be:

1. the beneficiary or beneficiaries designated by the participant (in accordance with procedures established by the board). Notwithstanding the foregoing to the contrary, if the participant is married at the time of such designation, if the beneficiary or beneficiaries designated by the participant is not the participant's spouse, the participant's spouse's written consent to such specific beneficiary or beneficiaries shall be required for such designation to be effective, and such consent shall be witnessed by a notary public or by the benefits manager of the city, the total rewards officer of the city, or such other person representing the board as duly designated by the board. A participant's spouse may give a general consent acknowledging the spouse's right to consent to any beneficiary or beneficiaries and relinquishing such right, in which event any future revocation and/or redesignation of beneficiary(ies) by the participant shall not require further spousal consent. The consent of the spouse must acknowledge the effect of such election and once given, cannot be revoked by such spouse. Any spousal consent shall only be applicable to the spouse granting such consent, or

2. the participant's spouse, if married to the participant at the time of his/her death, or

3. if no such spouse, the participant's surviving child and handicapped child, as those terms are defined in section 4-25-1(6), or

4. if no such surviving child and/or handicapped child, to the participant's surviving child as the term "child' is defined in section 4-25-1(6) but without regard to the child's age or status in an educational institution, or

5. if no such surviving child to the alternative beneficiary or beneficiaries designated by the participant (in accordance with procedures established by the Board) or

6. if the participant failed to designate an alternate beneficiary or beneficiaries as provided above, to the participant's estate.

If there is more than one eligible beneficiary the benefit shall be divided equally among the eligible beneficiaries unless the beneficiaries are designated beneficiaries by the participant as provided above whereupon the benefit will be divided in accordance with the designation by the participant, or if no such designation then equally. For purposes of this section, the terms "spouse" and "child" shall mean any person who the board determines in good faith under the plan is the legally recognized spouse or child of the participant. Notwithstanding the foregoing, a final divorce decree shall terminate an ex-spouse's status as beneficiary, unless the participant has on file in the retirement office a beneficiary designation that redesignates the ex-spouse as beneficiary dated subsequent to the issuance of the divorce decree. Each beneficiary, or his/her duly appointed representative, shall be responsible for making application, in accordance with uniform procedures established by the board, for any benefit due to him/her under this section. A beneficiary shall have no claim against the board, or the pension system, or the city by reason of the failure of such beneficiary to apply properly or timely for benefits under the pension system. (Code 1985, § 25-194; Ord. No. 3907, § 1, 12-5-1989; Ord. No. 5763, § 1(25-194), 12-15-2020; Ord. No. 5873, § 8, 7-11-2023)

ARTICLE 5. DROP PROGRAM

Sec. 4-28-22. Deferred retirement option plan (DROP).

A. DROP overview. Except as provided in subsection (F) of this section, an eligible employee (as defined in subsection (B) of this section), who has made the election described in subsection (C) of this section, will participate in the program and receive the benefit described in subsection (D) of this section, and receives distributions in the form described in subsection (E) of this section.

B. Definition. Eligible employee means any employee who is a participant who has attained his or her normal retirement date and has at least 25 years of service.

C. Election. An eligible employee can make an irrevocable election to participate in the DROP program (as described in subsection (D) of this section), during December, March, June, or September, by completing an election form to participate in the DROP program for a maximum one-year, two-year, or three-year period beginning on the effective date of the election, and agreeing to retire no later than the end of his or her one-, two-, or three-year period of participation in the DROP program. The December election is effective on the next January 15, the March election is effective on the next April 15, the June election is effective on the next July 15, and the September election is effective on the next October 15.

D. Participation and benefits. During the one-year, two-year, or three-year period elected by the employee:

1. The employee's contributions and the city's contributions to the plan shall cease as of the effective date;

2. No additional years of service or compensation shall be considered (with the exception of possible ad hoc benefit increases granted by the city), so the employee's benefit under the plan is frozen (or fixed) as of the date his or her election is effective;

3. The employee's frozen benefit shall be calculated as though the employee retired on the effective date of his or her election, and a DROP account shall be established for such eligible employee; and

4. A DROP account shall be established for each electing employee. The DROP account shall be a recordkeeping account for the benefit of electing participants, which beginning on the effective date of the electing participant's election, shall be credited with an amount equal to the monthly pension benefit the electing participant would receive had he or she retired and begun receiving payments on the effective date.

Interest shall be credited each calendar quarter on the average monthly balance in the DROP account during such quarter based on 25 percent of the 90-day treasury bill yield published in the last Wall Street Journal of such quarter.

E. Distribution from DROP program. As soon as is administratively feasible after the employee has ceased to participate in the DROP program, the city will begin to pay the employee his or her monthly benefit, and also, pay the employee in a lump-sum the balance in his or her DROP account as of the end of the last quarter. The lump-sum payment of the DROP account may be rolled-over at the participant's direction.

F. Exceptions and limitations. In the event an employee who has elected to participate in the DROP program becomes disabled or dies in the line of duty as defined in section 4-4-1(27), 4-28-12(A) or 4-28-16, the participant's election shall be retroactively revoked and such participant or beneficiary shall be eligible for line of duty disability retirement or death benefits as defined in section 4-28-12(A) or 4-28-16 as if the DROP program had never been elected.

G. Notwithstanding any other limitations, for any employee who elected to participate in the DROP program between 9/1/2012 and 6/30/2015 and whose effective date of retirement is between 10/1/2015 and 9/1/2018, such employee may elect to temporarily "freeze" in place and suspend participation in the DROP program ("drop suspension"). Requests for a drop suspension must be submitted in writing on a DROP suspension form to the human resources director's office on or before October 30, 2015. The drop suspension period shall commence on the first business day after human resources director's office receives the drop suspension form and shall continue until the earlier of (i) the date the participating employee elects to "unfreeze" and resume participation in the DROP program by submitting a written notice to the human resources director's office, which may be made at anytime after the drop suspension period commences, or (ii) two years from the commencement of the drop suspension period.

By electing to "freeze" and suspend participation in the DROP program, the participating employee agrees that during the drop suspension period he or she will be deemed to be an "employee" under the city's pension plan and for all other city purposes and shall thereby receive creditable service for pension purposes as an regular employee during the drop suspension period.

The city and the electing employee will be required to make all city and employee contributions to the city's pension plan during the drop suspension period.

During the drop suspension period the city's payments to the employees drop account will immediately cease. However, any amount accrued in the employees DROP account as of the commencement of the drop suspension period will be held for the benefit of the electing employee and will accrue normal interest during the drop suspension period.

Upon termination of the drop suspension period, the employee's participation in the DROP program shall recommence at that time and the employee shall be entitled to complete any time remaining in the original election period (1, 2 or 3 years) at the time the employee suspended participation in the DROP program, except that the city's payments into the employee's drop account from that point forward shall be based on recalculated pension Benefits using the additional credible service earned during the drop suspension period. The employee shall not receive pension credible service time for the period of time the employee previously participated in the DROP program. Upon re-entry of the DROP program the provisions of subsection (D) will apply.

H. Notwithstanding any other limitations, an employee who holds the position and title of chief operating officer, chief legal officer/city attorney, chief financial officer, chief of human resources, chief communications officer, chief/director of police, chief/director of fire, city council administrator or chief of staff ("eligible employee"), who elected to participate in the DROP program between January 1, 2012 and June 30, 2016 and whose effective date of retirement is between January 1, 2017 and December 31, 2018 may elect to "freeze" temporarily in place or extend such eligible employee's "freeze" under subsection G and suspend participation in the DROP program ("DROP suspension"). Requests for a drop suspension must be submitted by an eligible employee in writing to the City of Memphis, Tennessee Human Resources Office on or before December 31, 2016 on a DROP suspension form provided for such purpose by the human resources office. The DROP suspension period ("DROP suspension period") shall commence on the first business day following receipt by the human resources office of the duly executed and complete DROP suspension form (the "DROP suspension commencement date") and shall continue until the earlier of (i) the date the participating employee elects to "unfreeze" and resume participation in the DROP program by submitting a written notice to the human resources office on a form provided for such purpose by the human resources office (the "DROP suspension termination date"), which DROP suspension termination date may be at any time after the DROP suspension commencement date, or (ii) three years following the DROP suspension commencement date.

By electing to "freeze" and suspend participation in the DROP program, the participating employee agrees that during the DROP suspension period he or she will be deemed to be an "employee" under the city's pension system, subject to the terms and conditions of the city's pension system, and for all other city purposes and shall thereby receive creditable service for pension purposes as a regular employee during the DROP suspension period. The city and the electing employee will be required to make all city and employee contributions to the city's pension plan during the DROP suspension period in accordance with the terms and provisions of the city's pension system.

Commencing immediately upon the suspension commencement date and continuing throughout the DROP suspension period the city's payments to the employee's drop account will cease. However, any amount accrued in the employee's DROP account immediately preceding the suspension commencement date will continue in such account for the benefit of the electing employee and will continue to accrue interest as provided in and be subject to subsection (D) hereof during the DROP suspension period.

Effective on the first business day following the DROP suspension termination date, the employee's participation in the DROP program shall recommence and the employee shall be entitled to complete any time remaining in the original DROP election period under subsection C (one, two, or three years) as of the DROP suspension commencement date except that the city's payments into the employee's DROP account from the recommencement date until termination of the original DROP election period shall be based on recalculated pension benefits using the additional pension credible service earned during the DROP suspension period. The employee shall not receive pension credible service for the period of time the employee previously participated in the DROP program. Upon the employee's recommencement in the DROP program the provisions of subsection D shall apply.

I. Notwithstanding any other limitations, for any employee who elected or elects to participate in the DROP program between January 1, 2015 and May 1, 2017 and whose effective date of retirement is between February 1, 2018 and June 1, 2020 ("eligible employee") may elect to "freeze" temporarily in place or extend such Eligible Employee's "freeze" under subparagraph (G) and suspend participation in the DROP program ("drop suspension"). Requests for a drop suspension must be submitted by an eligible employee in writing to the City of Memphis Human Resources Office on or before the 30th day following the effective date of adoption of this subparagraph (I) on a DROP suspension form provided for such purpose by the human resources office. The DROP suspension period ("DROP suspension period") shall commence on the first business day following receipt by the human resources office of the duly executed and complete DROP suspension form (the "DROP suspension commencement date") and shall continue until the earlier of (i) the date the participating employee elects to "unfreeze" and resume participation in the DROP program by submitting a written notice to the human resources office on a form provided for such purpose by the human resources office. (the "DROP suspension termination date"), which DROP suspension termination date may be at any time after the DROP suspension commencement date, or (ii) three years following the DROP suspension commencement date.

By electing to "freeze" and suspend participation in the DROP program, the eligible employee agrees that during the DROP suspension period he or she will be deemed to be an "employee" under the city's pension system, subject to the terms and conditions of the city's pension system, and for all other city purposes and shall thereby receive creditable service for pension purposes as a regular employee during the DROP suspension period. The city and the electing employee will be required to make all city and employee contributions to the city's pension plan during the DROP suspension period in accordance with the terms and provisions of the city's pension system.

Commencing immediately upon the DROP suspension commencement date and continuing throughout the DROP suspension period the city's payments to the employee's DROP account will cease. However, any amount accrued in the employee's DROP account immediately preceding the suspension commencement date will continue in such account for the benefit of the electing employee and will continue to accrue interest as provided in and be subject to subparagraph (D) hereof during the DROP suspension period.

Effective on the first business day following the DROP suspension termination date, the eligible employee's participation in the DROP program shall recommence and the eligible employee shall be entitled to complete any time remaining in the original DROP election period under subparagraph (C) (1, 2, or 3 years) as of the DROP suspension commencement date except that the city's payments into the eligible employee's DROP account from the recommencement date until termination of the original DROP election period shall be based on recalculated pension benefits using the additional pension credible service earned during the DROP suspension period. The eligible employee shall not receive pension credible service for the period of time the eligible employee previously participated in the DROP program. Upon the eligible employee's recommencement in the DROP program the provisions of subsection (D) shall apply.

J. Notwithstanding any other limitations, any employee who elected to freeze in place and suspend participation in the DROP program under subparagraph (G) or subparagraph (H), as applicable, may elect to extend such "freeze" in place and extend the DROP suspension period for an additional DROP suspension period until the earlier of (i) the date the electing employee elects to "unfreeze" and resume participation in the DROP program by submitting a written notice to the human resources director's office, which may be made at any time after the additional drop suspension period commences, or (ii) three years from the last day of the original drop suspension period. By electing to extend the "freeze" as provided in this subparagraph (J) the electing employee shall be and remain subject to the same terms and conditions as provided in subparagraph (G) or subparagraph (H), is applicable, during the original DROP suspension period.

Beginning on and after July 1, 1975, the average compensation of all new employees shall be based on the highest three years average. ARTICLE 2. PARTICIPATION

Sec. 4-32-3. Participation.

A. All full-time and permanent part-time employees of the employer as of April 1, 1975, shall be participants under the '75 plan of the retirement system, and their entry date shall be:

1. For full-time employees, the date they began their service with the Memphis and Shelby County Public Library and Information Center, Memphis Public Library and Information Center, Memphis Public Library, or Cossitt Library; and

2. For permanent part-time employees, the date which is the first day of the 12-month period in which they were compensated for 1,000 or more hours as described in section 4-32-1, definition of "permanent part-time employee."

B. All salaried full-time and permanent part-time employees who enter library service after April 1, 1975, and before April 1, 1979, shall, as a condition of such employment, be participants, pursuant to the '75 plan provisions, from the effective date of entering such service.

C. All employees who enter library service on or after April 1, 1979, as a result of being hired or rehired, shall be participants under the '79 plan; provided, however, that an employee who was a participant under the '75 plan and who:

1. Terminated employment while under such provisions after having satisfied the requirements for a vested benefit under such provisions and who elected a monthly retirement benefit in lieu of a return of his or her contributions; or

2. Retired under such plan under regular retirement or disability retirement provisions, shall, following any subsequent rehire, be a participant of the '75 plan, rather than the '79 plan.

D. Except as specifically provided above, all employees who enter library service on or after April 1, 1979, shall become participants of the '79 plan of the retirement system and not participants of the '75 plan. In the case where an employee who was a former participant under the '75 plan becomes a member under the '79 plan because of being rehired and not being covered by subsection (C)(1) and (2) of this section, credited service, if any, shall be granted in this system for such prior participation in the retirement system pursuant to section 4-32-21.

E. Notwithstanding the foregoing, permanent part-time employees hired on or after January 1, 1992, shall not be eligible for participation in the retirement system.
(Code 1985, § 18-42)

Sec. 4-32-4. Transfers.

Under the circumstances described in this section a participant may be credited with additional service and/or have service under this plan credited as additional service under certain other retirement plans.

A. Involuntary transfer from the city or county. Each involuntary transfer employee shall present to the board a certificate stating the amount of his or her city or county transfer service. The board shall have the authority to review and accept such transfer service certificate and shall approve crediting of such transfer service as credited service, provided such service has been calculated in accordance with the city or county retirement system, as applicable, all conditions regarding the transfer of the participant as specified in this fulfilled, and the person transferred reports for employment with the city or county on the date required by authorized designee of the city or county. Transfer service shall be added to the participant's credited service for purposes of determining the participant's eligibility for a retirement allowance;

B. Accrued benefits of involuntary transfer employee. Except for purposes of section 4-32-8, the accrued benefit of an involuntary transfer employee shall be determined as the excess, if any, of a. minus b., where:

1. Is his or her accrued benefit based on his or her total years of service, including city or county transfer service, and his or her average compensation as of his or her date of retirement or earlier termination of employment as an employee, as the case may be; and

2. Is his or her accrued benefit based on his or her city or county transfer service and average compensation as of his or her date of retirement or earlier termination of employment as an employee, as the case may be.

For purposes of section 4-32-8, the accrued benefit of an involuntary transfer employee shall be his or her accrued benefit based on his or her total years of service, including transfer service, and his or her average compensation as of his or her date of retirement or earlier termination of employment as an employee, as the case may be.

C. Involuntary transfer from the library.

1. A library transfer employee to the city or county shall become a member of the city or county retirement system, as applicable, subject to the provisions of such plan, as of his or her date of employment with the city or county. Upon proper notification by city or county government, the board shall issue a certificate stating the amount of the transferred participant's transfer service. The board shall present to the city or county such transfer service certificate for review and acceptance and shall approve such transfer service, provided such person transferred reports for employment with the city or county on the date required by an authorized designee of the city or county.

2. A library transfer employee shall receive a benefit under this plan, if he or she would be entitled to one other than under sections 4-32-8 or 4-32-19(A), based on the sum of his or her years of creditable service with the library retirement system. The amount of such benefit shall be determined under this plan based on his or her average compensation (defined to take into account any compensation received by him or her from the city or county prior to his or her retirement, death or disability not incurred in line-of-duty, or other termination of employment) and his or her credited service as of the date of his or her transfer from the library.

3. No benefit under section 4-32-8 or section 4-32-19(A) shall be paid any library transfer employee. Instead, upon payment to the employee of any benefits due to death or disability attributable to hazardous duty in accordance with the terms of the city or county retirement system, the participant's employee contributions then in the trust fund shall be transferred to the city or county retirement plan. Such transfer shall be a full and unconditional release of any and all obligations of the library under this plan. Under no other circumstances shall any assets of the trust fund be transferred to the city or county retirement system on behalf of a library transfer employee, and the actuarial funding and payment of any other benefit shall be the responsibility of the city or county.

(Code 1985, § 18-43; Ord. No. 4173, § 1, 4-16-1993)

ARTICLE 3. RETIREMENT BENEFITS

Sec. 4-32-5. Normal retirement.

A. Condition. A participant whose employment with the employer is terminated on or after his or her normal retirement date shall be entitled to receive a monthly retirement benefit paid in accordance with article 4 of this chapter.

B. Normal retirement benefit. The monthly retirement benefit, based on the normal form of payment, described in section 4-32-14(A), which shall commence on the participant's retirement date, shall be determined as of such date as (1) plus (2) where:

1. Equals two and one-half percent of average compensation multiplied by his or her years of credited service (not to exceed 25 years); and

2. Equals one percent of average compensation multiplied by his or her years of credited service (not to exceed ten years) in excess of 25 years.

Notwithstanding the foregoing or any other provision of the plan, for benefits determined as of any date prior to July 1, 1992, and all cases for determining the benefit of any individual who is not an employee on or after July 1, 1992, subsection (B)(1) of this section shall be applied by substituting "2¼ percent" for "2½ percent."

C. Conversion of unused sick leave into creditable service.

1. Employees may elect to convert unused sick leave into creditable service time to become initially qualified for retirement benefits, or provide for benefit enhancement of a full and normal retirement. If an employee requests to use unused sick leave to become eligible for a full and normal retirement, credit time will be given for all unused leave.

2. Upon full and normal retirement eligibility, full-time employees with 35 years or less of creditable service who are members of the library retirement system will have the following options: employees may be paid up to 65 days (520 hours) of accumulated sick leave; or employees may elect to add accumulated sick leave days to their creditable service for pension benefit calculations. Percentage will not exceed 72.50 of average annual compensation.

3. For the purpose of converting accumulated sick leave hours to service time, 173.33 hours of accumulated sick leave will equal one month of creditable service.

4. Employees with more than 35 years of creditable service will have the following options: employees may elect to be paid up to 65 days (520 hours) of unused sick leave; or employees may elect to convert the unused sick leave to an annual percentage (one percent for each years accumulation of sick leave hours). The employee will receive a one-time-only payment which represents the annual percentage calculated based on the life expectancy of the employee.

5. In calculating regular retirement benefit payments, at no time will the maximum percentage amount exceed 72.50 percent of average annual compensation.

(Code 1985, § 18-44; Ord. No. 4173, § 1, 4-16-1993; Ord. No. 4833, 12-19-2000)

Sec. 4-32-6. Early retirement.

A. Condition. If a participant who is under the '79 plan terminates employment with the employer prior to his or her normal retirement date, but at or after such time that he or she has attained age 55 and completed 25 years of credited service, he or she shall be entitled to a monthly retirement benefit paid in accordance with article 4 of this chapter.

B. Early retirement benefit. The monthly retirement benefit determined as of a participant's early retirement date, based on the normal form of payment described in section 4-32-14(A), shall be a percentage of his or her accrued benefit reduced as follows:

PERCENTAGE OF ACCRUED BENEFIT

Retirement Age	Between 25 and 30 Years of Credited Service at Retirement (percent)	More than 30 Years of Credited Service at Retirement (percent)
55	55	65
56	60	70
57	65	77
58	70	84
59	77	92
60	84	100
61	92	100
62	100	100
63	100	100
65	100	100

Any participant may elect to retire pursuant to this section and defer receiving his or her retirement benefit to the first age at which unreduced benefits would be payable as follows: age 60 with 30 years of credited service, at age 62 with 25 years of credited service but less than 30 years of credited service, in which case the participants full accrued benefit will be payable without reduction upon written application from date of such age.

(Code 1985, § 18-45; Ord. No. 4173, § 1, 4-16-1993)

Sec. 4-32-7. Minimum retirement benefit.

Notwithstanding anything in this article to the contrary, in no event shall the monthly retirement benefit payable for any participant who retires pursuant to either section 4-32-5 or 4-32-6 be less than $100.00 per month. (Code 1985, § 18-46; Ord. No. 4173, § 1, 4-16-1993)

Sec. 4-32-8. Disability.

A. Ordinary disability retirement; conditions.

1. Any participant who has had five or more years of credited service may be retired for ordinary disability if such employee shall be found by the board of administration, upon examination, to be mentally or physically incapacitated so as to be wholly unable to properly perform his or her duties as a member of his or her department in library service and is not eligible for line-of-duty disability as defined in subsection C of this section. A participant may be so retired only if the examinations of two disinterested physicians appointed by the board of administration shall certify and show to the satisfaction of the board of administration that the participant is incapacitated as above described and ought to be retired and that the participant has been continuously so incapacitated since his or her discontinuance from library service application for such retirement shall be made by the library director or by the person acting in his or her behalf.

2. The board of administration shall secure such medical service and advice as may be necessary to carry out the purpose of this section and shall pay for such medical service and advice and such compensation as the board of administration deems reasonable. In no case, however, shall there be employed or appointed a physician who is eligible for participation in the retirement system or who has filled an elective, appointed, or salaried office in the city or county government within a period of five years next preceding his or her employment or appointment.

B. Ordinary disability retirement benefit.

1. Upon retirement for ordinary disability as provided in subsection A of this section, a participant who is also then eligible for normal retirement as provided in section 4-32-5(A) shall receive a normal retirement benefit as provided by section 4-32-5(B). If a participant eligible for ordinary disability retirement is not also then eligible for normal retirement, he or she shall receive a disability retirement benefit of an amount equal to 2$^{5}/_{10}$ percent of his or her average compensation multiplied by the number of years of credited service; provided, however, that in such latter case the disability retirement benefit shall not be greater than 62.5 percent of his or her average compensation. For participants disabled before July 1, 1992, the prior sentence shall be applied by substituting "2$^{1}/_{4}$ percent" for "2$^{5}/_{10}$ percent" and by substituting "56.25 percent" for "62.5 percent."

2. The board of administration may withhold the payment of any retirement benefit in cases where the board of administration can show proof that the disability of the participant was due to gross and willful misconduct by the participant, and in such case the board of administration shall pay such participant in one lump sum, and in lieu of a retirement benefit, his or her accumulated contributions with interest.

3. Notwithstanding any other provision, no participant shall qualify for a disability retirement benefit if the board determines that his or her disability results from:

   a. Substance abuse, if disability occurs prior to July 1, 1992;

   b. Any injury suffered while engaged in a felonious or criminal act or enterprise; or

   c. Service in the armed forces of the United States which entitles the participant to a veteran's disability pension.

This provision shall prevent the participant from qualifying for a benefit under another provision of the system.

C. Line-of-duty disability benefits. Upon the application of a participant or the library director, any participant whom the board of administration finds has been totally and permanently incapacitated for duty as the direct and proximate result of an accident sustained in service of the employer while a participant and occurring while in the actual performance of duty at some definite time and place without willful negligence on his or her part, may be retired by the board of administration; provided that, two disinterested physicians appointed by the board have certified that the participant is mentally or physically totally incapacitated for the further performance of duty, that such incapacity is likely to be permanent, and that the participant should be retired upon retirement for line-of-duty disability. The participant shall receive a retirement benefit of an amount equal to 60 percent minimum or 72.5 percent maximum allowance of his or her average compensation, based on the percentage of 2⅕ percent times years of credited service. For participants disabled before July 1, 1992, the prior-sentence shall be applied by substituting "2¼ percent" for "2⅕ percent" and by substituting "56.25 percent" for "62.5 percent." The payments under such retirement allowance shall be made during the period of total disability, and, in the event of death of such participant resulting proximately from such accident and injury, payment shall then be made as provided in section 4-32-14.

D. Re-examination of disability beneficiaries and cancellation of disability benefits.

1. The board, at its pleasure, but not less frequently than once a year for the first two years nor more frequently than once a year after the first two years, may require a participant receiving an ordinary or line-of-duty disability benefit to undergo a medical examination, such examination to be made by a physician appointed by the board of administration. Upon the basis of such examination, the board shall determine whether such disabled participant is still incapacitated or disabled as provided in subsection A or subsection B of this section, as the case may be, for service in the department of the library where he or she was employed. If the board shall determine that the participant is not so incapacitated or disabled, his or her retirement benefit shall be canceled forthwith and he or she shall be reinstated to library service.

2. Should a disabled participant reenter the library service and be eligible for participation in the retirement system, his or her retirement benefit shall be canceled forthwith and he or she shall immediately become a participant of the retirement system. The participant's individual account shall be credited with his or her accumulated contributions at the time of his or her disability retirement, and he or she shall retain credit for his or her prior service in the same manner as if he or she had never been retired for disability.

3. Should any disabled participant refuse to submit to a medical examination as provided herein, his or her retirement benefit shall be discontinued until his or her withdrawal of such refusal.

4. Should the retirement benefit of any disabled participant canceled for any cause other than reentrance into the library service, he or she shall be paid his or her accumulated contribution with interest less the retirement benefit payments made to him or her.

Sec. 4-32-9. Suspension of benefits.

If a participant continues employment after his or her normal retirement date or is reemployed by the employer after he or she has begun to receive retirement benefits under the plan, payment of retirement benefits shall be suspended during his or her continued employment, except as may be provided in section 4-32-8(D).
(Code 1985, § 18-48; Ord. No. 4173, § 1, 4-16-1993)

Sec. 4-32-10. No duplication of benefits.

Notwithstanding any provision of the plan which may be construed to the contrary, a participant or beneficiary shall not be entitled to two separate benefits under the plan which are attributable to the same period of employment. Accordingly, if benefit payments are made to or in respect of the same participant, the determination of which is based upon the same period of employment as the benefits previously paid, the benefit currently payable shall be reduced to reflect the actuarial equivalent value of the benefits previously paid.
(Code 1985, § 18-49; Ord. No. 4173, § 1, 4-16-1993)

Sec. 4-32-11. Benefits not modified by Social Security payments.

No modification of the benefits provided in this article shall be made because of any amount or amounts payable to a participant under the provisions of the federal Social Security Acts, except for former employees of Goodwyn Institute, where the terms of the Goodwyn Cossitt agreement dated September 12, 1961, shall prevail.
(Code 1985, § 18-50; Ord. No. 4173, § 1, 4-16-1993)

Sec. 4-32-12. Limitation on benefits.

A. General limitation. Effective for plan years commencing on or after January 1, 1987, the projected annual benefit of a participant expressed as a single life annuity shall not, for any limitation year, exceed the lesser of $90,000.00 or 100 percent of his or her average aggregate compensation (as defined in code section 415(c)(3)) from the employer for his or her high three consecutive calendar years.

B. Adjustments to dollar limitation. The dollar limitation under subsection A of this section shall be automatically adjusted annually to reflect any cost-of-living adjustments made by the secretary of the treasury or his or her delegate, and shall be effective as of January 1 of each calendar year and shall apply to the limitation year ending with or within that calendar year. Anticipated future increases in such dollar limitation beyond the current limitation year shall not be taken into account by the actuary for purposes of determining the funding requirements of the plan under article 6 of this chapter.

C. Participation fewer than ten years.

1. If a participant has completed fewer than ten years of participation, the participant's accrued benefit shall not exceed the defined benefit dollar limitation as adjusted by multiplying such amount by a fraction, the numerator of which is the participant's number of years (or part thereof) of participation in the plan, and the denominator of which is ten.

2. If a participant has completed fewer than ten years of service with the employer or an affiliate, the limitations described in sections 415(b)(1)(B) and 415(b)(4) of the code shall be adjusted by multiplying such amounts by a fraction, the numerator of which is the participant's number of years of service (or part thereof), and the denominator of which is ten.

3. In no event shall this section reduce the limitations provided under sections 415(b)(1) and (4) of the code to an amount less than one-tenth of the applicable limitation (as determined without regard to this section).

D. Changes in benefit structure. To the extent provided by the Secretary of the Treasury, subsection C of this section shall be applied separately with respect to each change in the benefit structure of the plan.

E. Preservation of accrued benefit. If the current accrued benefit of an individual who is a participant as of the first day of the limitation year beginning on or after January 1, 1987, exceeds the benefit limitations under section 415(b) of the code (as modified by this section), then, for purposes of code section 415(b) and (e), the defined benefit dollar limitation with respect to such individual shall be equal to such current accrued benefit. "Current accrued benefit" means a participant's accrued benefit under the plan, determined as if the participant had separated from service as of the close of the last limitation year beginning before January 1, 1987, when expressed as an annual benefit within the meaning of section 415(b) (2) of the code. In determining the amount of a participant's current accrued benefit, the following shall be disregarded:

1. Any change in the terms and conditions of the plan after May 5, 1986; and

2. Any cost of living adjustment occurring after May 5, 1986.

F. Protected annual benefit. For purposes of this section, a participant's projected annual benefit shall be equal to the annual benefit to which he or she would be entitled based on the assumptions that his or her employment continues until his or her normal retirement date, that his or her compensation remains constant from the limitation year under consideration until his or her normal retirement date, and that all other relevant factors used to determine benefits remain constant as of the current limitation year for all future limitation years.

G. Benefits not in excess of $10,000.00. Notwithstanding subsection A of this section, benefits payable shall not be deemed to exceed the limitation of such subsection if such benefits do not exceed $10,000.00 for the limitation year or for any prior limitation year, and the employer has not at any time maintained a defined contribution plan in which the participant participated.

H. 1.0 limitation. If the employer maintains a defined contribution plan in addition to this plan, for a participant covered by such plan the sum of the "defined benefit plan fraction" and the "defined contribution plan fraction" for any plan year shall not exceed 1.0.

1. The defined benefit plan fraction for any limitation year is a fraction, the numerator of which is the participant's projected annual benefit under all defined benefit plans (determined as of the close of the limitation year), and the denominator of which is the lesser of: (i) the product of the maximum dollar limit for such year multiplied by 1.25; or (ii) the product of the percentage of compensation limit for such year multiplied by 1.4, if such plan provided the maximum benefit allowable under section 415(b) of the code as amended by TEFRA.

2. The defined contribution plan fraction for any limitation year is a fraction, the numerator of which is the sum of all of the annual additions (as defined in code section 415(c)(2)) to the participant's individual account under the plan as of the close of the limitation year, and the denominator of which is the sum of the lesser of the following amounts determined for such limitation year and for each prior limitation year of employment with the employer: (i) the product of the maximum dollar limit in effect pursuant to code section 415(c)(1)(a) without regard to code section 415(c)(6) for such year multiplied by 1.25; or (ii) the product of the amount determined under the percentage of compensation limit for such year pursuant to code section 415(c)(1)(b) multiplied by 1.4.

3. If the sum of the defined benefit plan fraction and the defined contribution plan fraction shall exceed 1.0 in any limitation year for any participant in this plan, the administrator shall adjust or freeze the rate of benefit accrual for purposes of a defined benefit plan or the amount of annual additions to a defined contribution plan on behalf of any participant so that the sum of both fractions shall not exceed 1.0 in any limitation year for such participant. The limitation on aggregate benefits from a defined benefit plan and a defined contribution plan shall be complied with by a reduction (if necessary) in the participants benefits under the defined contribution plan before a reduction to this defined benefit plan.

I. Other defined benefit plans. For purposes of applying the limitations set forth in subsection A of this section, all defined benefit plans of the employer, whether or not terminated, shall be treated as one defined benefit plan.

J. Benefits payable before age 62. In applying the dollar limitation set forth in subsection A of this section, with respect to benefits commencing prior to age 62, such dollar limitation shall be adjusted to the actuarial equivalent of a single life annuity beginning at age 62; such dollar limitation shall not be reduced, however, below: (i) if the benefit begins at or after age 55, $75,000.00; or (ii) if the benefit begins before age 55, the amount which is the equivalent of the $75,000.00 limitation for age 55. In determining the actuarial equivalent of such benefit, the interest rate assumption shall not be less than the greater of five percent or the applicable rate set forth in the plan for determining actuarial equivalence.

K. Benefits payable after age 65. In applying the dollar limitation set forth in subsection A of this section, with respect to benefits commencing after age 65, such dollar limit shall be adjusted to the actuarial equivalent of the dollar limit beginning at age 65. Such limitation on the benefit shall not exceed 100 percent of the participant's highest three years of compensation in determining the actuarial equivalent of such benefit, the interest rate assumption shall not exceed the lesser of five percent or the applicable rate set forth in the plan for determining actuarial equivalence.

(Code 1985, § 18-51; Ord. No. 4173, § 1, 4-16-1993)

ARTICLE 4. PAYMENT OF BENEFITS

Sec. 4-32-13. General conditions.

As a condition precedent to the distribution of any benefit under the plan to a participant or beneficiary, as the case may be, such participant or beneficiary may be required to submit a written application to receive such benefit in such form and manner as shall be prescribed by the board of administration. Any payment of benefits to a participant or beneficiary, or to their legal representative, in accordance with the provisions of the plan, shall, to the extent of the method of computation as well as the amount thereof, constitute full satisfaction of all claims hereunder against the trustee, the board of administration and the employer, who may require such participant or beneficiary or legal representative, as a condition precedent to such payment, to execute a receipt and release therefor.

(Code 1985, § 18-52; Ord. No. 4173, § 1, 4-16-1993)

Sec. 4-32-14. Form of benefit payment.

A. Normal form of payment.

1. Except as provided in subsection B of this section with respect to married participants, the normal form of payment of any benefit provided under the plan shall be in the form described as a single life annuity, payable monthly to the participant during his or her lifetime.

2. Any optional forms under section 4-32-15 shall be the actuarial equivalent of such normal form of benefit payment.

B. Qualified joint and survivor annuity.

1. Unless a participant is one to whom subsection D of this section applies, benefits payable under the plan to a participant who is married on his or her annuity starting date shall be paid in the form of a qualified joint and survivor annuity.

2. The survivor's benefit payable to a spouse pursuant to this subsection shall be payable until the surviving spouse's death or remarriage. Any spouse who reverts to single status because of death, divorce or annulment may make application to the board that the survivor's benefit be reinstated effective upon approval of the application; provided, however, that the benefit herein shall begin on the first day of the month following approval of the application.

3. In the event the participant is survived by a child or children (but no spouse), or the spouse, if such be the case, is survived by a child or children of such participant, or in the event the spouse remarries, then the same survivor's benefit theretofore paid to the spouse, or the amount to which such spouse would have been entitled, shall be paid to, or divided among, the child or children, or their legal guardian, for so long as such payee(s) remains a child.

4. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the qualified joint and survivor annuity shall not be required with respect to a small benefit as determined under subsection E of this section which is paid in a lump sum.

C. Election to receive an optional form of benefit.

1. Each participant shall be given a written notice to the effect that benefits hereafter payable will be in the form specified in this section unless the participant elects to the contrary prior to the commencement of payments.

2. A participant who desires to have his or her retirement benefit paid under one of the optional forms provided in section 4-32-15 shall make an election by written request to the board of administration on forms provided by the board of administration. After retirement benefit payments have commenced, no future elections or revocations of an optional form will be permitted under any circumstances.

D. Unmarried participants. If a participant entitled to a benefit under this article is unmarried, the benefit payable to him or her shall be in the form described in subsection A of this section unless an optional form of benefit is elected by the participant under section 4-32-15.

results proximately from such accident and injury, either before or after he or she has been retired on account of disability in the line of duty, a retirement benefit in the amount equal to 50 percent minimum or 62.5 percent maximum allowance of his or her average compensation, based on the percentage of 2⅕ percent times years of credited service, shall be made payable only to the following person or persons: spouse of such participant provided a marital status existed at the time of his or her injury and death; if no spouse, the child(ren) for so long as such payee(s) remains a child(ren). For participants who die before July 1, 1992, the prior sentence shall be applied by substituting "2¼ percent" for "2⅕ percent" and by substituting "56.25 percent" for "62.5 percent." The benefit shall be paid to the spouse or children under the same eligibility provisions for survivors set forth in subsection C of this section. In the case of a benefit under the '75 plan, if the participant is not survived by a spouse or minor children under the age of 18, such death benefit shall be payable to the father or mother, if any, who was supported by the deceased participant at the time of his or her death.

B. Death not in line of duty. It is further provided that if a participant while in library service shall die, but not in the line of duty, a death benefit, based upon the deceased participant's accrued benefit, shall be payable in accordance with this subsection.

1. If the participant was credited with at least five years of credited service rate the time of his or her death, his or her spouse or minor children shall receive the survivor portion of the normal form of payment described in section 4-32-14(A) or, if the participant is credited with not fewer than 15 years of credited service as of the date of his or her death, no less than $100.00 per month; provided that such $100.00 minimum shall not apply to permanent part-time employees.
2. In the case of the '79 plan, the surviving spouse if any, or if none the surviving children of a participant who has contributed to the plan and who is credited with not fewer than five years of credited service at his or her death or was previously retired for disability prior to death shall be entitled to a benefit equal to the survivor portion of the normal form of payment described in section 4-32-14(A). If such a participant had fewer than five years of credited service at death and had not previously retired for disability, his or her accumulated contributions plus interest shall be paid to his or her beneficiary if alive, or if not alive, then to the estate of the participant.

C. Discontinuation of benefit; reapplication for benefits. The death benefit payable to a spouse pursuant to this section shall be payable until death or remarriage. (Code 1985, § 18-58; Ord. No. 4173, § 1, 4-16-1993)

Sec. 4-32-20. Termination of employment.

A. In the event a participant's employment with the library is terminated by the library, without fault or delinquency on the part of the participant, and such participant has a minimum of 15 years of credited service, then the participant shall be entitled to a deferred retirement benefit following such termination, commencing at the time when the sum of the participant's then-current age plus his or her credited service at the time of termination equals 75.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, employees who are participants in the '75 plan as of January 1, 1987, who terminate employment and qualify for a retirement benefit pursuant to this subsection, shall upon termination of employment be eligible to elect immediate commencement of such benefit.

B. In the event a participant who is under the '75 plan provisions terminates employment he or she may elect to leave his or her accumulated contributions in the retirement system, provided that he or she has completed at least five years of vesting service, and at age 65 receive a retirement benefit in the applicable form provided under section 4-32-14 equal to the percentage of accrued benefits up to the date of his or her termination of employment, according to the following schedule:

1. After five years of vesting service, 25 percent of accrued benefits, with the vested percentage increasing by five percent for each of the next five years of vesting service to 50 percent after ten years of vesting service; and

2. Beginning with the 11th year of vesting service, the vested percentage increasing by ten percent for each of the next five years to 100 percent vesting of accrued benefits at the end of 15 years of vesting service.

A participant who elects to leave his or her accumulated contributions in the retirement system under provision shall be responsible for notifying the director of libraries 90 days before his or her 65th birthday that he or she wishes to receive his or her retirement benefit payments and shall furnish proof of age. The library shall have no responsibility for locating such vested retirees or for keeping up with the dates when their 65th birthdays occur.

No survivor's benefits would be payable under such deferred benefit. This option shall not be available, nor shall any deferred benefit be payable, to a participant that the board determines has engaged in an act harmful to the library. Such acts shall be comprised only of conviction of a felony, illegal manipulation of books and records of the library, larceny, theft or embezzlement of assets.

2. The deferred retirement benefit shall be computed as a normal retirement benefit on the basis of number of years of credited service rendered and average compensation received prior to the date of separation from the retirement system.

3. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the participant may at any time prior to the commencement of his or her deferred retirement benefit revoke such election and receive in lieu of all benefits the amount of his or her accumulated contributions. In the event of the death, prior to the commencement of the deferred retirement benefit, of a participant who has made the election provided for herein, the amount of his or her accumulated contributions shall be paid under the provisions of section 4-32-21 in lieu of any other benefit.

B. No interest will be paid on accumulated contributions previously transferred from one of the retirement funds named in subsection A of this section.

C. Any former participant who has received a refund of his or her contributions and who reenters such library service and again becomes a participant of the retirement system and has completed a two-year period of service as a participant may, in one lump sum, redeposit in the retirement system an amount equal to the sum of his or her contributions plus simple interest from the first of the month following the date of refund at the rate of interest established by the board of administration until date of redeposit, and in such case he or she shall be given full credit for all credited service for plan years beginning on or after April 1, 1975, that he or she had at the time of such termination of participation.

D. Any former participant who has chosen a deferred benefit in lieu of a refund of contributions and who reenters such service and again becomes a participant of the retirement system shall be given full credit for all credited service he or she had at the time of such termination of such participation.

E. If the participant, upon reentering the retirement system after a termination of his or her participation, shall not make such a deposit, he or she shall reenter the retirement system as a new participant without credit for any previous service.

No amendment to the vesting schedule shall deprive a participant of his or her nonforfeitable rights to benefits accrued to the date of the amendment. In the event the Federal Social Security System is amended to require that employees who are participants of the system be in the Federal Social Security System, the employer may modify the plan to make the retirement system a supplementary plan.

2. To benefits being paid in the form of annuity payments from the plan to participants and beneficiaries who began receiving benefits as of the date 36 months prior to the termination date of the plan, including benefits which would have been received on such date had the participant retired on or before such date, based on plan provisions in effect during the five-year period ending on the termination date of the plan under which such benefit would be the least;
3. To all other nonforfeitable benefits;
4. To all other benefits payable under the plan.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event of failure of the employer upon termination of its participation in this plan to pay or to reimburse the trustee, the actuary, accountant or attorney for the outstanding charges or expenses incurred hereunder, the trustee is empowered to satisfy such claims by lien upon that portion of the fund attributable to the employer, prior to making any allocation to participants, vested terminated participants, retired participants, disabled participants, spouses and beneficiaries of the plan in accordance with this article.

B. Insufficiency of assets.

1. If the assets available for allocation under subsections (A)(1) and (2) of this section are insufficient to satisfy in full the benefits of all individuals to whom such subsections are applicable, the assets shall be allocated prorata among such individuals on the basis of the present value, as of the termination date, of their respective benefits.
2. If the assets available for allocation under subsection (A)(3) of this section are insufficient to satisfy in full the benefits of all individuals to whom such subsection is applicable, the assets shall be allocated to the benefits of such individuals on the basis of such benefits as in effect at the beginning of the five-year period ending on the plan termination date, or if then sufficient, on the basis of the most recent amendment effective during such five-year period under which the assets are sufficient to satisfy such benefits, and any assets remaining shall be allocated on the basis of the amendment, if any, next succeeding.

Sec. 4-34-31. Normal retirement.

A. A 2016 plan participant who elects to retire on or after his/her normal retirement date, by a written election designating the date s/he will retire and delivered to the board not less than 30 days before such designated date, shall be entitled to receive a monthly retirement benefit equal to his/her accrued benefit.

B. Any participant eligible for a normal retirement benefit pursuant to subparagraph (A) above may irrevocably elect to receive between five percent and 25 percent in increments of five percent of his/her accrued benefit in the form of an actuarial equivalent single lump-sum distribution. Such election shall be made prior to the participant's annuity commencement date in accordance with uniform procedures established by the board.

If a participant elects to receive any part of his/her accrued benefit in the form of a lump-sum distribution as provided in this subparagraph (B), the monthly retirement benefit payable to such participant shall be reduced by an equal percentage. Such election shall likewise reduce the amount of any death benefit payable to a surviving spouse or any other beneficiary or beneficiaries, which shall be calculated taking into account such election.

Any cost of living adjustments to the participant's monthly retirement benefit shall be calculated based on the reduced monthly benefit resulting from the lump-sum distribution election.

In determining any minimum monthly benefit provided under the plan, the amount of the applicable minimum shall be reduced by the percentage lump sum elected by the participant.

C. The board may compel the retirement of a participant on or after his normal retirement date, upon the recommendation of a qualified physician and the director of the city division in which the participant is employed that such retirement is in the best interest and efficiency of the division and department. Any such participant shall be entitled to receive a monthly retirement benefit equal to his/her accrued benefit.
(Ord. No. 5573, § III, 12-16-2014; Ord. No. 5763, § 1(25-240), 12-15-2020)

2. Upon application by or on behalf of the participant or by the director of the city division for which the participant works, any participant who is a police officer or firefighter determined to have incurred an ordinary disability shall receive during the period such participant suffers from such disability a retirement benefit equal to his/her accrued benefit as of the date of such disability based on the disability mortality table; provided, however, that the board shall deny any such benefit payments and, instead, refund the participant's employee contributions in accordance with section 4-34-34, if the board has proof that such disability is a result of the participant's gross and willful misconduct.

C. Re-examination of disability. At the discretion of the board, a participant receiving benefits under this section 4-34-32 may be required to undergo a medical examination by a qualified physician to determine whether the participant continues to suffer from the disability.

D. Cancellation of disability retirement.

1. If a participant refuses to undergo medical examination under subsection (C) of this section, his/her benefits shall be discontinued until s/he withdraws his/her refusal.
2. If a participant is determined under subsection (C) of this section to have recovered from his/her disability, his/her disability benefits shall be cancelled and s/he shall be reinstated to city employment. Upon returning to city employment, s/he shall have full credit for all employee contributions and years of service credits to him/her as of the original date of his/her disability.
3. If a participant's disability benefits under this section are cancelled for any reason other than returning to city employment, s/he shall receive a refund of her/his employee cash balance plan contributions and employee defined contribution plan contributions, in accordance with section 4-34-34, reduced by the amount of any benefit payments previously made to the participant.
4. If a participant suffering from a disability and receiving benefits under this section nevertheless engages in a gainful occupation not with the city or returns to employment with the city and re-enters the 2016 plan as a participant, his/her disability benefit payments and his/her compensation from such occupation or city employment shall not exceed his/her average monthly compensation as of the original date of his/her disability.

(Ord. No. 5573, § III, 12-16-2014)

In the event that any participant elects to withdraw his or her participant contributions as provided in this section 4-34-33(B), such participant shall be deemed to have waived his or her rights to any other benefit payments under any provision of this retirement system, including the right to payment of any survivor benefits otherwise payable in the event of the participant's death in accordance with section 4-34-43 or otherwise under the pension system.

Sec. 4-34-43. Other death benefit.

A. The beneficiaries described in section section 4-34-43(B) of a participant who dies other than as described in section 4-34-42(A) or section 4-34-42(B) and who has not elected deferred retirement under section 4-34-33, shall receive a death benefit in accordance with section 4-34-44 equal to 75 percent of:

1. The retirement benefit, if any, the participant was receiving as of his/her date of death; or

(Ord. No. 5573, § III, 12-16-2014; Ord. No. 5763, § 1(25-251), 12-15-2020)

Sec. 4-34-44. Distribution.

A. Beneficiary priority. The death benefit section 4-34-42 or 4-34-43 shall be paid to the surviving spouse until the spouse's death. If there is no spouse, or upon the spouse's death, the death benefit shall be made or shall continue to be paid to or on the behalf of the participant's surviving children and handicapped children, for as long as they are children or handicapped children; provided, however, any handicapped child shall be entitled to receive only 50 percent of the benefit payment any other child of the participant shall be entitled to receive. If payments are made to more than one child, the death benefit shall be payable in equal shares; provided, if any child becomes ineligible to receive benefits because of death or attainment of age, the death benefit shall be divided equally among the remaining eligible children. No surviving spouse of a participant's spouse shall be entitled to any benefits from this 2016 plan as a result of the participant's spouse's interest in a benefit payable under section 4-28-42 or section 4-28-43.

B. Payment after refund. If a participant's employee contributions have been refunded under section 25-243 before the participant's date of death, credits against such refund shall be made in lieu of death benefit payments under section 4-28-42 or 4-28-43 until such credits have fully offset such refund amount.
(Ord. No. 5763, § 1(25-252), 12-15-2020)

Sec. 4-34-45. Residual benefits.

Notwithstanding any other sections of this 2016 plan, a participant's beneficiaries, in the order of priority as set forth in section 4-25-254 hereof, shall be paid any excess of the participant's total accumulated employee contributions, minus the aggregate total retirement and death benefit payments under this 2016 plan made to the participant, the participant's spouse, children, or any other designated beneficiary, following the death of all such individuals. Notwithstanding the foregoing, however, a final divorce decree shall terminate an ex-spouse's status as beneficiary, unless the participant has on file in the retirement office a beneficiary designation that redesignates the ex-spouse as beneficiary dated subsequent to the issuance of the divorce decree.
(Ord. No. 5763, § 1(25-253), 12-15-2020; Ord. No. 5873, § 11, 7-11-2023)

Sec. 4-34-46. Employee contribution refunds upon death.

For a participant whose employment terminates due to death, whose beneficiaries are not entitled to any benefit under any other section of this plan, such participant's beneficiaries, in the order specified below, shall be entitled to receive a refund of the participant's contributions, less the aggregate of any amount of such contributions paid to the participant, the participant's spouse, children or any other designated beneficiary, prior to the participant's death. The beneficiaries of the benefit under this section (or in the case of residual benefits the beneficiaries of any residual benefits under section 4-28-20(A) hereof) shall be:

1. the beneficiary or beneficiaries designated by the participant (in accordance with procedures established by the board). Notwithstanding the foregoing to the contrary, if the participant is married at the time of such designation, if the beneficiary or beneficiaries designated by the participant is not the participant's spouse, the participant's spouse's written consent to such specific beneficiary or beneficiaries shall be required for such designation to be effective, and such consent shall be witnessed by a notary public or by the benefits manager of the city, the total rewards officer of the city, or such other person representing the board as duly designated by the board. A participant's spouse may give a general consent acknowledging the spouse's right to consent to any beneficiary or beneficiaries and relinquishing such right, in which event any future revocation and/or redesignation of beneficiary(ies) by the participant shall not require further spousal consent. The consent of the spouse must acknowledge the effect of such election and once given, cannot be revoked by such spouse. Any spousal consent shall only be applicable to the spouse granting such consent, or

2. the participant's spouse, if married to the participant at the time of his/her death, or

3. if no such spouse, the participant's surviving child and handicapped child, as those terms are defined in section 4-25-1(6), or

4. if no such surviving child and/or handicapped child, to the participant's surviving child as the term "child' is defined in section 4-25-1(6) but without regard to the child's age or status in an educational institution, or

5. if no such surviving child to the alternative beneficiary or beneficiaries designated by the participant (in accordance with procedures established by the Board), or

6. if the participant failed to designate an alternate beneficiary or beneficiaries as provided above, to the participant's estate.

If there is more than one eligible beneficiary the benefit shall be divided equally among the eligible beneficiaries unless the beneficiaries are designated beneficiaries by the participant as provided above whereupon the benefit will be divided in accordance with the designation by the participant, or if no such designation then equally. For purposes of this section, the terms "spouse" and "child" shall mean any person who the board determines in good faith under the plan is the legally recognized spouse or child of the participant. Notwithstanding the foregoing, a final divorce decree shall terminate an ex-spouse's status as beneficiary, unless the participant has on file in the retirement office a beneficiary designation that redesignates the ex-spouse as beneficiary dated subsequent to the issuance of the divorce decree. Each beneficiary, or his/her duly appointed representative, shall be responsible for making application, in accordance with uniform procedures established by the board, for any benefit due to him/her under this section. A beneficiary shall have no claim against the board, or the pension system, or the city by reason of the failure of such beneficiary to apply properly or timely for benefits under the pension system. To the extent permitted by the Internal Revenue Code, a participant of the 2016 Plan entitled to a benefit under section 4-34-31, section 4-34-32, or section 4-34-33 who also participates in the city's 457(b) plan may, upon such participant's termination of employment with the city but prior to the participant's annuity commencement date, transfer from the participant's 457(b) account by direct rollover to this 2016 Plan any portion or all of the amounts in the participant's 457(b) account attributable to the contributions made by the participant and/or the city with respect to the compensation of the participant from the city, provided such transfer will not jeopardize the tax exempt status of this plan. Any amounts in a participant's account rolled over by the participant from a 457(b) or other employee benefit plan of an employer other than the city (except as provided below with respect to the Memphis and Shelby County Airport Authority) may not be rolled over to this 2016 Plan. The transferred amount shall be set up in a separate account to be known as a "rollover account." Such rollover account shall be fully vested at all times and shall not be subject to forfeiture. Such rollover account shall be held pursuant to the provisions of this 2016 plan and shall not be withdrawn by or distributed to the participant except as provided in this 2016 Plan.

To the extent an employee of the Memphis and Shelby County Airport Authority who participates in the city's 457(b) plan also participates in this 2016 Plan and is entitled to a benefit under section 4-34-31, section 4-34-32, or section 4-34-33 of this 2016 Plan, such participant may from the participant's 457(b) account in the city's 457(b) plan by direct rollover transfer to this 2016 Plan any portion or all of the amounts in the participant's 457(b) account attributable to the contributions made by the participant and/or the Memphis and Shelby County Airport Authority with respect to the

The transferred amount shall be set up in a separate account to be known as a "rollover account." Such rollover account shall be fully vested at all times and shall not be subject to forfeiture. Such rollover account shall be held pursuant to the provisions of this 2016 plan and shall not be withdrawn by or distributed to the participant except as provided in this 2016 Plan.

B. Distribution of rollover account as part of accrued benefit. At the participant's normal retirement date, or such other date when the participant shall be entitled to receive benefits under section 4-34-31, section 4-34-32, or section 4-34-33, the value of the rollover account shall be combined with the participant's cash balance account and defined contribution account to provide additional monthly benefits to the participant as provided herein.

Accordingly, if a separate benefit under the plan is payable to or in respect of the same participant based upon the same period of employment as the benefits previous paid, the benefit currently payable shall be reduced to reflect the actuarial equivalence of the benefits previously paid.
(Ord. No. 5573, § III, 12-16-2014)

Sec. 4-34-64. Payments solely from plan assets.

Payments of benefits as provided in this 2016 plan shall be made solely from plan assets held under the trust agreement and in no event will the comptroller, the board, the city, the council, or any employee of the city be liable in their individual capacities to any person for the payment of benefits hereunder.
(Ord. No. 5573, § III, 12-16-2014)

Except as otherwise provided by law, no benefit payable under this plan shall be subject to anticipation, alienation, sale, transfer, assignment, pledge, encumbrance, charge, attachment, garnishment, execution, or levy of any kind or any other process of law, voluntary or involuntary. Any attempt to so dispose of any rights to benefits payable hereunder shall be void, unless otherwise authorized by applicable law. Neither the plan nor trust shall be liable for or subject to the debts, contracts, liabilities, engagements or torts of any person entitled to benefits hereunder.

Unless otherwise provided by applicable law, effective July 1, 2015, the restrictions on transfers of benefits as described in this section shall not apply to the creation, assignment, or recognition of a right to any benefit payable with respect to a participant pursuant to a "qualified domestic relations order" defined in Internal Revenue Code Section 414(p) and as provided in T.C.A. § 26-2-105, as amended. Sec. 4-34-66. Severability.

If any provisions of this plan are for any reason declared invalid or not enforceable under either federal or Tennessee law, such provisions will not affect the remaining terms and conditions, but the plan will be construed and enforced thereafter as if such provision had not been inserted.

D. There shall be a prevailing wage commission composed of nine members, including the city finance director or his or her designee, who shall serve as chairperson of the committee, and the city public works director or his or her designee. The chairperson of the city council or another councilmember designated by the city council chairperson shall also serve on the commission. Such schedule of prevailing wages shall be clearly posted on the job site during construction. (Any construction, improvement, enlargement, alteration or replacement of a public work project, as provided hereof, shall require that a contractor employs apprentices who are properly indentured into a joint labor management apprenticeship training program or an equivalent program that is registered and certified with the U.S. Department of Labor, Bureau of Apprenticeship Training.)

3. Pre-apprentices/helpers may be utilized if indentured apprentices are not available.

Sec. 5-4-13. Labor relations; total impasse procedure.

A. General provisions.

1. Definitions. As used in this section the following terms shall have the indicated meanings:

Business day means a day other than a Saturday, Sunday or legal holiday under the laws of Tennessee.

Economic items shall be defined as any items which relate to an identifiable portion of any recognized unit which items provide to those employees direct benefits, except for economic items such as pension benefits, health insurance, and any other items excluded by the Charter of the city, or other state laws.

Impasse on economic items means that point at which any employee organization declares its last best offer, and that offer is either not captured or insufficiently captured in the total economic package proposed by the mayor to the city council, which package represents the last best offer of the city.

Impasse on non-economic items means that point at which any employee organization or city administration do not have agreement on non-economic items by the negotiation deadline.

Negotiations deadline is the date upon which discussions between the city administration and employee organizations regarding economic and non-economic items must be completed, or when a party has declared its last best offer, which shall be no later than March 31.

Non-economic items shall not include economic items as described above.

Total economic package shall be defined as the last best offers of the parties regarding the aggregate economic items as defined herein.

2. Pre-impasse procedure.

   a. Referendum Ordinance No. 2766 expressly directed the council to set up, by ordinance, procedures for the arbitration of economic issues of municipal labor disputes between the city and its employees by the council or a committee of the council.

   b. The final position of the city on economic items as defined in this section shall be in writing. If the city presents its final offer more than three business days prior to the negotiations deadline, then, after the city presents its final offer, the organization(s) shall indicate in writing its acceptance of that final offer or its final position on economic items as defined in this section. This response of the organization(s) shall be made before the negotiation deadline.

      If the city makes its final offer to the organization(s) less than three business days before the negotiations deadline, the chief spokesperson of the organization(s) shall tentatively accept or reject the offer in writing at the same negotiation session that the final offer of the city was received. If the organization(s) rejects the final offer of the city, the organization(s), through its chief spokesperson, shall set forth in writing the final position on economic items, as defined in this section of the organization(s), at the time of the rejection of the final offer of the city and during the same negotiation session that the final offer was received. If after the tentative acceptance by the organization(s) of the final offer of the city, should the employees of the organization(s) fail to ratify the final offer of the city, then the final position of the organization(s) shall be its last position at the bargaining table, before the final offer of the city had been given.

   c. Following the negotiation deadline, and at least seven days before the mayor presents his proposed budget to the council, the mayor or his designee shall advise the employee organization(s) of the city's proposed total economic package to be included in the mayor's proposed budget, and shall also advise the employee organizations of any changes to its final positions therein. If changes in the mayor's proposed budget are unacceptable, the employee organizations shall notify the city in writing within 48 hours. At that time, the city will engage in discussions with those organizations in an attempt to reach an agreement prior to the deadline to declare impasse.

   d. At any time before the point of impasse, either party (with written notice to the other party) may call for the appointment of a mediator to assist the parties in negotiating an agreement. It shall be the function of the mediator to bring the parties together to attempt to effectuate a settlement of outstanding issues. The mediator shall have no power to compel either of the parties concerning any aspect of negotiations or the agreement to be negotiated. The mediator may be selected by agreement of the parties (with each party agreeing to share equally in the costs) or by a request by either party to the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service for the appointment of a federal mediator.

3. Arbitration procedures for resolving impasses over a total economic package.

   a. If any employee organization shall determine that the total economic package for city employees included in the proposed budget(s) presented by the mayor to the city council is not acceptable to such organization(s), such organization(s) may indicate in writing to the chairman of the city council that such organization(s) elect to invoke arbitration procedures, hereunder, for resolving impasse over the city's total economic package submitted to the mayor by the electing employee organization(s) ("impasse notice").

b. The impasse notice(s) must be delivered to the chairman at the city council's offices not later than seven business days after the presentation of the budget(s) by the mayor to the council; a copy of the total economic package of the electing employee organization(s) shall be attached to the impasse notice. Any employee organization(s) that do not elect to invoke impasse hereunder or that fail to make a timely election in accordance with this section shall be deemed to have waived any right to have the total economic package of such employee organization(s) considered by the council.

c. Once this impasse resolution procedure has been implemented by notification of the chairperson as provided for in subsection A.3.b. of this section, neither party may alter their final position as defined in subsection A.2. of this section. However, either party may, at any time, accept the final position total package of the other party as originally submitted to the city council. Such acceptance shall be the final understanding. Further, the parties may mutually agree upon some or all items at impasse any time before final council action at positions the same or different than their final position. Such mutually agreed upon items will be removed from the impasse list of both parties by notification to the chairperson of the council and shall be made a part of any future agreement or memorandum of understanding.

d. Within ten business days after the mayor has presented the budget(s) to the council and provided any employee organization has timely submitted an impasse notice in accordance with this ordinance, the chairman of the city council will convene a meeting between the electing employee organization(s), the city administration and the chairman to allow the electing employee organization(s) and the city administration to each select one member of the council to serve on an impasse committee. There will be one impasse committee per employee organization, but not more than seven. When the employee organization represents more than one bargaining unit, the impasse committee will decide the impasse for each unit separately, unless otherwise agreed by the city and the employee organization. The two council members, so selected, shall select a third member within 48 hours of their selection and in the absence of agreement by the two council members, the chairman shall select the third member. Within four business days after the chair of the impasse committee is selected, the parties shall provide a summary of the issues and any written materials in support of their position, if any, to the impasse committee.

e. The impasse committee shall be authorized to determine the procedure for the electing employee organization(s) and the city administration to present their respective positions on the impasse issues, and the amount of time allocated to the electing employee organization(s) and the city administration to present to the council their respective positions on the proposed budget amendment(s), except that each party shall have at least 30 minutes per unit to present a summary of the issues and their positions. No member of the impasse committee shall be authorized to negotiate with either the city or the organization(s) to change their total economic package(s).

f. The impasse committee must make and submit for consideration their recommendation to the council no later than the close of business on the Tuesday preceding the second reading of the budget ordinance(s) that includes the total economic package of the electing employee organization(s) with the committee's recommendation, as an agenda item for the next council meeting. No member of the impasse committee shall be authorized to negotiate with either the city or the organization(s) to change their total economic package(s), but must choose only the last best offer of one of the parties. The recommendation submitted to council shall delineate the total economic package requested by each unit compared to the total economic package proposed by the mayor.

g. The council shall act only as the final arbiter of the impasse between the city and the employee organization(s) and may not negotiate with either the city of the organization(s) alter the total economic package of any party. All impasse votes by the full council must occur before the final vote on third reading of the proposed fiscal year operating budget. Each party shall be permitted up to 15 minutes, or longer at the discretion of the council, per unit to present their position to full council before the final vote. An affirmative vote of a majority of the members of the full council shall determine if the total economic package submitted by the electing employee organization(s) shall be made part of the budget ordinance by or at the full council meeting during which the proposed fiscal year operating budget is submitted on second reading or after second reading at a special meeting called by the council chairman before the third reading.

h. The impasse decision made by the city council shall become effective and shall be subject to funding by the city council in an approved budget. The city administration shall take whatever action is appropriate to implement the approved impasse decision, as funded, into the mayor's operating budget.

4. Procedure for resolving impasses over non-economic items.

a. This section does not empower the city council to discuss or reach an agreement on non-economic items or issues. Non-economic items not mutually agreed prior to the declaration of impasse will remain as stated in the previously agreed upon memorandum of understanding, unless either party, gives written notice to the other party of the intent to mediate the impasse of non-economic items, by following the notice deadline procedures under subsection A.3., except that the notice to the city shall be provided to the city's chief human resources officer.

b. Upon proper notice of the intent to mediate, the mediator may be selected by agreement of the parties (with each party sharing equally in the associated costs) or by a request by either party to the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service for the appointment of a federal mediator. The parties shall mediate within 60 days of said notice, or as otherwise agreed upon. Until the conclusion of the mediation, the current language of any memorandum of understanding shall control.

c. If the parties have not successfully resolved the impasse through mediation, either party may, within seven days after the conclusion of the mediation period, give written notice to the other party of the intent to send the impasse to an employee relations panel ("written notice of intent") on up to four non-economic articles. Within seven days after the written notice, each party must select a representative to serve on the panel. A panel member shall not be an employee of the city, or a member or affiliate of the involved employee organization/union, and must be a resident of Shelby County, Tennessee.

d. The two representatives must mutually agree on a third member of the panel from the panel of arbitrators from the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service ("FMCS"). The cost of the arbitrator shall be borne by the invoking party or equally shared by the parties if both parties submit written notice of intent. The three panel members shall schedule a hearing on the impasse within 45 days of the issuance of the notice of intent to arbitrate. Upon the panel's finding of which proposed non-economic language shall be utilized, that language shall become part of the new memorandum of understanding. In the event that either party seeks to implement a change in an article effecting more than one bargaining unit, that matter may be consolidated by agreement of the parties and heard by one panel, selected in the manner described herein, and costs associated with the arbitrator shall be borne by the party seeking the change.

e. No member of the panel shall be authorized to negotiate with either the city or the organization(s) and must choose, without modification, only the language proposed for an entire article by one of the parties.

The following words, terms and phrases, when used in this chapter, shall have the meanings ascribed to them in this section, except where the context clearly indicates a different meaning:

City treasurer means the person serving in the office of city treasurer.

Consideration means the consideration charged, whether or not received, for occupancy in a hotel, valued in money, whether to be received in money, goods, labor or otherwise, including all receipts, cash, credits, property and services of any kind or nature, without any deduction therefrom whatsoever. Hotel means any structure or space, or any portion thereof, which is occupied or intended or designed for occupancy by transients for dwelling, lodging or sleeping purposes, and includes any hotel, inn, tourist camp, tourist court, tourist cabin, motel, or any place in which rooms, lodgings or accommodations are furnished to transients for a consideration. Hotel does not include those hotels that are within a tourism surcharge district described in Ordinance No. 5583 existing on July 1, 2015. Further, hotel does not include those hotels that meet, at all times, both (i) 45 and fewer rooms and (ii) a maximum charge of $35.00 or less per paid occupied room night.

The city levies a privilege tax upon the privilege of occupancy in a hotel of each transient. Except as provided below, such tax shall be in the amount of four percent of the consideration charged by the operator for such occupancy. Such tax is a privilege tax upon the transient occupying such room and is to be collected as provided in this chapter.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the city levies a privilege tax upon the privilege of occupancy in a hotel of each transient in a hotel which is in:

1. A tourism development zone and subject to the maximum privilege tax; and
2. A tourism surcharge district as described in Ordinance No. 5583 existing on July 1, 2015. Such tax shall be in the amount of one and seven-tenths percent of the consideration charged by the operator for such occupancy. Such tax is a privilege tax upon the transient occupying such room and is to be collected as provided in this chapter.

When a person has maintained occupancy for 30 continuous days, that person shall receive from the operator a refund or credit for the tax previously collected from or charged to him or her, and the operator shall receive credit for the amount of such tax if previously paid or reported to the city.

Sec. 5-20-4. Remittance of tax by operator.

A. The tax levied shall be remitted to the city treasurer by all operators who lease, rent or charge for rooms or spaces in hotels within the city, and the city treasurer is charged with the duty of collection thereof. Such tax shall be remitted to the city treasurer not later than the twentieth day of each month for the preceding month. Each operator is required to collect the tax from each transient at the time of the presentation of the invoice for occupancy whether prior to occupancy or after occupancy as may be the custom of the operator, and if credit is granted by the operator to the transient, then the obligation to the city for such tax shall be that of the operator.

B. For the purpose of compensating the operator in accounting for and remitting the tax authorized and levied hereunder, the operator shall be allowed two percent of the amount of the tax due and accounted for and remitted to the city in the form of a deduction in submitting his or her report and paying the amount due by such operator, provided the amount due was not delinquent at the time of payment in which case no such deduction will be allowed.

Notwithstanding anything in this chapter to the contrary, the obligation to fund the redevelopment trust fund annually shall continue until all loans, advances and indebtedness, if any, and interest thereon, of the CRA incurred as a result of redevelopment in a community redevelopment area have been paid. Upon termination of the redevelopment trust fund, subject to payment of all amounts required to be paid from such redevelopment trust fund, any remaining moneys in the redevelopment trust fund shall be returned to each taxing authority, which paid the increment in the proportion that the amount of the payment of such taxing authority bears to the total amount paid into the redevelopment trust fund by all taxing authorities within the community redevelopment area during that year of the last appropriation.
(Code 1985, § 2-240-16; Ord. No. 4869, § 7, 6-5-2001)

3. Deposited into an escrow account for the purpose of later reducing any indebtedness to which increment revenues are pledged; or

Sec. 5-44-3. Applicability.

As required by T.C.A. § 13-7-603, this article, including but not limited to the requirement for a permit, or other standards herein established, shall not apply to any short term rental property if the property was used as a short term rental property by the owner prior to the effective date of this article until the property is sold, transferred, ceases to be used as a short term rental property for a period of 30 continuous months or has been in violation of generally applicable local law three or more separate times as provided in T.C.A § 13-7-604.

This assessment shall be dedicated to destination marketing and to providing supplemental funding for marketing programs above and beyond that currently provided, pursuant to Ordinance 5595.

C. The city levies a privilege tax upon the privilege of occupancy in a short term rental property of each transient. Such tax shall be in the amount of three and one-half percent of the consideration charged by the short term rental property owners. Such tax is a privilege tax upon the transient occupying such short term rental property and is to be collected and enforced by the city as provided, pursuant to Ordinance 5619.
(Ord. No. 5856, § 5, 3-21-2023)

Sec. 5-44-5. Permit required.

A. No person or entity shall operate a short term rental property or advertise residential property for use as a short term rental property without the owner of the property first having obtained a short term rental property permit issued by the City of Memphis Division of public works. Any owner of more than one short term rental property shall be required to obtain a permit for each short term rental property. If more than one short term rental property exists within a dwelling, each short term rental property, as defined herein, shall be treated as one unit, and permit shall be required for each unit.

C. Short term rental property permits required by this article shall be applied for and renewed electronically or in writing, on such forms as the division of public works may prescribe which forms shall include:

1. The maximum number of transient capacity per night for each short term rental unit including a site plan, drawn to scale, showing each unit and other structures and site features as determined by the division of public works;

7. Particular instances in which conditions or conduct on the applicant's property resulted in issuance of any citation by a local state or local law enforcement or regulatory agency within the last 12-months;

8. The identification of one or more adult persons, entities or businesses ("responsible party") residing or located within 50 miles of the subject short term rental property who shall be engaged to appear on the premises of the short term rental property to respond to alleged violations of the City of Memphis Code of Ordinances or other applicable state law, including those pertaining to alleged noise, disorderly conduct, overcrowding, traffic or nuisances existing on the property.

C. Prior to the issuance of any permit, the representatives from the division of public works shall be permitted, but not required, to conduct an on-site inspection of the property for which a permit or permits are sought to confirm the units comply with the requirements of this article. An inspection is also authorized, but not required, before any renewal of a permit is given.

D. Each applicant for a short term rental permit under the provisions of this article shall pay to the division of public works, a non-refundable application fee of $300.00 at the time of the filing of the application to cover new applicant screening and on-site property inspection; and

E. Failure of the responsible party to make a timely appearance on the premises of short term rental property to respond to alleged violations of the City of Memphis Code of Ordinances or other applicable state law including those pertaining to alleged noise, disorderly conduct, overcrowding, traffic, or nuisance existing on the property shall be grounds for permit suspension against the owner. The owner of the short term rental property shall be sent a notice of proposed suspension and given an opportunity to show cause as to why a short term rental permit should not be suspended. Failure to appear as requested or to satisfy the requirements of the notice to show cause shall result in suspension of the short term rental permit for a period of not to exceed 30 days.

F. An owner may replace the responsible party, temporarily or permanently, at any given time with written or electronic notice to the division of public works. To replace a responsible party, the owner shall notify the division of public works of the new responsible party's identity, together with all information required by this chapter prior to making short term rental units available for transients.

G. The division of public works shall issue a permit under this article under the following conditions:

1. That the applicant's application for a permit has been fully completed, signed and the application fee included in the application; and

2. That the operation as proposed by the applicant, if permitted, will contemporaneously comply with the ordinance, as well as the city's current property maintenance code and required insurance coverages; and

3. That the applicant has not knowingly made any false, misleading, or fraudulent statement of fact in the permit application or in any document required by the city in conjunction therewith; and

4. That the applicant has not had a similar permit denied, suspended, or revoked for any cause by any city or state agency within 365 days preceding the filing of this application, and

5. That the applicant has no unpaid assessed court fines or court costs related to violations of the short term rental property ordinance.

6. That the applicant is current on any local property taxes owed on the short term rental property and all other property in the city owned by the applicant.

H. A short term rental permit shall expire 365 days after it is issued. Short term rental permits many be renewed upon the payment of a $150.00 fee to cover the applicant renewal screening and on-site inspection by the division of public works. All renewal requests shall be received at least 30 days prior to the expiration date for their existing permit.

I. Any short term rental property found to be operating without the required permit being obtained shall be subject to double fees when the necessary permits are obtained.

J. A short term rental property permit shall not be transferred or assigned to another individual, person, entity, or address, nor shall the permit authorize any person, other than the person named therein, to operate a short term rental property on that property.

K. Any false, misleading, or fraudulent statement of fact submitted to the city in furtherance of obtaining a short term rental permit shall be taken as grounds for permit denial or revocation by the division of public works. Upon a finding that such statement of fact has been submitted, the division of public works shall deliver notice giving an owner an opportunity to show cause as to why a short term rental permit should not be revoked. Failure to appear as requested or to satisfy the requirement of the notice of show cause shall result in revocation of the short term rental permit for a period of 12 months.

L. The division of public works shall have the authority to enforce this article, including the authority to grant, deny, suspend, or revoke short term rental permits.
(Ord. No. 5856, § 6, 3-21-2023)

Sec. 5-44-6. Regulation of short term rental property.

A short term rental property owner or their designee shall answer calls 24-hours a day, seven days a week for the duration of each short term rental period to address problems or complaints associated with the short term rental property.

G. It is the intent of the Council of the city of Memphis that all short term rental property owners, Hosting Platforms, and their designees refrain from discrimination against any person in the terms, conditions, or privileges of the rental of short term rental property because some or all of the Transients are members of classes protected by the Tennessee Human Rights Act.

H. The short term rental property owner shall ensure the property is in compliance with all local housing code ordinances.
(Ord. No. 5856, § 7, 3-21-2023)

Sec. 5-44-7. Compliance.

It is the intent of the council of the city of Memphis that complaints regarding short term rental property be resolved according to existing state law and City of Memphis Ordinances pertaining to public nuisances, vehicles and traffic, health and safety, and public peace, morals, and welfare. The continued use of property as a short term rental unit will be prohibited, and the permit revoked, if, as a direct result of the operation of the short term rental unit, the unit has been found to be in violation of a generally applicable local law three or more separate times by a court of competent jurisdiction, and the provider has no appeal rights remaining for any of the three violations. (Code 1985, § 39-118; Ord. No. 4227, § 1, 11-2-1993; Ord. No. 4352, § 11, 8-15-1995; Ord. No. 4941, 5-7-2002)

Sec. 6-1-19. Horse-drawn carriage stands—Use by other vehicles prohibited.

A. Private or other vehicles for hire shall not at any time occupy the space upon the streets that have been established as horse-drawn carriage stands. Horse-drawn carriage stands shall at all times be restricted to a minimum distance of 100 feet from the threshold of any establishment or enterprise whose main business is the serving of restaurant clientele or food serving processes, unless the restaurant owner gives his or her consent that a horse-drawn carriage may be located within the 100 feet minimum distance from its threshold, and all the written consents to go to the city's department of engineering.

B. Horse-drawn carriage for hire stands shall be designated by the city engineer in concert with the city treasurer. If in the judgment of the city engineer the establishment of a horse-drawn carriage for hire stand will not interfere with nor present a hazard to the traffic on the street where such stand is sought to be established, the city engineer shall erect or cause to be erected the necessary official signs and markings to designate the stand. The city engineer shall forward a copy of his or her approval of the stands to the city treasurer.

C. A holder of a certificate of convenience and necessity may request additional stands through the permit office of the Memphis Police Department or the city engineer. It is unlawful for any person to remove, alter or deface any sign or other marking so installed. Additional markings on the standards shall be approved by the city engineer.

D. All horse-drawn carriage for hire stands are to be available for the use of all horse-drawn carriages for hire operating within the city on the basis of the driver of the first carriage for hire arriving at a vacant stand having the right to occupy such stand; however, the city treasurer may designate certain stands for a particular class of vehicles for hire only, such as: taxicab, horse-drawn carriage, etc. It is expressly provided that passengers may select any horse-drawn carriage for hire at such stands regardless of the horse-drawn carriage's position in the line at such stand and that no certificate holder may monopolize any stand.

E. While in service, the operator of a horse-drawn carriage for hire may park the carriage at any legal parking space. When a carriage is parked upon a metered space, the operator shall pay the appropriate fee. If the carriage is so large that more than one metered space is occupied, the driver shall pay the meter(s) for all spaces fully or partially occupied. This provision shall not prevent the operator of a horse-drawn carriage for hire from temporarily stopping in accordance with other stopping or parking regulations at any place for the purpose of and while actually engaged in the expeditious loading or unloading of passengers. While parking for this designated purpose upon a metered space, the driver shall pay the appropriate fee. While parked at any parking space, subsections G and H of this section and section 6-1-45 shall apply.

F. No person other than the holder of a horse-drawn carriage for hire certificate of convenience and necessity, his or her agent, or employees, shall occupy a designated horse-drawn carriage for hire stand, except that the driver of a passenger vehicle may temporarily stop therein for the purpose of and while actually engaged in loading or unloading passengers when such stopping does not interfere with any passenger vehicle for hire entering or about to enter the stand or stop.

G. Carriage companies shall keep horse-drawn carriage stands clean, free of manure and urine at all times. Urine shall be diluted with water or water with disinfectant as it occurs.

H. Water for the horses shall be available at all times.
(Code 1985, § 39-119; Ord. No. 4227, § 1, 11-2-1993; Ord. No. 4352, § 11, 8-15-1995; Ord. No. 4941, 5-7-2002)

(Ord. No. 5551, Art. V, 11-18-2014)

Sec. 6-24-6. Conditions for access to the city's rights-of-way.

A. No telecommunications company or utility owner shall be permitted to install underground or above ground any telecommunication system or related facilities within the city's rights-of-way without first obtaining permission from the city by executing a right-of-way agreement or a permit. No telecommunications company or utility owner shall cause or allow any telecommunication systems or related facilities to continue to occupy the city's rights-of-way after the effective date hereof without obtaining a right-of-way agreement or other authorization from the city, except that any such telecommunications company or utility owner shall be permitted to continue to occupy the city's streets and rights-of-way pursuant to any unexpired specific route or encroachment agreement as long as any such company is not in default thereunder. This chapter shall supersede and replace any unexpired franchise agreement governing access and construction activities within the city's public rights-of-way (non-resellers' ordinances).

B. Upon making application to the chief administrative officer for a right-of-way agreement under this chapter, the telecommunications company shall pay a permit application fee to the city for processing the permit application, reviewing plans, and other administrative services. The total amount of the required application fee shall include a base fee of $750.00 plus $200.00 for each mile of the proposed installation within all or a portion of the city's public rights-of-way over the initial two miles of installation. The city engineer shall determine whether permits shall be required for non-material modifications or repairs to existing systems.

C. All utility installations within the city's streets and rights-of-way and all work performed within the city's streets and rights-of-way or otherwise, including without limitation any work performed for the city, shall be subject to review and inspection by the city engineer to ensure conformity with all city engineering and construction standards, which standards shall be deemed a part of the right-of-way agreement by reference. The inspection fee shall equal $1.00 per linear foot of the proposed installation within all or a portion of the city's public rights-of-way. The city engineer shall have the discretion to assign one or more inspectors, either city employees or specially employed engineering contractors, to inspect the installation periodically and if necessary place one or more inspectors on the site for the duration of construction activities depending on availability of staff engineers, the magnitude and the complexity of the utility installations within the city's streets and rights-of-way. Should outside engineering contractors be used for inspection services, the cost of such services shall be paid from the inspection fee with any excess costs to be billed to the grantee. The necessity and extent of such inspectional services will be determined by the city engineer on a case by case basis. If the city engineer and grantee disagree on the need for inspection services, the cost of an inspection or the results of a city inspection, the city engineer and grantee shall meet within ten days to review the issues. The decision of the city engineer on the necessity for such inspectional services may be appealed to the city's chief administrative officer, whose decision shall be conclusive and final.

D. The city engineer shall have the authority to reject substandard work or materials and/or to suspend or stop work, in whole or part, where the telecommunications company fails to comply with any material requirement of this chapter or the terms of the right-of-way agreement related to the work being suspended or stopped or where any unsafe or hazardous condition exists unless and until corrective measures have been made to the satisfaction of the city engineer. Any such suspension shall relate only to the permitted project and shall not affect any other separate installations.

E. Any inspection or control exercised by the city over the construction activities of the utility owner shall in no way relieve the utility owner of any duty or responsibility to the general public nor shall such services and/or control by the city relieve the utility owner from any liability for loss, damage or injury to persons or adjacent properties.

F. All application, review and inspection services performed by city personnel shall be taken into consideration in determining periodic right-of-way compensation under section 6-24-11 of this chapter to ensure that the costs of performing application, review and inspection services are not duplicated. The decision of the city's chief administrative officer shall be final and conclusive with respect to conditions, terms, stipulations and provisions to be included in any right-of-way agreement.

G. Small cell master development plan and permit application.

1. The city shall develop a master development plan which will support the development of a master license agreement, a pole attachment agreement for private access to right-of-way (ROW), and a city facilities lease agreement.

2. The master development plan will define and develop standards for small cell equipment and a process for the installation of private equipment on public infrastructure and facilities, taking into consideration the input of carriers and adherence to any state and federal regulations. The master development plan which shall define minimum design criteria and fee structure for use of the ROW and for city owned facilities (including buildings/structures not in the ROW). The design criteria shall contemplate:

   a. Minimal impact to the city's ROW;

   b. Enhancement of the city's ROW with new infrastructure in non-compliance locations;

   c. Standardized aesthetic appearance on sidewalks and poles in order to maintain the integrity of the existing streetscape in residential, historic, or recreational uses in certain areas of town;

   d. Ensure safe pedestrian, ADA, and auto thoroughfares.

3. The master development plan shall adopt a design manual for the installation and construction of network nodes and new node support poles in the public right-of-way that includes additional installation and construction details.

4. The master development plan shall evaluate factors to define a fee structure and publish a fee structure plan.

5. Permit application review process.

   a. The city shall process each permit application on a nondiscriminatory, first-come-first-served basis.

   b. A network provider shall provide a design plan in compliance with the city's master development plan, on the date the permit application is filed, in addition to any other information reasonably required by the division of public works and/or engineering.

   c. Not later than the 30th day after the date the city receives an application for a permit for a network node or node support pole, or the 21st day after the date the city receives an application for a permit for a transport facility, the city shall determine whether the application is complete and notify the applicant of that determination. If the city determines that the application is not complete, the municipality shall specifically identify the missing information.

d. The city shall approve an application that does not require zoning or land use approval under this chapter unless the application or the corresponding work to be performed under the permit does not comply with the municipality's applicable codes and/or does not meet the requirements under the master development plan.

e. The city must approve or deny an application for a node support pole no later than the 90th day after the date the city receives the complete application. The city must approve or deny an application for a network node not later than the 60th day after the date the city receives the complete application. The city must approve or deny an application for a transport facility not later than the 30th day after the date the city receives a complete application. An application for a permit for a node support pole, network node, or transport facility shall be deemed approved if the application is not approved or denied on or before the applicable date for approval or denial prescribed by this subsection.

f. The municipality that denies a complete application must provide in writing a basis for the denial, including the specific applicable code provisions on which the denial was based.

g. Not later than the 30th day after the date the city denies the application, the applicant may cure the deficiencies identified in the denial documentation and resubmit its application without paying an additional application fee. Notwithstanding the city shall approve or deny the revised completed application after a denial not later than the 60th day after the date the municipality receives the completed revised application. The city's review of the revised application may be limited to the deficiencies cited in the denial documentation.

h. The city may extend any of the deadlines provided under this section as warranted by extenuating circumstances on a case by case basis by issuing notice to the public and to any applicant whose application may be affected.

(Ord. No. 5551, Art. VI, 11-18-2014; Ord. No. 5678, § 3, 2-6-2018)

Sec. 6-24-7. Right-of-way agreement requirements.

Each right-of-way agreement for the installation of telecommunications systems within city's rights-of-way shall be subject to this chapter and specifically, but without limitation, to the following terms and conditions:

A. Assignment. The telecommunications company and/ or utility owner may not assign or transfer its rights or obligations under the right-of-way agreement to another telecommunications company or other entity or person that is not under common control of the grantee without first giving written notice to, and obtaining the consent of, the city, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld. The word "control" as used herein means actual working control in whatever manner exercised. A rebuttable presumption that a transfer of control has occurred shall arise upon the disposal by the grantee, directly or indirectly, by gift, assignment, voluntary sale, merger, consolidation or otherwise, of ownership interest in grantee to an unaffiliated party or person which results in a material change of the composition of its board of directors and executive level management. Except that no consent shall be required for any sale, transfer, or assignment of ownership, control or obligations to an entity that grantee controls, is controlled by, or is under common control with or to any entity which acquires or succeeds to all or substantially all of the business or assets of grantee whether by consolidation, merger, sale or otherwise, or in connection with a financing transaction, provided that at least 30 days prior to such transfer or change of control, grantee provides written notice to the city of such transfer.

B. Indemnification and hold harmless.

1. The telecommunications company and/or utility owner shall indemnify the City of Memphis and their officers, employees and agents, and hold them harmless to the maximum extent allowed under Tennessee law for any and all claims arising from the telecommunications company's use of the city's right-of-way to install, operate and/or maintain telecommunications systems, including claims by third parties, and including attorneys' fees and all other costs of preparing for and defending against such claims, regardless of any negligence or fault of the city in the design, construction and maintenance of the rights-of-way.

2. Without limiting the foregoing, the telecommunications company shall hold the City of Memphis, and their officers, employees and agents, harmless, to the maximum extent allowed under Tennessee law, for any personal injury or property damage, including interruption of service or loss of business, incurred by the telecommunications company, or its officers, employees or agents, arising from the city's construction, reconstruction, operation or maintenance of the city's right-of-way, regardless of any negligence or fault of the city in the design, construction and maintenance of the rights-of-way.

3. The city agrees to give grantee prompt and reasonable notice of any claims or lawsuits; and grantee shall have the right to investigate, compromise, intervene and defend same to the extent of its own interest. Notwithstanding any provision of this section to the contrary, the above indemnification shall not apply to any judgment or liability resulting from the gross negligence or willful misconduct of the city. The terms and provisions contained in this section are intended to be for the benefit of the city and grantee, and are not intended to be for the benefit of any third party. The city shall have the right to participate or conduct the defense of its interests in any proceeding, and thereby assume risks and liabilities for its own acts or omissions.

C. Insurance. The telecommunications company shall at all times have and maintain, and upon the request of the city shall provide written proof of liability insurance policies containing, at a minimum, the following insurance coverage:

1. All such liability insurance policies shall provide liability coverage sufficient, at a minimum, to match the city limits of liability under city ordinances. These limits are currently set at $1,000,000.00 combined single limit, bodily injury and for real property damage in any one occurrence and $5,000,000.00 aggregate.

2. Grantee shall also file with the city a certificate of insurance for a comprehensive automobile liability insurance policy written by a company authorized to do business in the State of Tennessee, for all owned, non-owned, hired and leased vehicles operated by grantee, with limits no less than $1,000,000.00 each accident, single limit, bodily injury and property damage combined, or evidence of self-insurance.

3. Grantee shall also maintain and specifically agrees that it will maintain throughout the term of the authorization, workers compensation and employers liability, valid in the state, in the minimum amount of the statutory limit for workers compensation.

4. All liability insurance required pursuant to this section shall be kept in full force and effect by grantee during the term of any right-of-way agreement or other authorization and until after the removal of all poles, wires, cables, underground conduits, manholes and any other conductors and fixtures installed by grantee in the public rights-of-way incident to the maintenance and operation of the telecommunications system as defined in this chapter.

5. All policy limits set forth herein are subject to change by order of the city's chief administrative officer without amendment of this chapter.

6. All such liability certificated of insurance shall name the City of Memphis as an additional insured for the purposes of fulfilling the telecommunications company's obligations under the use and occupancy agreement. Grantee shall provide the city a minimum of 30 days written notice of the intent to amend or cancel by either grantee or the insuring company.

D. Surety bond. The telecommunications company or utility owner shall furnish a surety bond, issued by a company licensed to do business in the State of Tennessee, and in such form and amount acceptable to the city, guaranteeing full and faithful performance of the terms and conditions of the use and occupancy agreement, including without limitation the repair and restoration of the right-of-way premises, the payment of any monetary compensation remaining due to the city for use of the city's streets and rights-of way, and the completion of any installation or relocation of telecommunications systems. The city engineer shall reasonably determine the appropriate amount of the bond to safeguard the interests of the city with regard to damage to public property by considering the size of the project, the amount of future compensation due the city and the estimated cost of removing grantee's property in the event of a default or failure to relocate grantee's telecommunications systems. The bond may be reduced by the city engineer during the term of a right-of-way agreement upon request of grantee. Any decision of the city engineer as to the size of the bond may be appealed to the city's chief administrative officer, whose decisions shall be final.

E. Relocation or removal.

1. If, at any time, the city reasonably determines that any telecommunications systems need to be relocated within, or removed from, the city's streets and rights-of-way for any reason related to the use, operation, maintenance, construction, reconstruction, modification or redesign of any such streets and rights-of-way, the telecommunications company or utility owner shall relocate or remove the facilities within 180 days as directed by written notice from the city engineer. City engineer shall work with grantee to identify and designate an alternate location for any impacted facilities and shall work with grantee to limit any related service disruptions. Such decision to ask grantee to remove or relocate grantee's facilities in order to accommodate the activities of the city shall be thoughtfully considered and the city shall use reasonable efforts to avoid repeated impact on grantee's facilities.

2. All such costs of relocation or removal shall be borne solely by the telecommunications company or utility owner and not by the city, except as the city may otherwise agree in accordance with a special condition of the right-of-way agreement executed prior to the installation, or as the city may subsequently agree in writing under a utility relocation contract, but only if the state reimburses the city for such relocation expenses or if city requires grantee to relocate the same facilities on a non-emergency basis more than once in a 24 month period.

3. The telecommunications company or utility owner shall complete the relocation or removal within 180 days after written notice, or within such additional time as the city engineer may authorize in writing. Upon the failure of the telecommunications company or utility owner to relocate or remove its telecommunications systems within the specified time, or such additional time as the city engineer may authorize in writing or grantee is not working diligently to complete the relocation or removal, upon 30 days written notice the telecommunications systems shall be deemed to be abandoned by the telecommunications company or utility owner, and the city may hold the telecommunications company or utility company liable for the costs of removing such facilities from the city's streets and rights-of-way.

4. To the extent that the telecommunications company or utility owner is required to remove telecommunications systems from the city's streets and rights-of-way, the telecommunications company shall to that extent be relieved of any further obligation under the right-of-way agreement to compensate the city for the use of the city's streets and rights-of-way. To the extent that the telecommunications company is allowed to relocate telecommunications systems to another location within the city's streets and rights-of-way, the telecommunications company or utility owner may elect either to remain under the terms of compensation specified in the right-of-way agreement, or the telecommunications company or utility owner may choose to enter into a new right-of-way agreement for the new location.

F. Duration and renewal of right-of-way agreements.

1. Initial term. The right-of-way agreement for the installation of telecommunications systems within the city's streets and rights-of-way shall have an initial term of up to five years at the option of the telecommunications company or utility owner, without any necessity of approval from the city council. For any telecommunications system that occupies more than 20 lane miles of the city's streets and rights-of-way term may qualify for term of up to 20 years; city council approval by resolution shall be required for any such systems. Other installations may at their option seek council approval for terms longer than five years, which approval shall be within the legislative discretion of the council.

2. Renewal options. Upon the expiration of the initial term of the right-of-way agreement, the telecommunications company shall have an option to renew the right-of-way agreement for one additional term of five years, or longer term approved by the city council, but shall be subject to the applicable rate of compensation in effect as of the date of renewal. In no event shall any initial term or any successive renewal term exceed a combined total of 20 years. If, on the expiration date, grantee shall not be in default under any authorization, license, contract or permit, such authorization, license, contract or permit shall be deemed extended on an interim basis until terminated, renewed or renegotiated. Said interim extension period shall not extend beyond a date 60 days after the expiration date.

(Ord. No. 5551, Art. VII, 11-18-2014)

Sec. 6-24-8. Compensation.

A. Compensation requirement.

1. No telecommunications company or utility owner shall be permitted to install or maintain any telecommunications system within city's streets and rights-of-way except upon the payment of compensation for the use and occupation of such rights-of-way, as adopted by the city council from time to time.

2. The city may, at its option, receive the compensation for use of city's streets and rights-of-way in the form of money or as in-kind compensation in the form of telecommunications facilities or services, or both; provided however the city may only use such facilities or services in the performance of its governmental and public services.

B. Rate and method of compensation.

1. The rate of monetary compensation shall be as established by the city council from time to time by ordinance for such time periods determined by the council by affixing an addendum to this chapter. In establishing the monetary rate of fair and reasonable compensation for use and occupation of city's streets and rights-of-way, the city council shall consider the following factors:

a. The city's costs in regulating the right-of-way activities of telecommunications companies and utility owners,

b. The extent the city's streets and rights-of-way are used and occupied by such companies and owners,

c. The proportionate share of the city's cost of making and keeping in repair and policing the city's streets and rights-of-way to be assigned to such companies and owners in order to defray the total amount of the city's right-of-way costs to provide right-of-way services to such companies and owners,

d. The cost of providing the benefit to such companies and owners of the use and occupation of the city's streets and rights-of-way for installation of their telecommunications facilities, including, but not limited to, savings on construction costs due to ease of installation in established rights-of-way conveniently located in close proximity to their customers and businesses, comparable rates charged for the use and access, the amount of right-of-way available in certain locations and demand for certain locations. Information pertaining to these factors shall be presented to the council by the city administration and additional information or comments may also be presented to the council by any other interested parties.

e. Any other factors the council deems relevant.

2. Small cell site fees. The rate of monetary compensation for fees related to small cell sites shall be established by the city council, and shall be based on fair and reasonable compensation for application review and use and occupation of the city's rights-of-way. The initial fee structure plan, Appendix A, may be modified or revised by resolution. The fee structure shall be reviewed from time to time, but no less than annually, by the city.

C. The method of valuation for in-kind compensation and the valuation for the purposes of a right-of-way agreement shall be as established by the city council with input from the city's chief information officer.

D. Total amount of compensation. The total amount of compensation due for use of the right-of-way for a shall be fixed as of the date of execution of the use and occupancy agreement, in accordance with the rate and method of valuation of in-kind compensation established by the city council and in effect at that time.

E. Unit measure of compensation.

1. Compensation shall be stated and computed on a measured unit of right-of-way used by a telecommunications company and may be based:

   a. On the cubic feet of right-of-way such provider occupies in the public right-of-way, including clearance zones required by this chapter or by applicable industry and safety standards, or

   b. On a unit charge for each linear foot conduit of four inches or less or the equivalent thereof if innerducts containing fiber optic cable are installed without conduit or if fiber optic cable is buried in the right-of-way without a conduit or an innerduct, except that there shall be no charge for any innerduct or fiber optic cable provided to the city as in-kind compensation.

2. The linear foot charge for conduit, innerduct or cable shall be calculated on a pro rata basis. For example, the charge for a five-inch conduit or five inches of combined innerducts or cables shall be one and one-quarter times the charge for a four-inch conduit or four inches of combined innerducts or cables.

3. In-kind compensation. If the city's chief administrative officer chooses to receive in-kind compensation under a right-of-way agreement, it shall provide the telecommunications company with a list of the specific telecommunications facilities and/or services that it wishes to obtain. If the telecommunications company agrees to provide such in-kind services, the value of such in-kind compensation, as determined in accordance with the method of valuation established by the city council, shall be subtracted from the total amount of monetary compensation due for use of the right-of-way and the remaining balance, if any, shall be remitted as monetary compensation.

(Ord. No. 5551, Art. VIII, 11-18-2014; Ord. No. 5678, § 4, 2-6-2018)

Editor's note—Appendix A is not set out herein, but is on file with the city.

Sec. 6-24-9. Policy and methodology for monetary rate setting.

The council shall establish monetary compensation that is fair and reasonable considering the city's annual costs that are reasonably related to making the city's streets and rights-of-way available to telecommunications companies and utility owners for the installation of their telecommunications facilities. The rate of monetary compensation established should be within a zone of reasonableness rather than a rate determined with mathematical precision. To this end the city council adopts the fully allocated cost and incremental cost methodologies to define the upper and lower ranges of aggregate costs to be considered in setting a rate or rates for right-of-way compensation. The council finds the discussion and analysis of these economic concepts by the Federal Communications Commission in its rate order governing the FCC's rate making activities in the closely analogous area of just and reasonable cost based pole attachment rates under the Pole Attachment Act, 47 U.S.C. § 224(d) to be instructive even its provisions are not binding on the city. In the matter of implementation of Section 224 of the Act A Nat'l Broadband Plan for Our Future, 26 F.C.C. Rcd. 5240 (Apr. 7, 2011) ("2011 Rate Order"). While the Pole Attachment Act does not apply to municipal governments and municipal utilities, it is instructive of accepted economic methods for determining just and reasonable cost based rates for the use by non-owning telecommunications companies of telephone poles, fiber optic conduit, rights-of-way and other telecommunication infrastructure owned by investor owned utilities and telephone companies.

Under the FCC's 2011 Rate Order the FCC approved an approach which established a zone of reasonableness for an access fee as that compensation that was based on a facilities owner's costs falling between an "upper bound rate" and a "lower bound rate", the commission reasoned that such an approach balanced the goals of increased competition with the historical role of proportionate cost recovery to facilities owners and their ratepayers. Id. ¶¶ 138-146.

Under the FCC's 2011 Rate Order, it defined the "upper bound rate" as that rate derived from its telecom rate formula applied to a facilities owners' fully allocated costs using a fully allocated cost methodology, which recovers a full range of costs of the facilities owner, such as (i) operational costs related to the pole, conduit or right-of-way, (ii) capital cost of acquiring the pole, conduit or right-of-way, and (iii) borrowing costs and depreciation, which is the method presently used by MLGW and other municipal utilities in Tennessee and in other states. Id. at ¶ 142. The FCC defined the "lower bound rate" as "a rate that covers the facilities owners' incremental cost associated with an attachment," which partly incorporates the economic cost causation principles advocated by the telecommunications industry. Under a strict application of cost causation principles, if a customer is causally responsible for the incurrence of a cost, then that customer (the cost causer) pays a rate that covers this cost. Under this theory that is usually espoused by telecommunication providers seeking access to another's facilities, sometimes called the "free rider" theory, there is very little incremental cost caused by the "free rider" since most costs would be incurred by the owner if the "free rider" was not present.

Even though the FCC found some support in economic theory for the application of strict cost causation principles in the lower bound rate the FCC did not follow the incremental cost causation method exactly as advocated by the non-incumbent telecommunication provider industry; rather, it included maintenance and administrative expenses in its calculation of allowable costs under its "lower bound rate", even though the attacher might not be the cost causer with respect to all the operating costs that might be incurred by a facilities owner, to avoid shifting the full operating cost burden to the owning utility's ratepayers. Id. at ¶ 146.

Cost based rate formulas used by Tennessee municipal electric power providers, such as MLGW, for access to their poles and telecommunications facilities is one of the most relevant illustrations of a "full cost" allocation model, which more evenly spreads the cost of ownership of the poles or telecommunications facilities among all users, as a 2007 study by the Tennessee Advisory Commission on Intergovernmental Relations found. Under this formula the cost of a facilities owner's telecommunications infrastructure is the initial capital outlay for a telephone pole, fiber optic conduit, rights-of-way or other telecommunication infrastructure, minus accumulated depreciation. The carrying charge rate is a composite rate that reflects separate carrying charge rates for the costs of owning and maintaining such facilities. See, e.g., 1987 Rate Order, 2 FCC Rcd. at 4391, ¶ 25; 2001 Order on Reconsideration, 16 FCC Rcd. at 12121, ¶ 28. The carrying charges include a facilities owner's administrative, maintenance, interest and depreciation expenses, a return on investment (a factor not applicable here), and taxes.

The council finds that the reasoning and rationale set forth in the FCC's 2011 Rate Order for defining the range of costs to be considered in setting rates is sound and addresses many of the policy considerations applicable to the city. The council therefore adopts a rate setting methodology that bases right-of-way compensation for all relevant time periods on the fully allocated cost of the city on the upper end of a range of reasonableness and the incremental cost of the city on the lower end of such range.
(Ord. No. 5551, Art. IX, 11-18-2014)

Sec. 6-24-10. General installation policies and procedures.

A. Timing of installations. To minimize interference with the safe use, operation and maintenance of the freeway, and as reasonably necessary to manage the right-of-way, the city engineer may limit the timing of access so that, to the extent possible, there is no more than one telecommunications system installation or repair project underway at any given time on any particular segment of a city right-of-way.

B. Location and alignment criteria.

1. General location policy. To minimize interference with the safe use, operation and maintenance of the city's streets, longitudinal installations of telecommunications systems and facilities shall be located outside the traveled way and as near to the outer edge of the right-of-way line as is reasonably practical; provided, however, that alternative locations within the right-of-way, including the traveled way, may be permitted where the city engineer determines that it is not reasonably practical to locate the telecommunications systems and facilities along the outer edge of the right-of-way and that the use of the alternative location is consistent with the city's goal to minimize interference with the safe use, operation and maintenance of the streets and highways.

2. Horizontal and vertical clearance zones. As a general rule, subsequent installations of underground telecommunications systems and facilities outside the traveled way shall be located not less than two feet from any previously installed telecommunications system or other utility installation, if any, within the city's right-of-way or such greater clearance zones required by utility codes as they relate to electrical, water, gas or sewer systems. Exceptions may be considered on a case-by-case basis and as may be reasonably necessary to manage the city's right-of-way and where the city engineer determines that it is not reasonably practical to locate the telecommunications systems as herein provided.

3. Depth. All underground telecommunications systems and facilities shall be located and installed in accordance with a minimum depth of 36 inches for fiber optic facilities and 24 inches for all other facilities (such as copper facilities), or at such greater depths as the city engineer may require as a special condition of a right-of-way agreement or as shall be necessary to comply with the horizontal and vertical clearance zone requirement. Exceptions may be considered on a case-by-case basis and as may be reasonably necessary to manage the city's right-of-way and where the city engineer determines that it is not reasonably practical to locate the telecommunications systems as herein provided.

4. Access points. In all future installations, devices for accessing underground telecommunications systems and facilities for routine service or site visits shall not be allowed within the traveled way, except where the city engineer determines that it is not reasonably practical to locate such systems outside the traveled way. Existing access points within the traveled way shall be permitted to exist as long as such access points do not create a hazard for the traveling public.

5. Support facilities. All above-ground support facilities for underground telecommunications systems and facilities shall be located outside the traveled way and as near to the outer edge of the right-of-way line as is reasonably practical. No above-ground facility may be located on the traveled way without the express written approval of the city engineer.

6. Attachment to roadway and roadside structures. The attachment of telecommunications systems and facilities to roadway and roadside structures (including without limitation bridges, overpasses, underpasses, culverts and tunnels) shall be permitted only with the prior written approval of the city engineer.

(Ord. No. 5551, Art. X, 11-18-2014)

Sec. 6-24-11. Installation and maintenance requirements.

A. General standards of care.

1. The telecommunications company shall take care not to install any telecommunications system in such a manner as to create a potential hazard to life, health or property or in such a manner as to impair the use, operation and maintenance of the city's rights-of-way.

2. The telecommunications company shall cooperate with the city engineer to identify locations for its telecommunications system or facilities within the city's right-of-way that will, to the extent it is reasonably practical, minimize any potential conflict with the future expansion or reconstruction of the right-of-way. The telecommunications company shall also take care to install all telecommunications systems or facilities in such manner as to require only minimal maintenance within the city's right-of-way after installation.

B. Tennessee one-call service. Telecommunications companies, utilities and private entities accessing the city's rights-of-way shall comply with the Tennessee one-call service as provided in T.C.A. § 65-31-101 et seq., or as it may be amended.

C. Permits and approvals. The telecommunications company shall be responsible for obtaining all approvals and/or permits that may be required for activities authorized under this rule, including without limitation all environmental permits and federal regulatory approvals or permits, if applicable.

(Ord. No. 5551, Art. XI, 11-18-2014)

Sec. 6-24-12. Minimum installation and maintenance controls.

The following minimum controls shall apply to the installation, servicing and maintenance of all telecommunications system within city's rights-of-way, in addition to such other requirements as the city engineer may provide as a general or special condition of the right-of-way agreement:

A. Installation and maintenance plan. Before commencing any installation, servicing or maintenance of a telecommunications system, the telecommunications company shall submit an installation and maintenance plan to the city engineer for review and approval within 14 days, and upon approval such plan shall be made a part of the right-of-way agreement. At a minimum, the installation and maintenance plan shall specify:

1. The location and method of installing each part of the telecommunications systems and facilities within the right-of-way;

2. The means by which access to and within the right-of-way shall be accomplished for the purpose of installing, servicing and maintaining each part of the telecommunications systems and facilities, including provisions for ingress and egress, parking of vehicles and equipment, and storage of materials;

3. The means by which the telecommunications company will provide for the control of traffic on the traveled way, if needed, in the course of installing, servicing or maintaining any part of the telecommunications systems and facilities;

4. The schedule for completing the installation of the telecommunications systems and facilities, or parts thereof, within the right-of-way.

B. Preservation of pavement structure. Open cutting or trenching of the pavement structure of a street, highway or roadway, including without limitation the traveled way and shoulders, if any, shall not be permitted. Wherever the city engineer permits a crossing of the pavement structure of a street, highway or roadway in accordance with this chapter, the crossing shall be accomplished by boring or other untrenched method as approved by the city engineer. Open cutting or trenching of the pavement structure of a street, highway or roadway may be permitted in special circumstances where there is no reasonably practical alternative means of access and the telecommunications company has made adequate provisions for controlling access to the work zone, directing traffic, and protecting the safety of workers and the traveling public, as specified in the installation and maintenance plan approved by the city engineer.

C. Access to right-of-way for installation and maintenance. As far as it is reasonably practical, all telecommunications systems should be designed and located in such a manner that they can be installed, serviced and maintained without direct access thereto from the traveled way. Such direct access may be permitted in special circumstances where there is no reasonably practical alternative means of access and the telecommunications company has made adequate provisions for controlling access to the work zone, directing traffic, and protecting the safety of workers and the traveling public, as specified in the installation and maintenance plan approved by the city engineer.

D. Parking of vehicles. The telecommunications company shall not be permitted to park vehicles and equipment or to store materials on the city's right-of-way without express prior approval by the city engineer, except as may be required during actual installation and repair operations and while all required traffic controls are present and in place.

E. Traffic control.

1. All traffic control signs or other traffic control devices that the telecommunications company may use in the course of any installation, servicing or maintenance of a telecommunications systems shall comply with the provisions of the Manual on Uniform Traffic Control Devices, T.C.A. § 55-8-153 and City Code sections 36-41 and 36-42.

2. If any installation, servicing or maintenance project is anticipated to significantly impede the flow of traffic on a divided street or roadway or on a major thoroughfare, the telecommunications company shall arrange for law enforcement officers having appropriate enforcement authority to be present to ensure the safe flow of traffic or as may be reasonably required in the installation and maintenance plan approved by the city engineer where access to the work zone has been permitted from the traveled way or areas appurtenant to the traveled way, except as the city engineer may otherwise expressly permit or require where the city engineer determines that it is not reasonably practical for grantee to comply with this requirement. In any event, except in emergency situations the telecommunications company may not conduct any such work within the traveled way without giving specific advance notice thereof to the city engineer, in the manner and at the times required by this chapter.

3. Advance notice of installation or maintenance work. Before performing any non-emergency servicing or maintenance of a telecommunications system at any location within traveled way or areas appurtenant to the traveled way the telecommunications company shall give at least two work days advance written or facsimile notice thereof to the city engineer, if timing of such work deviates from the plan in the approved permit. Advanced notice shall not be required for work associated with routine customer trouble reports of two hours or less. City engineer may waive the advance notice requirement,

F. Emergency maintenance or repair. Compliance with the advance notice requirements of subsection E. of this section is not required of any person responsible for emergency excavation or demolition, for repair or restoration of service or to ameliorate an imminent danger to life, health, or property; provided, that such person gives the city engineer as soon as practicable, and written or facsimile notice thereof not less than 48 hours after the occurrence of an event requiring emergency maintenance or repair of a telecommunications system within the city's right-of-way if such facilities have not been restored in its original location. City shall provide prior notice, if possible, to grantee if it must move its telecommunications systems due to an emergency and allow grantee the opportunity to move such telecommunications systems. If this is not possible, city will contact grantee as soon as is practicable and inform grantee of any actions taken by city to the telecommunications system.

G. Cessation of work for public safety. If the telecommunications company fails to comply with the traffic control plan or any other provision of the installation and maintenance plan, or if any activity of the telecommunications company within the city's right-of-way interferes with the safe and efficient use of the travelled way as determined by the city engineer, the telecommunications company shall immediately cease such activity upon notice being given by the city engineer, and the telecommunications company shall thereafter work with the city engineer to bring its activities into compliance with the installation and maintenance plan and/or implement such additional safety requirements as may be specified by the city engineer.

H. Trees. With regard to new installations only, cutting or removal of trees along the city's rights-of-way shall not be permitted without the express approval of the city engineer.

I. Hazardous substances. The telecommunications company shall not place, install or deposit any hazardous substance or hazardous waste within or on any part of the state freeway or state freeway right-of-way. If at any time the telecommunications company causes or allows a spill of a hazardous waste or substance within the freeway right-of-way, the telecommunications company shall remain solely liable for the clean-up and removal of such hazardous waste or substance. The telecommunications company shall indemnify the city and the city engineer, and their officers, employees and agents, and shall hold them harmless against any and all claims or expenses of any kind related to the deposit, spillage and/or clean-up of any such hazardous wastes or substances.

J. Repair and restoration of premises.

1. The telecommunications company shall, as directed by and in a manner satisfactory to the city engineer, promptly replace or repair any portion of the pavement, shoulders, structures, ramps, guardrail, drainage, or any other part of the freeway that may have been damaged in the course of any work within the city's right-of-way.

3. The telecommunications company shall remain responsible for maintaining any excavation or trench on or along any city right-of-way, as directed by and in a manner satisfactory to the city engineer.

K. As-built drawings. "As-built" drawings that adequately demonstrate the location, size length and nature of all underground and aboveground telecommunications systems located on, over or under the city's right-of-way shall be submitted by a telecommunications company to the city engineer within 120 days after completion of construction of such systems, if drawings are not submitted pursuant to section 6-24-12(A). Such drawing shall be in .pdf or other accepted industry format as reasonable to the size and scale of the project. Where the system is installed in duct, conduit or on poles owned by another entity, the owner shall be identified and the overall length, size, and shape of system installed in the shared facilities shall be indicated. A telecommunications company shall update such drawings within 60 days whenever material changes are made to such company's system which impact the public right-of-way. If so marked, all drawings and plans shall be treated as confidential and proprietary as applicable to the extent allowed by applicable law, but even if such drawings and maps are not protected from public disclosure by applicable law, the city shall not post such documents or maps on city websites.

L. Completion of any installation or relocation. It shall be the responsibility of the telecommunications company to seasonably submit "as built" drawings of its facilities in the city's right-of-way and to provide other information upon request.

B. In any case not presenting any imminent threat to public safety, as determined by the city engineer, the telecommunications company shall be given 30 days, or such other reasonable time as the city engineer may provide, within which to correct the noncompliance.

C. In any case presenting an imminent threat to public safety, as determined by the city engineer, the telecommunications company shall correct the noncompliance promptly as reasonably directed by the city engineer.

D. If a telecommunications company fails to comply with any order or directive given by the city engineer or otherwise violates any provision of this chapter, after the above-stated notice and opportunity to cure, then the city may take any action authorized by law, withholding of all other licenses and permits until the violation is cured, or repeal of any permit or authorization previously granted or filing a suit in court to compel compliance. If, in any such proceeding, default is finally established, the telecommunications company shall be required to pay to the city the reasonable expenses incurred in the prosecution of such suit and all the city's damages and costs (including attorneys' fees). A telecommunications company that in good faith disputes a finding that it is in default, and that promptly files a court proceeding challenging the determination may continue to provide service pursuant to the terms of any permit or authorization unless otherwise ordered by the court.

E. A violation of the provisions of this article after the above-stated notice and opportunity to cure shall subject the offending telecommunications company to an initial fine of $50.00. Each day of continued violation of this chapter constitutes a separate offense and will subject the offending telecommunications company to continuing fines, above the initial fine, of $50.00 per day for each day that the a telecommunications company fails to comply with any order or directive given by the city engineer to comply with any provision of this chapter.

F. The telecommunications company shall not be entitled to any compensation, lost profits, consequential damages or reimbursement of suit expenses or attorney's fees in the event of a revocation of a right-of-way agreement or enforcement action taken by the city to enforce this chapter.

B. All payments for the use of the right-of-way made pursuant to this chapter shall be deposited into the fund, less reasonable administrative costs incurred by the city in connection with the collection of fees owed.

C. Operating transfers shall be made from this fund to other funds of the city incurring costs associated with right-of-way management. Such operating transfers will be established in accordance with the city's annual appropriation ordinances, adopted from time to time.

B. Minimum requirements for smart city fiber access system.

1. Application for designation as a smart city fiber access system.

   A telecommunications company that desires that its fiber optics system be designated as a smart city fiber access system shall complete a designation application provided by the city that will include at least the following information:

   a. High-level design showing:
      i. Overall network footprint;
      ii. Number and locations of all premises passed by the fiber optics system;
      iii. Number and locations of all low-income premises passed by the fiber optics system;
   b. Construction schedule showing, at a minimum, commencement date and date for completion;
   c. Commitment to meet each of the requirements for qualification as a smart city fiber access system as set forth in section (D)(2);
   d. Signed development commitment in form and substance approved by the chief administrative officer, the material terms of which have been adopted by the city council..

2. Initial qualification as smart city fiber access system.

   In order to initially qualify for the designation as a smart city fiber access system, a telecommunications company must include in the development commitment a commitment to construct and complete, within a specified period of time approved by the chief administrative officer and specified in the development commitment, a fiber optics system in the city with the following characteristics and service opportunities:

   a. During the period until June 30, 2028, the fiber optics system must initially support the minimum service to all residences served and must support any revised minimum service standard adopted thereafter; and
   b. The fiber optics system must be available to provide the minimum service to the following percentages of the total business and residential premises within the city:
      i. The fiber optics system must be available to at least 60 percent of the residential and business premises within the city; and
      ii. The fiber optics system must be available to at least 60 percent of the low-income premises existing within the city prior to the development commitment effective date; and

d. The fiber optics system must construct at no cost to the city at least 6,000 physical connection points at locations throughout the city, of which at least one-third shall be located within the Census Tracts encompassing the low income premises existing prior to the development commitment effective date; and

e. The fiber optics system must provide to the city internet access at least 100 locations at no cost to the city as approved by the chief administrative officer and specified in the development commitment.

f. Upon finding that the telecommunications company has demonstrated that its fiber optics system will satisfactorily meet the requirements for qualification as a smart city fiber access system, the chief administrative officer will provide the telecommunications company an initial qualification notice. Upon the issuance of an initial qualification notice, the telecommunications company shall become eligible to enter into a smart city fiber access right-of-way agreement with the city. The effective date of such agreement will be the date of the initial qualification notice or such later date agreed to by the city and the telecommunications company.

g. Notwithstanding any other provision of this article to the contrary, any cable or video system of a cable or video services provider, as defined herein, or of any other telecommunications provider that is covered by Title VI of the Communications Act of 1934, compiled in 47 U.S.C. § 521 et seq., and/or by T.C.A. § 7-59-303, et seq. shall not qualify as a smart city fiber access system unless such cable or video services provider or other entity or person provides services over its cable system or video service system that are associated with or classified as non-cable or non-video services under federal law including but not limited to telecommunications services and internet access services for which it is subject to pay annual right-of-way access fees under City Ordinance Nos. 5551 and 5734. A designation of any cable or video services provider as a smart city fiber access system shall exempt such providers from payment of annual right-of-Way access fees under city Ordinance Nos. 5551 and 5734, if any, but shall not supplant, displace alter or reduce, in whole or part, the authority of the city to collect or the obligation of a cable or video services provider to pay franchise fees on a percentage of such provider's gross revenues derived from the operation of its cable or video service system pursuant federal or state law or pursuant to a separate franchise or right-of-way agreement.

3. Continued qualification as smart city fiber access system.

A fiber optics system that has initially qualified as a smart city fiber access system pursuant to section (D)(2). must meet the following requirements by the dates specified to continue its designation as a smart city fiber access system:

a. By the date two years after the commencement date, the fiber optics system must be available to at least 20 percent of the residential and business premises within the city and at least ten percent of the low-income premises existing within the city prior to the development commitment effective date; and

b. By the date three years after the commencement date, the fiber optics system must be available to at least 40 percent of the residential and business premises within the city and at least 30 percent of the low-income premises existing within the city prior to the development commitment effective date; and

c. By the date four years after the commencement date, the fiber optics system must be available to at least 60 percent of the residential and business premises within the city and at least 60 percent of the low-income premises existing within the city prior to the development commitment effective date; and

d. By the date four years after the commencement date, the fiber optics system must provide to the city internet access at least 100 locations at no cost to the city as designated by the city; and

e. By the date four years after the commencement date, the fiber optics system must have delivered to the city, at no cost to the city, at least 6,000 physical connection points for access by the city at its cost, of which at least one-third shall be located within the Census Tracts encompassing the low-income premises existing prior to the development commitment effective date.

f. The fiber optics system must meet revised minimum service standards one year after receipt of written notice of the city's adoption of each revised minimum service standard.

4. Effect of failure to continue to qualify as a smart city fiber access system.

a. If a fiber optics system that has previously qualified as a smart city fiber access system does not meet one or more of the requirements to continue its designation as a smart city fiber access system, the city may, by written notice to the telecommunications company withdraw the designation as a smart city fiber access system. The city's notice will specify the basis for the city's action and the date, no earlier than 30 days after the notice, when the designation will be withdrawn. The city's notice will notify the telecommunications company of its right to a hearing if the telecommunications company disputes the city's conclusion and action and will specify the procedure to be used to request a hearing, including the deadline for requesting a hearing. The hearing will be held before an official designated by the chief administrative officer. If dissatisfied with the results of the hearing, the telecommunications company may appeal the decision to the chief administrative officer, whose decision will be final.

b. As of the date specified in the city's notice, or at such later date upon which the hearing procedure has been completed, if requested, the fiber optic system's smart fiber access right-of-way agreement will terminate and the fiber optics system will be subject to all requirements of Ordinance 5551, including, without limitation, the fees and charges specified in Ordinance 5734 or any later-enacted ordinance establishing fees and charges applicable to fiber optic systems utilizing the city's public rights-of-way.

5. Re-application after withdrawal of designation as smart city fiber access system.

a. Should the designation of a fiber optics system as a smart city fiber access system be lost as specified in subsection (D)(4), the telecommunications company may re-apply one time for re-designation of its fiber optic system as a smart city fiber access system. The telecommunications company submitting such a re-application will have the burden of demonstrating that its fiber optics system meets all of the requirements for designation as a smart city fiber access system in effect on the date that the re-application is submitted.

c. Upon finding that the telecommunications company has carried its burden of demonstrating that its fiber optics system has satisfactorily met the requirements for re-qualification as a smart city fiber access system, the chief administrative officer will provide the telecommunications company a re-qualification notice. Provided, however, that the chief administrative office may condition the re-designation of the fiber optics system as a smart city fiber access system upon inclusion in the smart city fiber access right-of-way agreement of reasonable reporting requirements and other reasonable conditions that the chief administrative officer deems appropriate to ensure continued compliance with the requirements for a smart city fiber access system. The effective date of the smart city fiber access right-of-way agreement will be the date of the re-qualification notice or such later date agreed to by the city and the telecommunications company. If the chief administrative officer finds that the telecommunication company has not met its burden, the fiber optic system will be denied re-designation as a smart city fiber access system.

C. Fee and other requirements applicable to smart city fiber access system.

1. Smart city fiber access right-of-way agreements. The smart fiber access right-of-way agreements shall include such standard and other terms as the chief administrative officer deems appropriate, including the following provisions applicable only to smart city fiber access systems:

    a. Exemption from paying annual right-of-way access fees for the smart fiber access system approved hereunder during the initial and any renewal term of the smart fiber access right-of-way agreement, except as otherwise provided in subsection (D)(2)(g) of this section.

    b. Payment of permitting and engineering fees normally charged pursuant to applicable ordinances that may be structured and narrowly tailored to the construction schedule and requirements of a telecommunications provider and that are reasonably related to the city's cost to provide engineering services for an applicant's network, the amount of which shall be determined by the director of engineering and subject to a written agreement.

    c. A term of up to 20 years, subject to earlier termination for reasons described in the smart city fiber access right-of-way agreement, including the failure of the fiber optics system to continue to qualify as a smart city fiber access system.

    d. The opportunity to renew the smart city fiber access right-of-way agreement for an additional term of up to 20 years, upon a determination by the chief administrative officer that the fiber optics system continues to qualify as a smart city fiber access system, and subject to approval by resolution adopted by council.

    e. Reporting requirements to enable the city to monitor the smart city fiber access system's compliance with the requirements of subsection (D) hereof.

2. Application of standard non-fee provisions of Ordinance No. 5551 and other right-of-way ordinances. Except as otherwise provided in this section or in a development commitment approved under the authority of this section, the standard non-fee provisions of Ordinance No. 5551 and any other right-of-way ordinances of the city shall continue to apply to any smart city fiber access right-of-way agreement, including but not limited to the power and authority of the city's legislative council, the city's administration of the city's right-of-way, engineering and technical requirements, administrative and insurance requirements, any requirements governing traffic control, safety requirements, removal and relocation of facilities.

3. Application of standard right-of-way agreement terms following termination or expiration of smart city fiber access agreement. If a telecommunication company's fiber optics system continues to occupy any of the rights-of-way of the city following the termination or expiration of a smart city fiber access agreement, the telecommunications company will be required to enter into a standard city right-of-way agreement and will be subject to the fees and other requirements applicable to those using the city right-of-way, including those contained in Ordinance 5551 and Ordinance 5734, as those ordinances may be amended in the future.

D. Low-income access fund.

1. Purpose of fund:

   a. There is hereby created a low-income access fund to help defray or subsidize the costs of a telecommunications provider to provide drops for direct connections to a smart city fiber access system for qualifying low-income premises ("Drop Subsidy") to be disbursed to telecommunications providers operating an approved smart city fiber access system on a first-come first served basis up to one-half of the documented cost per drop.

   b. The low-income access fund shall also defray the internal costs of the city to provide outreach and educational programs, either directly and/or through third-party contractors, to help eligible low-income and disadvantaged Memphians access private, city and federal broadband subsidy programs that would aid them in obtaining and maintaining a home broadband connection to a smart city fiber access system. ("Outreach and Educational Subsidy").

2. Initial funding: The council hereby approves a one-time allocation of $7,000,000.00 from available funds of the city to be identified by the city administration and appropriated by resolution of the council as follows:

   a. $3.5 million for the drop subsidy;

   b. $3.5 million for the outreach and educational subsidy.

   If additional funds are contributed voluntarily by individuals, businesses, other governmental entities or non-profit organizations to subsidized drops or outreach/education programs, such funds shall be appropriated by the council equally to augment the drop subsidy and the outreach and educational subsidy or as directed by the donating entity.

3. Administration and accounting. The low income subsidy fund shall be maintained and accounted for by the city as a separate discrete fund to be used until all monies therein are exhausted and only for the purposes specified in this section, unless otherwise provided by the council by resolution, in accordance with procedures and rules promulgated by the city administration.

Upon adoption of this chapter and subsequent Franchise Licensing Ordinances, the Mayor and those acting at his direction are hereby authorized, empowered and directed to implement the provisions of this chapter and any subsequent Franchise Licensing Ordinances adopted by the council from time to time and to take any and all other steps they deem necessary or appropriate to implement this chapter and any subsequent Franchise Licensing Ordinances adopted by the council from time to time.

When new utility installations within the city's streets and rights-of-way are of such magnitude and complexity as to require extensive inspectional services by the city engineer to ascertain that all provisions of the city's requirements are carried out, the city engineer shall assign one or more inspectors, either city employees or specially employed engineering contractors, to the inspect the installation periodically and if necessary place one or more inspectors on the site for the duration of construction activities. By accepting the right-of-way agreement, a utility owner or utility company shall agree to reimburse the city for said inspector's salary, inclusive of benefits, or compensation, equipment used and miscellaneous expenses incurred applicable to the installation of the utility facilities. The necessity for such inspectional services will be determined by the city engineer on a case by case basis and his decision shall be conclusive and final.

F. The city engineer shall have the authority to reject substandard work or materials and/or to suspend or stop work, in whole or part, where the utility company fails to comply with any requirement of this chapter or the terms of the right-of-way agreement or where any unsafe or hazardous condition exists unless and until corrective measures have been made to the satisfaction of the city engineer.

G. Any expansion that would enable the increase in the size, pressure or capacity of existing crude or refined products oil pipelines in the public rights-of-way shall require any utility owner or utility company who is subject to the provisions of this chapter to obtain a new or amended right-of-way agreement or permit using the procedures outlined in this chapter for new applications.

H. This chapter shall not apply to any telecommunications provider governed by Ordinance No. 5551 or to cable television services as defined under the Cable Communications Act of 1984, as amended by the Cable Television Consumer Protection and Competition Act of 1992, and/or any authorization granted by the city pursuant to said Act or to any broadband internet provider or video service provider as defined in the Tennessee Competitive Cable and Video Services Act.

(Ord. No. 5807, 11-16-2021)

Sec. 6-25-7. Right-of-way agreement requirements.

Each right-of-way agreement for the installation of utility facilities within city's rights-of-way shall be subject to this chapter and specifically, but without limitation, to the following terms and conditions:

A. Assignment. The utility company and/or utility owner may not assign or transfer its rights or obligations under the right-of-way agreement to another utility company or other entity or person without first giving written notice to, and obtaining the consent of, the city, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld.

B. Indemnification and hold harmless.

1. Each utility owner or utility company shall indemnify the City of Memphis and their officers, employees and agents, and hold them harmless to the maximum extent allowed under Tennessee law for any and all claims arising from the utility company's use of the city's right-of-way to install, operate and/or maintain utility facilities, including claims by third parties for any personal injury or property damage, including interruption of service or loss of business, incurred by such third parties, and including attorneys' fees and all other costs of preparing for and defending against such claims, regardless of any negligence or fault of the City of Memphis. The city may require that the utility company maintain liability insurance in such amounts that the city deems sufficient to satisfy claims made against the city and/or the utility company arising from the negligence or fault of the utility company.

2. Without limiting the foregoing, the utility company shall hold the City of Memphis, and their officers, employees and agents, harmless, to the maximum extent allowed under Tennessee law, for any personal injury or property damage, including interruption of service or loss of business, incurred by the utility company, or its officers, employees or agents, arising from the City of Memphis' construction, reconstruction, operation or maintenance of the city's right-of-way, regardless of any negligence or fault of the City of Memphis.

3. The city agrees to give grantee prompt and reasonable notice of any claims or lawsuits; and grantee shall have the right to investigate, compromise, intervene and defend same to the extent of its own interest. The above indemnification shall not apply to any judgment of liability resulting from the gross negligence or willful misconduct of the city. The terms and provisions contained in this subsection are intended to be for the benefit of the city and grantee, and are not intended to be for the benefit of any third party. The city shall have the right to participate or conduct the defense of its interests in any proceeding, and thereby assume risks and liabilities for its own acts or omissions.

C. Insurance. Each utility owner or utility company shall at all times have and maintain, and upon the request of the city shall provide written proof of liability insurance policies containing, at a minimum, the following insurance coverage:

1. All such liability insurance policies shall provide liability coverage sufficient, at a minimum, to match the city limits of liability under city ordinances. These minimum limits are currently set at $1,000,000.00 combined single limit, bodily injury and for real property damage in any one occurrence and $5,000,000.00 aggregate.

2. Grantee shall also file with the city a certificate of insurance for a comprehensive automobile liability insurance policy written by a company authorized to do business in the State of Tennessee, for all owned, non-owned, hired and leased vehicles operated by grantee, with limits no less than $1,000,000.00 each accident, single limit, bodily injury and property damage combined, or evidence of self-insurance.

3. Grantee shall also maintain and specifically agrees that it will maintain throughout the term of the authorization, workers compensation and employers liability, valid in the State, in the minimum amount of the statutory limit for workers compensation.

4. All liability insurance required pursuant to this section shall be kept in full force and effect by grantee during the term of any right-of-way agreement or other authorization and until after the removal of utility systems installed by grantee in the public rights-of-way incident to the maintenance and operation of the utility system as defined in this chapter.

5. All policy limits set forth herein are subject to change by order of the city's chief administrative officer without amendment of this chapter.

6. All such liability insurance policies shall name the City of Memphis as an additional insured for the purposes of fulfilling the utility company's obligations under the use and occupancy agreement, including without limitation any and all obligations to indemnify and hold harmless the City of Memphis, and their officers, employees and agents. All policies shall be endorsed to give the city 30 days' written notice of the intent to amend or cancel by either grantee or the insuring company.

D. Surety bond. Each utility owner or utility company shall furnish a surety bond, issued by a company licensed to do business in the State of Tennessee, and in such form and amount acceptable to the city, guaranteeing full and faithful performance of the terms and conditions of the right-of-way agreement, including without limitation the repair and restoration of the right-of-way premises, the payment of any monetary compensation remaining due to the city for use of the city's streets and rights-of way, the completion of any installation or relocation of utility facilities and the removal of any facilities upon abandonment or termination of use thereof by such utility owner or utility company.

E. Relocation or removal.

1. If, at any time, the city determines that any utility facilities need to be relocated within, or removed from, the city's streets and rights-of-way for any reason related to the use, operation, maintenance, construction, reconstruction, modification or redesign of any such streets and rights-of-way, the utility company or utility owner shall relocate or remove the facilities as directed by written notice from the city engineer.

2. All such costs of relocation or removal shall be borne solely by the utility company or utility owner and not by the city, except as the city may otherwise agree in accordance with a special condition of the right-of-way agreement executed prior to the installation, or as the city may subsequently agree in writing under a utility relocation contract.

3. Each utility owner or utility company shall complete the relocation or removal within such time as the city shall specify by written notice, or within such additional time as the city engineer may authorize in writing. Upon the failure of a utility owner or utility company to relocate or remove the utility facilities within the specified time, or such additional time as the city engineer may authorize in writing, the utility facilities shall be deemed to be abandoned by the utility company or utility owner, and the city shall be deemed the owner thereof; provided, however, that the city, in its sole discretion, may refuse ownership of the abandoned utility facilities at any time within one year after the abandonment and thereupon hold the utility owner or utility company liable for the costs of removing such facilities from the city's streets and rights-of-way.

4. To the extent that a utility owner or utility company is required to remove utility cable facilities from the city's streets and rights-of-way, the utility owner or utility company shall to that extent be relieved of any further obligation under the right-of-way agreement to compensate the city for the use of the city's streets and rights-of-way. To the extent that a utility owner or utility company is allowed to relocate utility facilities to another location within the city's streets and rights-of-way, the utility owner or utility company may elect either to remain under the terms of compensation specified in the right-of-way agreement, or the utility owner or utility company may choose to enter into a new right-of-way agreement for the new location.

F. Duration and renewal of right-of-way agreements.

1. Initial term. The right-of-way agreement for the installation of utility facilities within city's streets and rights-of-way shall have an initial term of up to 20 years as the council may approve.

2. Renewal options. Upon the expiration of the initial term of the use and occupancy agreement, the utility owner or utility company shall have an option to renew the right-of-way agreement for one additional term of five years, or longer term approved by the city council, but shall be subject to the applicable rate of compensation in effect as of the date of renewal. In no event shall any initial term or any successive renewal term exceed a combined total of 30 years.

(Ord. No. 5807, 11-16-2021)

Sec. 6-25-8. Compensation.

A. Compensation requirement.

1. No utility company or utility owner shall be permitted to install underground utility facilities within city's streets and rights-of-way except upon the payment of compensation for the use and occupation of such rights-of-way, as adopted by the Memphis City Council from time to time.

2. The city may, at its option, may receive the compensation for use of city's streets and rights-of-way in the form of money or as in-kind compensation in the form of Utility facilities or services, or both.

B. Rate and method of compensation.

1. The rate of monetary compensation shall be as established by the Memphis City Council from time to time by ordinance for such time periods determined by the council by affixing an addendum to this chapter. In establishing the monetary rate of fair and reasonable compensation for use and occupation of city's streets and rights-of-way, the city council shall consider the following factors:

a. The city's costs in regulating the right-of-way activities of utility companies and utility owners,

b. The extent the city's streets and rights-of-way are used and occupied by such companies and owners,

c. The proportionate share of the city's cost of making and keeping in repair and policing the city's streets and rights-of-way to be assigned to such companies and owners in order to defray the total amount of the city's right-of-way costs to provide right-of-way services to such companies and owners,

d. The cost of providing the benefit to such companies and owners of the use and occupation of the city's streets and rights-of-way for installation of their utility facilities, including, but not limited to, savings on construction costs due to ease of installation in established rights-of-way conveniently located in close proximity to their customers and businesses, comparable rates charged for the use and access, the amount of right-of-way available in certain locations and demand for certain locations. Information pertaining to these factors shall be presented to the city administration and by any other interested parties.

e. Any other factors the council deems relevant.

C. Total amount of compensation. The total amount of compensation due for use of the right-of-way shall be fixed as of the date of execution of the right-of-way agreement, in accordance with the rate and method of valuation of in-kind compensation established by the city council and in effect at that time.

D. Unit measure of compensation.

1. Compensation shall be stated and computed on a measured unit of right-of-way used by a utility owner or utility company and may be based (i) on the cubic feet of right-of-way such provider occupies in the public right-of-way, including clearance zones required by this chapter or by applicable industry and safety standards or (ii) on a unit charge for each linear foot of pipe five inches or less in diameter that such provider occupies in the public right-of-way, including clearance zones required by this chapter or by applicable industry and safety standards as the city may elect.

2. The linear foot charge shall be calculated on a pro rata basis. For example, the charge for a ten inch pipe in diameter shall be two times the charge for one five inch pipe.

(Ord. No. 5807, 11-16-2021)

Sec. 6-25-9. General installation policies and procedures.

A. Timing of installations. To minimize interference with the safe use, operation and maintenance of the right-of-way, and as reasonably necessary to manage the right-of-way, the city engineer may limit the timing of access so that, to the extent possible, there is no more than one utility cable installation project underway at any given time on any particular segment of a state freeway.

B. Location and alignment criteria.

1. General location policy. To minimize interference with the safe use, operation and maintenance of the city's streets, longitudinal installations of utility systems and facilities shall be located outside the travelled way and as near to the outer edge of the right-of-way line as is reasonably practical; provided, however, that alternative locations within the right-of-way, including the travelled way, may be permitted where the city engineer determines that it is not reasonably practical to locate the utility systems and facilities along the outer edge of the right-of-way and that the use of the alternative location is consistent with the city's goal to minimize interference with the safe use, operation and maintenance of the streets and highways.

2. Horizontal and vertical clearance zones. As a general rule, subsequent installations of underground utility systems and facilities outside the travelled way shall be located not less than three feet from any previously installed utility system or other utility installation, if any, within the city's right-of-way or such greater clearance zones required by utility codes as they relate to electrical, water, gas or sewer systems. Exceptions may be considered on a case-by-case basis and as may be reasonably necessary to manage the city's right-of-way.

3. Depth. All underground utility systems and facilities shall be located and installed in accordance with a minimum depth of 36 inches, or at such greater depths as the city engineer may require as a special condition of a right-of-way agreement or as shall be necessary to comply with the horizontal and vertical clearance zone requirement.

4. Access points. Devices for accessing underground utility systems and facilities for routine service or site visits shall not be allowed within the travelled way, except as the city engineer may otherwise expressly permit or require.

5. Support facilities. All above-ground support facilities for underground utility systems and facilities shall be located outside the travelled way and as near to the outer edge of the right-of-way line as is reasonably practical. No above-ground facility may be located on the city's right-of-way without the express written approval of the city engineer.

6. Attachment to roadway and roadside structures. The attachment of utility systems and facilities to roadway and roadside structures — including without limitation bridges, overpasses, underpasses, culverts and tunnels — shall be permitted only with the prior written approval of the city engineer.

Sec. 6-25-10. Installation and maintenance requirements.

A. General standards of care.

1. A utility owner or utility company shall take care not to install any utility system in such a manner as to create a potential hazard to life, health or property or in such a manner as to impair the use, operation and maintenance of the city's rights-of-way.

2. The utility company shall cooperate with the city engineer to identify locations for its utility system or facilities within the city's right-of-way that will, to the extent it is reasonably practical, minimize any potential conflict with the future expansion or reconstruction of the right-of-way.

B. Tennessee One-Call Service. Utility companies, utilities and private entities accessing the city's rights-of-way shall comply with the Tennessee One-Call Service as provided in T.C.A. § 65-31-107, or as it may be amended.

C. Permits and approvals. The utility company shall be responsible for obtaining all approvals and/or permits that may be required for activities authorized under this rule, including without limitation all environmental permits and federal regulatory approvals or permits, if applicable.

(Ord. No. 5807, 11-16-2021)

Sec. 6-25-11. Minimum installation and maintenance controls.

The following minimum controls shall apply to the installation, servicing and maintenance of all utility cable facilities within state freeway rights-of-way, in addition to such other requirements as the city engineer may provide as a general or special condition of the right-of-way agreement:

A. Installation and maintenance plan. Before commencing any installation, servicing or maintenance of a utility system, the utility owner or utility company shall submit an installation and maintenance plan to the city engineer for review and approval, and upon approval such plan shall be made a part of the right-of-way agreement. At a minimum, the installation and maintenance plan shall specify:

1. The location and method of installing each part of the Utility Systems and facilities within the right-of-way;

2. The means by which access to and within the right-of-way shall be accomplished for the purpose of installing, servicing and maintaining each part of the utility systems and facilities, including provisions for ingress and egress, parking of vehicles and equipment, and storage of materials;

3. The means by which the utility company will provide for the control of traffic on the travelled way, if needed, in the course of installing, servicing or maintaining any part of the utility systems and facilities;

4. The schedule for completing the installation of the utility systems and facilities, or parts thereof, within the right-of-way; and

5. The procedure by which the utility company will conduct emergency maintenance operations within the right-of-way.

B. Preservation of pavement structure. Open cutting or trenching of the pavement structure of a street, highway or roadway, including without limitation the traveled way and shoulders, if any, shall not be permitted. Wherever the city engineer permits a crossing of the pavement structure of a street, highway or roadway in accordance with this chapter, the crossing shall be accomplished by boring or other untrenched method as approved by the city engineer.

C. Access to right-of-way for installation and maintenance.

1. As far as it is reasonably practical, all utility facilities should be designed and located in such a manner that they can be installed, serviced and maintained without direct access thereto from the traveled way. Such direct access may be permitted in special circumstances where there is no reasonably practical alternative means of access and the utility company has made adequate provisions for controlling access to the work zone, directing traffic, and protecting the safety of workers and the traveling public, as specified in the installation and maintenance plan approved by the city engineer.

D. Parking of vehicles. The utility company shall not be permitted to park vehicles and equipment or to store materials on the right-of-way without express prior approval by the city engineer. In no case shall the utility company be permitted to park vehicles and equipment or store materials within the clear zone of the right-of-way, except as may be required during actual installation operations within the clear zone and while all required traffic control is present and in place.

E. Traffic control.

1. All traffic control signs or other traffic control devices that the utility company may use in the course of any installation, servicing or maintenance of a utility facility shall comply with the procedures used by the city engineer regarding traffic control devices.

2. In addition, the utility company shall arrange for law enforcement officers having appropriate enforcement authority to be present to ensure the safe flow of traffic whenever any installation, servicing or maintenance of a utility facility occurs within the clear zone of the freeway or as may be required in the installation and maintenance plan approved by the city engineer where access to the work zone has been permitted from the traveled way, shoulders or access ramps of the freeway. The utility company may not conduct any such work within the right-of-way without giving specific advance notice thereof to the city engineer.

3. Advance notice of installation or maintenance work. Before performing any non-emergency servicing or maintenance of a utility facility at any location within the freeway right-of-way and before performing any installation of a utility facility within the clear zone or where access to the utility work zone has been permitted from the traveled way, shoulders or access ramps of the freeway, the utility company shall give at least five work days advance notice thereof to the city engineer.

F. Emergency maintenance or repair. The utility company shall notify the appropriate regional director of the city engineer as soon as possible, and in any event not more than 24 hours, after the occurrence of an event requiring emergency maintenance or repair of a utility facility within the city's right-of-way, or as otherwise specified in the installation and maintenance plan approved by the city engineer.

G. Cessation of work for public safety. If the utility company fails to comply with the traffic control plan or any other provision of the installation and maintenance plan, or if any activity of the utility company within the city's right-of-way interferes with the safe and efficient use of the travelled way as determined by the city engineer, the utility company shall immediately cease such activity upon notice being given by the city engineer, and the utility company shall thereafter work with the city engineer to bring its activities into compliance with the installation and maintenance plan and/or implement such additional safety requirements as may be specified by the city engineer.

H. Trees. The cutting or removal of trees along the freeway right-of-way shall not be permitted without the express approval of the city engineer.

I. Hazardous substances. No utility owner or utility company shall place, install or deposit any hazardous substance or hazardous waste within or on any part of the state freeway or state freeway right-of-way. If at any time a utility owner or utility company causes or allows a spill of a hazardous waste or substance within the freeway right-of-way, the utility owner or utility company shall remain solely liable for the clean-up and removal of such hazardous waste or substance. The utility owner or utility company shall indemnify the City of Memphis and city engineer, and their officers, employees and agents, and shall hold them harmless against any and all claims or expenses of any kind related to the deposit, spillage and/or clean-up of any such hazardous wastes or substances.

J. Above-ground markers. The utility company shall install permanent above-ground markers indicating the location of its underground utility systems and facilities at such intervals as the city engineer may approve or require in the installation and maintenance plan. These markers shall not interfere with the safe use, operation and maintenance of the freeway, nor shall they constitute a hazard to the traveling public.

K. Repair and restoration of premises.

1. The utility owner or utility company shall, as directed by and in a manner satisfactory to the city engineer, promptly replace or repair any portion of the pavement, shoulders, structures, ramps, guardrail, drainage, or any other part of the right-of-way that may have been damaged in the course of any work within the right-of-way.
2. Upon the completion of any installation, replacement, repair or relocation of utility facilities within the rights-of-way, the utility company shall promptly restore the premises to a condition similar to that which existed prior to such work, in a manner satisfactory to the city engineer.
3. The utility owner or utility company shall remain responsible for maintaining any excavation or trench on or along the state freeway right-of-way, as directed by and in a manner satisfactory to the city engineer.

L. As-built drawings. "As-built" drawings that adequately demonstrate the location, size length and nature of all underground and aboveground utility systems located on, over or under the city's right-of-way shall be submitted by a utility owner or utility company to the city engineer in such format as he shall direct within 120 days after completion of construction of such systems. A utility owner or utility company shall update such drawings within 60 days whenever material changes are made to such company's system which impact the public right-of-way. Said drawings, set forth by utility quarter sections, shall at a minimum include cable routings and the location of amplifiers, power supplies and system monitor test points.

M. Completion of any installation or relocation. It shall be the responsibility of the utility owner or utility company to seasonably submit "as built" drawings of its facilities in the city's right-of-way and to provide other information upon request.

(Ord. No. 5807, 11-16-2021)

Sec. 6-25-12. Compliance and revocation.

A. In the event that the city engineer determines that the utility company is in violation of any provision of this chapter or any right-of-way agreement, the city engineer may order the utility owner or utility company to comply.

B. In any case not presenting any imminent threat to public safety, as determined by the city engineer, the utility owner or utility company shall be given 30 days, or such other reasonable time as the city engineer may provide, within which to correct the noncompliance.

C. In any case presenting an imminent threat to public safety, as determined by the city engineer, the utility owner or utility company shall correct the noncompliance promptly as directed by the city engineer.

D. If a utility owner or utility company fails to comply with any order or directive given by the city engineer or otherwise violates any provision of this chapter, after the above-stated notice and opportunity to cure, then the city may take any action authorized by law, including revocation, withholding of all other licenses and permits until the violation is cured, or repeal of any permit or authorization previously granted or filing a suit in court to compel compliance. If, in any such proceeding, default is finally established, the utility owner or utility company shall be required to pay to the city the reasonable expenses incurred in the prosecution of such suit and all the city's damages and costs (including attorneys' fees). A utility owner or utility company that in good faith disputes a finding that it is in default, and that promptly files a court proceeding challenging the determination may continue to provide service pursuant to the terms of any permit or authorization unless otherwise ordered by the court.

E. A violation of the provisions of this article after the above-stated notice and opportunity to cure shall subject the offending utility owner or utility company to an initial fine of $50.00. Each day of continued violation of this chapter constitutes a separate offense and will subject the offending utility owner or utility company to continuing fines, above the initial fine, of $50.00 per day for each day that the a utility owner or utility company fails to comply with any order or directive given by the city engineer to comply with any provision of this chapter.

F. A utility owner or utility company shall not be entitled to any compensation, lost profits, consequential damages or reimbursement of suit expenses or attorney's fees in the event of a revocation of a right-of-way agreement or enforcement action taken by the city to enforce this chapter.

G. Upon the revocation of a right-of-way agreement, the utility owner or utility company shall promptly remove any utility systems located on, over or under the city's right-of-way, in such manner and within such time as the city engineer may direct. If the utility company fails to remove the utility systems within the time directed, the utility systems may be deemed to be abandoned by the utility company, and the city shall be deemed the owner thereof; provided, however, that the city engineer, in its sole discretion, may refuse ownership of the abandoned utility systems at any time within one year after the abandonment and thereupon hold the utility company liable for the costs of removing such facilities from the city's right-of-way.
(Ord. No. 5807, 11-16-2021)

Sec. 6-25-13. Right-of-way fund.

A. There is hereby created a right-of-way fund, which shall be used exclusively to help defray the costs associated with the management of the rights-of-way, including but not limited to the costs of preparing studies of the right-of-way and costs of any special committee and the costs of staff and other reasonable expenses necessary to administer the provisions of this chapter.

B. All payments for the use of the right-of-way made pursuant to this chapter shall be deposited into the fund, less reasonable administrative costs incurred by the city in connection with the collection of fees owed.

C. Operating transfers shall be made from this fund to other funds of the city incurring costs associated with right-of-way management. Such operating transfers will be established in accordance with the city's annual appropriation ordinance.

A. 1. No person shall acquire, construct, expand, reconstruct, maintain, use and operate in, along, across, on, over, through, above and under the public streets, alleys and rights-of-way of the city, directly or indirectly, a telecommunications system without first obtaining a nonexclusive, revocable franchise from the city. Except to the extent that the federal or state government acquires or assumes exclusive jurisdiction over the regulation of fiber optic or other telecommunications franchises, grantee shall agree that shall it shall not now or at any time after a franchise agreement is granted challenge this city's right to regulate any grantee's use of the public rights-of-way or to be compensated, as hereinafter provided, for the use of public rights-of-way in any state or federal court. Accordingly, any franchise granted hereunder shall remain in full force and effect as a binding contract between the grantee and the city. Notwithstanding the foregoing, grantee is not prohibited from challenging the city's arbitrary and capricious exercise of its police powers in the regulation of any franchisee's use of the public rights-of-way hereunder.

2. Grantee acquires and accepts only such rights and privileges as the city has authority to grant. The city shall not be liable or responsible in any way or for any sum paid to it on account of, or in consequence of, a deficit or defect of any lawful power or authority to grant a telecommunications franchise, but grantee assumes all risks of lack of any lawful power in the city with respect to such payments.

B. Franchise grant conditions and terms.

1. A franchise granted hereunder, and all renewals, extensions and amendments hereof shall be granted only by ordinance. No such ordinance shall be adopted before an application therefor has been filed with the council through the city's chief administrative officer on forms promulgated by the city's chief administrative officer and approved by the council. Prior to adoption of any franchise ordinance the council may, from time to time, request such other information as it deems appropriate.

2. Grantee shall not provide cable services or operate a cable system as defined in the Cable Television Consumer Protection and Competition Act of 1992 (47 USCA 521 et seq., as amended) or as recognized by the FCC without first obtaining a separate cable franchise from the city and shall not allow the use of the system by a cable system that has not been granted a franchise by the city. Nor shall any provider of cable services or grantee of cable television service operate or provide a telecommunications franchise pursuant to this chapter, unless a separate telecommunication franchise is obtained from the city.

3. Grantee shall not provide services directly regulated by the TRA under the laws of Tennessee unless duly authorized by the TRA or by any successor entity.

4. Except as permitted by section 6-28-25, any franchise granted hereunder shall be granted to

Sec. 6-28-4. Application of other laws.

A. Construction.

1. Grantee shall have no authority to locate or construct any part of its system in the public rights-of-way under this chapter; provided, however, grantee shall be permitted to connect its system to existing systems operated and maintained telecommunication franchisees of the city (other than resellers), who have been granted the nonexclusive privilege to occupy or use the streets and/or public rights-of-way for the construction, operation and maintenance of a fiber optic and/or other telecommunications systems. Grantee shall also be allowed to perform limited construction in the streets and/or public rights-of-way, which is incidental to its connection to existing telecommunication systems.

2. Issuance of a permit by any agency of the city as to the construction and installation of any portion of grantee's system does not waive other applicable requirements of federal or state law, and grantee shall comply with such other legal requirements.

B. Subject to police power.

1. The construction, expansion, reconstruction, excavation, use, maintenance and operation of any system shall be subject to all lawful police regulations of the city and performed in accordance with all ordinances, laws, resolutions and regulations of the city for utility location and excavation in public rights-of-way presently in effect or hereafter adopted.

2. Nothing in this chapter shall be construed as preventing the city, whenever it shall be empowered by applicable state and federal law to do so, from fixing or regulating the rates, rentals, charges, services, facilities and equipment of grantee or from exercising general supervision and regulation of, jurisdiction and control over a telecommunication franchise, the grantee, and its property, property rights, facilities and franchises located within the city. B. Interference with persons, improvements, public and private property and utilities. Grantee's system and facilities, including poles, lines, equipment and all appurtenances, shall be located, erected and maintained so that such facilities shall not:

1. Endanger or interfere with the health, safety or lives of persons;

2. Interfere with any improvements the city or state may deem proper to make;

3. Interfere with the free and proper use of public streets, alleys, bridges, easements or other public ways, places or property, except to the minimum extent possible during actual construction or repair;

4. Interfere with the rights and reasonable convenience of private property owners, except to the minimum extent possible during actual construction or repair; or

5. Obstruct, hinder or interfere with any gas, electric, water or telephone facilities or other utilities within the city.

C. Protect structures. In connection with the construction, operation, maintenance, repair or removal of the system, the grantee shall, at its own cost and expense, protect any and all existing structures and improvements, including landscaping and trees belonging to the city, and all designated historical landmarks, as well as all other structures within any designated historical district. The grantee shall obtain the prior approval of the city before altering or crossing any water main, sewerage or drainage system, or any other municipal, state or federally owned structure in the streets required because of the presence of the system in the streets. Any such alteration shall be made by the grantee at its own cost and expense, and in a manner prescribed by the city. The grantee shall be liable, at its own cost and expense, to replace or repair and restore to serviceable condition a manner as may be specified by the city, any street or any municipal, state or federally owned structure involved in the construction of the system that may become disturbed or damaged as a result of any work thereon by or on behalf of the grantee pursuant to its franchise.

D. Erection, removal and use of poles. No poles shall be erected by grantee without prior approval of the city with regard to location, height, types and any other pertinent aspect. However, no location of any pole or wire-holding structure of grantee shall give rise to a vested interest, and such pole or structures shall be removed or modified by grantee at its own expense whenever the city determines that the public convenience would be enhanced thereby. Approval under this section shall require the prior written approval of the city engineer.

E. Upon request of the city or other authority of competent jurisdiction, grantee shall remove and abate any portion of the system or any facility that is dangerous to life or property, and in case grantee, after ten days' written notice from the city engineer, fails or refuses to act, the city may remove, relocate or abate the same, at the sole cost and expense of grantee, all without compensation or liability for damages to grantee; provided, however, grantee may recover damages sustained by it from any person other than the city who relocates, removes or abates any such grantee facility negligently or without the city engineer giving ten days' written notice to grantee authorizing such other person to relocate or remove grantee's facilities on behalf of the city.

Sec. 6-28-6. Suspension or revocation of construction permit.

The city engineer may suspend or revoke any permit issued by the city or take any action he or she deems necessary, including the stopping of work, should grantee violate the terms of the permit, until the violation has been corrected to the city engineer's satisfaction.

Sec. 6-28-7. Adjustment of utility facilities.

In the event that the location of grantee's system will require an adjustment of the location of existing public or private utility facilities, grantee must obtain written consent of the owner of such utility, including, where applicable, all relevant city departments to such adjustment and make such arrangements for the payment or reimbursement of the cost of such adjustment as are satisfactory to the owner of such utility, including, where applicable, all relevant city departments. No permit for construction will be issued until the city engineer is satisfied that the requirements of this section have been satisfied. In no case shall grantee be entitled to perform such adjustment or disturb such utility facilities without the written consent of the owner of such utility.

Sec. 6-28-8. Adjoining property owners.

All of grantee's system shall be so installed and located so as to cause minimum interference with the rights and appearance and reasonable convenience of adjoining property owners and all times shall be kept and maintained in a safe, adequate and substantial condition, and in good order and repair. Grantee shall at all times employ reasonable care, and shall install and maintain in use commonly accepted methods and devices for preventing failures and accidents which are likely to cause damage, injuries or nuisances to the public.
(Code 1985, § 10-144; Ord. No. 4398, § 9, 11-19-1996)

Sec. 6-28-9. Emergency or disaster.

In case of emergency or disaster, grantee shall, upon request of the city, make available its facilities to the city, without cost, for emergency use.
(Code 1985, § 10-145; Ord. No. 4398, § 10, 11-19-1996)

Sec. 6-28-10. Moving wires.

The city may, at any time, in case of fire, disaster or other emergency, as determined by the city in its reasonable discretion, cut or move any other optical fibers, wires, cable, amplifiers, appliances, or other parts of the system in the streets or in city buildings, in which event the city shall not be liable therefor to the grantee.

Sec. 6-28-11. Temporary removal of facilities for demolition of buildings.

Upon the request of a person holding a permit issued by the city for the moving or demolition of a building, and at least ten days' notice, grantee shall temporarily raise, lower or remove its facilities to permit the removal or demolition of such building. The expense of such temporary removing, raising or lowering of facilities shall be paid by the person requesting the same and grantee shall have the authority to require such payment in advance; provided, however, that no payment (direct or indirect) shall be required of the city.

Sec. 6-28-12. Removal of city property.

No property of the city is to be removed from the right-of-way, including signage on utility poles, without prior written approval from the city.
(Code 1985, § 10-148; Ord. No. 4398, § 13, 11-19-1996)

Sec. 6-28-13. Reservation of rights.

The city reserves the right to exercise its police and/or proprietary powers to modify, vacate or transfer any right-of-way in use grantee for a public purpose. At grantee's own risk, the city has the predominant right to use its right-of-way in the placement, maintenance and repair of sewers, water mains and other public utility franchises or to relocate or remove grantee's system where the city determines that the public convenience and/or necessity would be enhanced or for any other public purpose, including, but not limited to the use of any public right-of-way used by grantee for public transportation purposes. Grantee shall make no claims for costs or damages against the city by reason of such removal or relocation. Upon 30 days' written notice to grantee, grantee shall remove, modify, replace or relocate its facilities as required at its own expense. In the event grantee does not remove, modify, replace or relocate its facilities as required by the notice within 30 days as aforesaid, the city engineer may cause the same to be done at grantee's expense and all expenses incurred or damages paid by the city on account of such action shall be paid by grantee on demand. Grantee shall remove, replace or modify, at its own expense, the installation of any of its facilities as may be deemed necessary by any other appropriate governmental authority to meet such authority's proper responsibilities. In the event the city exercises its predominant right to use any public right-of-way used by grantee for a public purpose, the city shall reasonably cooperate with grantee in finding an alternate site for any telecommunications facilities removed and in avoiding disruption to grantee's telecommunications system to the extent not reasonably required by the city. In an emergency, as determined by the city engineer, the city may order grantee to remove or relocate its facilities within 48 hours. If the city exercises any of its rights pursuant to this section, grantee shall have the option, upon notice to the city engineer, of abandoning the portion of its telecommunications system to be so removed or relocated and deleting such portion from the public right-of-way.

Sec. 6-28-14. Abandonment of right-of-way.

In the event that the city shall close or abandon any public street, alley or right-of-way, which contains any portion of grantee's system, any conveyance of land contained in such closed or abandoned public street, alley, highway or right-of-way shall be subject to the rights herein granted.
(Code 1985, § 10-150; Ord. No. 4398, § 15, 11-19-1996)

Sec. 6-28-15. Relocation of the system.

A. New grade or lines. If the grades or lines of any street on which any system is placed are changed at any time during the term of the franchise, then the grantee shall, at its own cost and expense and upon the request of the city, protect or promptly alter or relocate grantee's system, or any affected part thereof, so as to conform with such new grades or lines. In the event that the grantee refuses or neglects to so protect, alter or relocate all or part of its system, the city shall have the right to break through, move, alter or relocate such part of grantee's system, without any liability to the city, and the grantee shall pay to the city the costs incurred in connection with such breaking through, removing, altering or relocating.

B. Relocation of right-of-way. Wherever a public right-of-way or other public property is being constructed, paved (whether or not such paving is part of a more extensive improvement project), resurfaced, relocated or otherwise altered or improved (including, but not limited to, the installation of sidewalk, curb, gutter, drainage facilities, water mains, or sewer mains, traffic signals or trees), grantee shall, within 90 days of written notice from the city engineer, and at no cost (direct or indirect) to the city, remove or relocate any grantee facility located within the public right-of-way or public property or perform such work as it deems necessary for the extension of new facilities, except that grantee may recover from any other person other than the city who relocates any such grantee facility without 90 days' written notice from the city engineer authorizing such other person to relocate or remove grantee's facilities. The relocation or extension of new facilities shall be to a location approved by the city. Failure to obtain the city's approval of the location of facilities relocated under this section will be considered a forfeiture under section 6-28-30. Grantee shall be responsible for any damage it causes to property, including image to trees and other landscaping, as a result of the relocation or removal of facilities.

C. Time limit liquidated damages.

1. Failure of grantee to remove or relocate the facility to a location approved by the city within 90 days of the city's written notice shall entitle the city to recover liquidated damages from grantee. The liquidated damages for failure to remove or relocate a facility shall not exceed $250.00 per diem.

2. If grantee believes it will be unable to complete the relocation within 90 days from receipt of notice from the city, grantee shall explain the reasons for its inability in detail and the city and grantee shall attempt to agree on an alternate schedule, subject, however, to the city's right to finally determine the schedule and liquidated damages, as long as grantee's explanation is not unreasonable, grantee shall be excused.

Sec. 6-28-16. Bonds.

A. Grantee shall obtain and maintain, at its sole cost and expense, and file with the division of finance and administration, a corporate surety bond with a surety company authorized to do business in the State of Tennessee and found acceptable by the city attorney, in the amount of $100,000.00, both to guarantee the timely construction and full capability of grantee's system, and to secure grantee's performance of its obligations and faithful adherence to all requirements of this chapter. On and after June 30, 2000, the city reserves the right to impose a reasonable bond requirement applicable to all telecommunication franchisees to secure grantee's performance of its obligations and faithful adherence to all of the requirements of this chapter. Grantee shall provide this corporate surety bond at the time of execution of a written acceptance of a franchise agreement as required by section 6-28-22.

B. The rights reserved to the city with respect to the bond are in addition to all other rights of the city, whether reserved by this chapter or authorized by law; and no action, proceeding or exercise or a right with respect to such bond shall affect any other right the city may have.

C. The bond shall contain the following endorsement:

> "It is hereby understood and agreed that this bond may not be cancelled by the surety nor any intention not to renew be exercised by the surety until 60 days after receipt by the city, by registered mail, of written notice of such intent."

Sec. 6-28-17. Insurance requirements.

A. On or before the effective date of a franchise granted hereunder, grantee shall file with the city a certificate of insurance and thereafter maintain in full force and effect at all times for the full term of the franchise, at the expense of grantee, a comprehensive general liability insurance policy, including underground property damage coverage, naming the city as additional insured, written by a company authorized to do business in the state, protecting the city against liability for loss or bodily injury and property damage occasioned by the installation, removal, maintenance or operation of the communications system by grantee in the following minimum amounts:

1. $500,000.00 combined single limit, bodily injury and for real property damage in any one occurrence.
2. $2,000,000.00 aggregate.

B. Grantee shall also file with the city a certificate of insurance for a comprehensive automobile liability insurance policy written by a company authorized to do business in the state, for all owned, nonowned, hired and leased vehicles operated by grantee, with limits no less than $1,000,000.00 each accident, single limit, bodily injury and property damage combined, or evidence of self-insurance.

C. Grantee shall also maintain and specifically agrees that it will maintain throughout the term of the franchise, workers compensation and employers liability, valid in the state, in the minimum amount of the statutory limit for workers' compensation.

D. All liability insurance required pursuant to this section shall kept in full force and effect by grantee during the existence of the franchise and until after the removal of all poles, wires, cables, underground conduits, manholes and any other conductors and fixtures installed by grantee incident to the maintenance and operation of the communications system as defined in this chapter. All policies shall be endorsed to give the city 30 days' written notice of the intent to amend or cancel by either grantee or the insuring company.

Sec. 6-28-18. Indemnification.

Grantee shall indemnify, defend and save whole and harmless the city and all of its officers, agencies and employees against and from any and all claims, suits, final judgments, actions, losses, costs and expenses, including attorney's fees and costs or expenses incidental to the investigation and defense of claims and lawsuits brought for, on behalf of, or on account of any injuries or damages received or sustained by any person, firm or corporation or to any property, which may be occasioned by, or arising out of or from, the conduct of grantee in connection with this chapter, the construction, reconstruction, expansion, removal, maintenance, operation or repair of grantee's system, the conduct of grantee's business in the city pursuant to this chapter, any occurrence in connection with this chapter, any and all claims and lawsuits arising from any breach or default on the part of grantee in the performance of any term, condition, provision, covenant or agreement to be performed by grantee pursuant to this chapter or the franchise agreement, any act or omission of grantee or any of its agents, contractors, subcontractors, servants, employees or licensees, or any relationship between grantee and its end use customers and retailers whether caused by or attributable solely to grantee and others, or the city, and grantee shall pay all final judgments, with costs, attorneys fees and expenses, which may be obtained against the city related to any such claim. The city agrees to give grantee prompt and reasonable notice of any claims or lawsuits; and grantee shall have the right to investigate, compromise, intervene and defend same to the extent of its own interest. The above indemnification shall not apply to any judgment of liability resulting from the gross negligence or willful misconduct of the city. The terms and provisions contained in this section are intended to be for the benefit of the city and grantee and are not intended to be for the benefit of any third party. The city shall have the right to participate or conduct the defense of its interests in any proceeding, and thereby assume risks and liabilities for its own acts or omissions.

Sec. 6-28-19. Initial compensation to the city.

A. As an additional compensation for any franchise granted hereunder, grantee shall furnish and transfer, during the entire term of the franchise, to the city, without charge therefor, for the use by the city on official business only the functional equivalent in grantee's telecommunications system of up to 200 connecting locations in the aggregate selected by the city: (i) in four optical fibers in the main backbone loop of a telecommunications system having approximately 58 miles; and (ii) in any cable outside the backbone loop where 12 or more optical fibers are installed. If additional connection points are requested by the city, the city will reimburse grantee reasonable expense for those connections. All the previously described connections shall be restricted to splice points which are located at a maximum spacing of one-half mile. The type of fibers provided for the city shall be equal to the fibers used by grantee. Grantee shall be responsible for maintenance of the city's optical fibers up to the point where the city connects, and would assist with problem resolution in optical fibers.

B. As a further consideration for the franchise herein granted hereunder, grantee shall at its own expense provide, furnish and serve, and continue to provide, furnish, and reserve, in its overhead or underground system or systems, and in all replacements, additions and extensions thereof, space, crossarms, pins and supports on all poles, and one duct in all conduits, and necessary space in manholes, for the wires, fixtures and other equipment of the police and fire alarm telephone and telegraph stems of the city, as requested from time to time by the city. In order to ensure coordination of city facilities with grantee's network, grantee agrees:

1. To provide 24-hour-per-day continuous monitoring of the facilities that the city is using in conjunction with grantee's network; and

2. To coordinate design and installation of other network specific requirements the city may have, including maintenance, at grantee's cost, plus ten percent.

C. Alternatively, grantee shall make, at the sole option of the city, a cash payment equal to the cost the city would be required to pay in the open market to another provider for the lease, sublease, purchase or use of the portions of a telecommunications system described in subsections A and B of this section.

Sec. 6-28-20. General compensation to the city.

A. General compensation. The city finds that the public streets, alleys and public rights-of-way to be used by grantee for the purpose of reselling telecommunication services derived from telecommunication systems operated within the boundaries of the city are valuable public properties, acquired and maintained by the city at great expense to its taxpayers, and that the grant to grantee of the use of the public streets, alleys and rights-of-way is a valuable property right, without which the grantee would be required to invest substantial capital in public right-of-way costs and acquisitions; the grantee agrees to pay to the city as general compensation during each year of the franchise agreement, an amount equal to five percent of gross revenues for each quarter of a compensation year. Grantee shall forward by check or money order an amount equal to the quarterly payment by the 15th day of the second calendar month immediately following the close of the calendar quarter for which the payment is calculated. Any necessary prorations shall be made.

B. Recalculation at end of compensation year.

1. At the end of each compensation year, grantee shall recalculate the total general compensation actually due. If additional amounts are due the city by grantee, such amounts shall be paid by the 15th day of the second month of the compensation year following the compensation year during which such amounts were originally due. If amounts are found to be due the grantee by the city, such amounts shall be credited by the 15th day of the second month of the compensation year following the compensation year during which such amounts were originally due. Any necessary prorations shall be made. The compensation set forth in this section shall be exclusive of and in addition to all special assessments and taxes of whatever nature, including, but not limited to, ad valorem taxes. In the event any quarterly payment is made after noon on date due, grantee shall pay a late payment penalty of the greater of: (i) $100.00; or (ii) simple interest at the highest rate allowable from time to time by Tennessee law multiplied by the total amount past due for the actual number of days elapsed.

2. Payment of money under this section shall not in any way limit or inhibit any of the privileges or rights of the city, whether under this chapter or otherwise.

3. Grantee shall file annually with the director of finance and administration no later than 90 days after the end of the grantee's fiscal year, an audited statement of revenues (for that year) attributable to the operations of the grantee's system, within the city pursuant to this chapter. This statement shall present a detailed breakdown of gross revenues and uncollectible accounts for the year.

4. Any transaction which has the effect of circumventing payment of required franchise fees and/or evasion of payment of franchise fees by noncollecting or nonreporting of gross revenues, bartering or any other means, which evade the actual collection of revenues for business pursued by grantee, is prohibited.

Sec. 6-28-21. Accounts, records and reports.

A. Grantee shall keep the city fully informed as to all matters in connection with or affecting the construction, reconstruction, removal, maintenance, operation and repair of grantee's system, grantee's accounting methods and procedures in connection therewith, and the recording and reporting by grantee of all revenues and uncollectibles.

B. Grantee shall keep complete and accurate books of account and records of its business and operations pursuant to this chapter in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, subject to approval by the city. If required by the city or the FCC, grantee shall use the system of accounts and the forms of books, accounts, records and memoranda prescribed by the FCC in 47 CFR part 32 or its successor and as may be further described herein. The city may require the keeping of additional records or accounts which are reasonably necessary for purposes of identifying, accounting for, and reporting gross revenues and uncollectibles for purposes of section 6-28-20. Grantee shall keep its books of account and records in such a way that breakdowns of revenues are available by type of service within the city.

In order to determine the gross revenues received by the grantee for those categories identified in section 6-28-2, grantee agrees that on the same date that payment is made, as provided in section 6-28-20, it will file with the director of finance and administration a sworn copy of a report in a form acceptable to the city, in sufficient detail to itemize revenues from each of the categories identified in section 6-28-2. It is agreed that the report will not require such detail that will divulge proprietary information. The city may, if it sees fit, have the books and records (including those books and records that may divulge proprietary information) of grantee examined by a representative of the city to ascertain the correctness of the reports agreed to be filed herein, including those financial records that may divulge proprietary information.

C. Grantee shall report to the city such other information relating to grantee as the city may consider useful and shall comply with the city's determination of forms for reports, the time for reports, the frequency with which any reports are to be made, and if reports are to be made under oath.

D. Grantee shall provide the city with access at reasonable times and for reasonable purposes, to examine, audit, review and/or obtain copies of the papers, books, accounts, documents, maps, plans and other records of grantee pertaining to the franchise agreement. Grantee shall fully cooperate in making available its records and otherwise assisting in these activities.

E. The city may, at any time, make inquiries pertaining to grantee's operation of its system within the city. Grantee shall respond to such inquiries on a timely basis.

F. 1. The city agrees that:

a. Any confidential information received by the city hereunder will be held in confidence and will not be disclosed to third parties, except as otherwise provided herein;

b. The disclosure and use of any confidential information will be limited to recipient's employees and affiliates having a need-to-know and use such confidential information; or

c. It will use the confidential information only for the purposes contemplated under this agreement.

2. Notwithstanding any provision of this chapter to the contrary, the city shall not be precluded from disclosing confidential information if such disclosure is:

a. In response to a valid order of a court, regulatory or other governmental body of the United States or any political subdivision thereof; provided, however, that the recipient shall first have given notice of such order to the grantee, and the recipient shall, to the extent possible, give grantee the opportunity to obtain a protective order requiring that the information and/or documents so disclosed be used only for the purpose for which the order was issued;

b. Otherwise required by law or government regulation;

c. Of confidential information already in the possession of the recipient;

d. Of confidential information independently developed by the recipient;

e. Of confidential information that becomes publicly available without breach of this agreement;

f. Of confidential information rightfully received by the recipient from a third party free of restriction and without breach of this agreement; or

g. Released for disclosure by the grantee with the grantee's prior written consent.

The city shall not be liable to any grantee hereunder for any disclosure of information, which it determines in good faith or on advice of counsel not to be confidential information or which it determines on advice of counsel that it is required to disclose based on applicable law.

G. Grantee shall provide the city with notices of all petitions, applications, communications and reports submitted by grantee to the FCC, Securities and Exchange Commission and the Tennessee Public Service Commission or their successor agencies, relating to any matters directly affecting the use of public streets, alleys and public rights-of-way and/or the telecommunications operations authorized pursuant to this chapter. Upon written request from the city, grantee shall provide the city with copies of all such documentation.

Sec. 6-28-22. Term of franchise.

A. Term. Within 30 days after adoption of an ordinance granting a telecommunications franchise pursuant hereto, grantee shall execute an agreement accepting this franchise substantially in the form set out in section 6-28-35. In the event any such franchise agreement is not executed by a grantee within the 30 days, the award of the telecommunications franchise shall be null and void. Upon execution of a franchise agreement between the city and grantee, a franchise shall be in full force and effect for a term and period of 20 years, ending on the anniversary date of the franchise.

B. Adjustment of compensation. Commencing July 1, 2000, and on every fifth anniversary date thereafter, the city reserves the right to establish in good faith, the amount, nature and terms of compensation (other than initial compensation) to be paid by grantee for use of the public rights-of-way during the remaining term of the franchise agreement. Any adjustment to compensation shall become effective on the first day of the next succeeding calendar quarter ("adjustment date"). The terms of any such compensation shall be reflected in a master amending ordinance affecting all then existing telecommunication franchises, including, but not limited to, those awarded pursuant to and under this chapter. Any adjustment to compensation shall be reasonable and nondiscriminatory as to other telecommunication franchises. No such amendment may take effect except by a duly enacted ordinance of the city.

C. Dispute resolution. If grantee shall in good faith maintain that the amount, terms or nature of any adjustment to compensation approved by the city council pursuant to subsection B of this section is excessive or unreasonable, given the value of the privileges granted under this chapter and grantee's franchise, grantee shall, within ten days of such determination, file with the chairperson of the city council a statement identifying the reasons why the adjusted compensation is excessive or unreasonable. In the event that the city council does not reconsider and change its adjustment to compensation within 30 days of the adjustment, grantee shall have the right to make a demand for arbitration in writing to the city attorney within 30 days after such adjustment date. In such event, the city and grantee shall each appoint an arbitrator and a third arbitrator all be appointed by the arbitrators so appointed. Each arbitrator shall have at least five years of experience in the field of rights-of-way procurement. Pursuant to the then-current rules of American Arbitration Association, or any successor organization, an arbitration shall be held as expeditiously as possible and the question to be answered by the arbitrators shall be:

> "Is the Compensation adjusted by the City excessive or unreasonable, taking into account the value of the privileges granted to Grantee, both present and future, and the charges required by municipalities in comparable urban areas for similar rights-of-way?"

Unless the majority of the arbitrators shall decide the foregoing question in the affirmative, grantee shall be bound to pay the adjusted compensation requested by the city, retroactive to the applicable adjustment date. If a majority of the arbitrators shall decide the foregoing question in the affirmative, then the city shall withdraw the proposed adjustment to compensation, and grantee shall continue paying the compensation previously in effect. The cost of arbitration shall be borne entirely by grantee, except that each party shall be responsible for their respective attorney's fees and expenses.

Sec. 6-28-23. Extension of term.

If, on the expiration date, grantee shall not be in default under the franchise agreement, and if neither party has notified the other of its intent to terminate the franchise on or before the expiration date, then the terms of the franchise agreement shall be deemed extended on an interim basis until terminated, renewed or renegotiated. The interim extension period shall not extend beyond a date 60 days after the expiration date, after which date the franchise shall be considered terminated and all rights of the grantee to use the public rights-of-way to provide telecommunications services shall cease. (Code 1985, § 10-159; Ord. No. 4398, § 24, 11-19-1996)

Sec. 6-28-24. Renewal.

A. At any time during the last year of a franchise, grantee may request the city to enter into negotiations toward renewing or extending the franchise. The exercise by grantee of this option shall not bind the city as to acceptance of any particular terms or renewal of the rights granted by the franchise. Any proposed renewal, extension or modification of the franchise is subject to the council's approval, modifications or rejection in its sole discretion.

B. Upon expiration of the twentieth year of the franchise agreement, the city shall have the right, at its election, to:

1. Renew or extend the franchise for an additional period, as agreed by the city and grantee;
2. Invite additional franchise applications or proposals; or
3. Allow the franchise to terminate without further action.

C. It is a condition to the grant of a franchise hereunder that the city shall have the right to exercise these options.

Sec. 6-28-25. Assignment or lease of franchise.

A. Neither the franchise, the assets held by grantee under this chapter, nor any rights or privileges of grantee under this chapter or the franchise agreement, grantee's system capacity, or allowance of access to grantee's system, either separately or collectively, shall be sold, resold, assigned, transferred or conveyed by grantee to any other person, firm, corporation, affiliate or entity, without the prior written consent of the city by ordinance of the council. No such sale, assignment, transfer or conveyance by grantee shall be approved by the council for one year after the execution of a franchise agreement, unless such sale, assignment, transfer or conveyance is to another city franchisee or licensee, and the council determines such sale, assignment, transfer or conveyance is in the best interest of the city and its citizens. Should the grantee sell, assign, transfer, convey or otherwise dispose of any of its rights or its interests under this chapter, or attempt to do so, in violation of this requirement to obtain prior written consent, the city may revoke a franchise granted hereunder for default, in which event all rights and interest of the grantee shall cease and no purported sale, assignment, transfer or conveyance shall be effective.

B. Plant and facilities owned by grantee located within public property shall not be leased or subleased to another provider or reseller of similar services for the purpose of serving the reseller's own customers; provided, however, but not limited to, access services from interexchange or long distance carriers is not prohibited. (Code 1985, § 10-161; Ord. No. 4398, § 26, 11-19-1996)

Sec. 6-28-26. Violations and cure provisions.

A. If the city has reason to believe that grantee is in violation of this chapter, the city shall notify grantee in writing of the violation, setting forth the nature of such violation. Within ten days of receipt of such notice, grantee shall respond in writing to provide explanation or documentation to support that the violation did not occur. Grantee shall be allowed 30 days to cure violations after written notice is received from the city, unless prevented from doing so for reasons beyond control of grantee.

B. Upon evidence being received by the city that any violation of this chapter, any city Charter provisions or any ordinances willfully regulating grantee in the construction and operation of the system is occurring, or has occurred, the city shall cause an investigation to be made. If the city finds that such a violation exists or has occurred, the grantee shall take appropriate steps to comply with the terms of this chapter and any lawful regulation. Should grantee fail to comply, after the above-stated notice and opportunity to cure, then the city may take any action authorized by law, including revocation or repeal of the franchise or a suit in court to compel compliance. If, in any such proceeding, default is finally established, grantee shall be required to pay to the city the reasonable expenses incurred in the prosecution of such suit and all the city's damages and costs (including attorney fees); provided, however, the preceding sentence shall be inapplicable unless its provisions may be lawfully enforced against other telecommunication franchisees of the city.

Sec. 6-28-27. Revocation and termination.

A. In addition to all other rights and powers retained by the city under this chapter or otherwise, the city reserves the right to revoke and terminate any franchise issued by authority of this chapter, and all rights and privileges of grantee hereunder shall cease in the event of substantial breach, subject to reasonable notice and opportunity to cure, of its terms and conditions. A substantial breach of grantee shall include, but shall not be limited to, the following:

1. Grantee's violation of any material provision of this chapter or any material rule, order or regulation of the city made pursuant to this chapter;
2. Grantee's failure to properly compensate the city as required in this chapter;
3. Grantee's attempt to evade any material provision of the franchise ordinance or to practice any fraud or deceit upon the city or upon grantee's end-user customers or interexchange carrier;
4. Grantee's failure to be capable of providing actual services to its initial end-user customers within 12 months from the date of the award of grantee's franchise, unless otherwise authorized or extended by the council;
5. Grantee's failure to complete its construction and provide service as described in section 6-28-5 of this chapter;
6. For failure to file and maintain the bond, security or insurance required under this chapter;
7. Grantee's attempt to sell, resell, transfer, convey or assign any of the rights and privileges granted pursuant to this chapter within one year after the passage of the ordinance from which this chapter derives;
8. Grantee's attempt to sell, transfer, convey or assign any of the rights and privileges granted pursuant to this chapter without council approval;
9. Grantee's failure to respond to or comply with reports, audits, statements and other information lawfully requested by the city;
10. Any material cessation in the operation of grantee's system for six months after it has been constructed; or
11. Grantee's material misrepresentation of fact in its application or negotiations during the franchise process; or the conviction of any director, officer, employee or agent of grantee for the offense of bribery or fraud connected with or resulting from the award of the franchise to grantee.

B. The foregoing shall not constitute a substantial breach if the violation occurs without the fault of grantee or occurs as a result of circumstances beyond its control. Grantee shall not be excused by mere economic hardship, nor misfeasance or malfeasance of its directors, officers or employees. Revocation or termination shall only take place for material cause.

C. Upon expiration of the term of the franchise agreement or upon any other termination therefor as provided herein, or by application for approval of transfer of the entire franchise or a majority interest thereof, the city at its election and upon the payment to the grantee of a price equal to the fair market value of the system shall have the right to purchase the system and all interests therein as the city's sole and absolute property. In the event of dispute between city and grantee of what is fair market value, the dispute shall be submitted to arbitration pursuant to provisions of T.C.A. § 29-5-101 et seq. In such event, the city and grantee shall each appoint an arbitrator and a third arbitrator all be appointed by the arbitrators so appointed. Each arbitrator shall have at least five years of experience in the field of rights-of-way procurement. Pursuant to the then-current rules of the American Arbitration Association, or any successor organization, an arbitration shall be held as expeditiously as possible. If the city has exercised its option to purchase at fair market value, it shall have the right to assume operation of the system even though the final award has not been made by the arbitrators or as approved by the court. This right of first refusal for purchase shall also include the right to purchase for the price offered to the grantee. In the event that there is a contemplated sale of the system or majority interest thereof, or upon the termination as provided herein, or by law, the city must exercise its option within 30 days. In the event the grantee has petitioned the city for renewal and renegotiation of its franchise as provided herein, the city must exercise its option to purchase the system within 30 days of the requested renewal or renegotiation or at least six months prior to the end of the franchise, whichever is later. Nothing shall prohibit the grantee in the event of the election of the city to purchase the system from requesting the court to set a reasonable bond of the city to secure the purchase price. The grantee shall execute such warranty deeds and other instruments as may be necessary.

Sec. 6-28-28. Service standards.

A. Grantee shall maintain and operate its communications system and business in an efficient manner and shall provide adequate, efficient and reasonable service to its customers in the city. Once it commences operation, grantee's system shall provide continuous and uninterrupted service throughout the term of the franchise, unless prevented from doing so by circumstances beyond the control of grantee.

B. Grantee shall comply with all applicable federal, state and local laws, rules and regulations, including those adopted by the TRA or any successor agency or commission.

C. Grantee shall not practice unjust discrimination regarding rates and services between individual customers or classes of customers.
(Code 1985, § 10-164; Ord. No. 4398, § 29, 11-19-1996)

Sec. 6-28-29. Preferential or discriminatory practices prohibited.

Grantee shall not make or grant any unreasonable preference or advantage to any person, nor subject any person to any unreasonable prejudice or disadvantage in its exercise of the rights and privileges granted by its franchise; provided, however, that nothing in its franchise shall be deemed to prohibit the establishment of a graduated scale of charges and classified rate schedules, consistent with applicable law, to which any customer coming within such classification would be entitled.
(Code 1985, § 10-165; Ord. No. 4398, § 30, 11-19-1996)

Sec. 6-28-30. Conflict with other laws.

Where a provision of this chapter or grantee's franchise is in conflict with any state or federal statute or a rule of the TRA or FCC, so that grantee cannot reasonably comply with both the provisions of this chapter or franchise and the statute or rule of the TRA or FCC, then grantee may, after giving the city written notice of its intent to do so and a statement of the legal grounds for its position, comply with such rule instead of the conflicting provision of this chapter or the franchise until such time as the city obtains a contrary ruling or other relief from an appropriate regulatory agency or court of competent jurisdiction; but grantee shall comply with all remaining provisions of this chapter or franchise. Notice of intention not to comply given pursuant to this section shall not relieve grantee—upon determination that the noncompliance was unlawful or otherwise improper—from the obligation to pay more damages, redo work at grantee's expense, or otherwise take such steps as may be necessary to restore the city to the position it would have been in if grantee had remained in compliance with this chapter and its franchise.

Sec. 6-28-31. Compliance with applicable laws and ordinances.

Grantee shall, at all times during the term of its franchise, be subject to the provisions of the present Charter of the city, the present ordinances, resolutions, rules, regulations and laws of the city and the state and to the provisions of any further charter, ordinance, resolution, rule, regulation or law of the city or of the state, so far as they may be applicable.
(Code 1985, § 10-167; Ord. No. 4398, § 32, 11-19-1996)

Sec. 6-28-32. Tennessee law governs.

In any controversy or dispute under this chapter, the law of the state shall apply to the extent such law has not been superseded or preempted.

Sec. 6-28-33. City taking part in litigation.

The city shall have the right to take part, by intervention or otherwise at its option, in any suit, action or proceeding instituted by or against grantee in which any judgment, decree or order can be rendered affecting the rights, powers or duties of grantee to do or not to do anything which, by its franchise or this chapter, it is obligated or may be required to do or not to do or affecting, such as by foreclosure or lien, grantee's title to any facility. Grantee shall not object to the city's exercise of such right.

Sec. 6-28-34. Office location.

The grantee shall maintain an office in the city. Grantee shall always keep and maintain city specific books, records, contracts, accounts, documents and papers for its operation within the city. All maps, plats, records and inventories and books of the grantee, insofar as they show values and location of existing property shall be preserved for use, if necessary, in connection with any future valuation of the property of the grantee.

This provision shall not prevent the operator of a horse-drawn carriage for hire from temporarily stopping in accordance with other stopping or parking regulations at any place for the purpose of and while actually engaged in the expeditious loading or unloading of passengers. While parking for this designated purpose upon a metered space, the driver shall pay the appropriate fee. H. Water for the horses shall be available at all times.

The book or other records of purchase shall at all times be open to the inspection of any city, county, state or federal law enforcement officer and any person who has filed a police report of metal theft in the previous month, if such person is accompanied by such law enforcement officer during normal business hours without warrant or subpoena and shall be kept in good faith and preserved on site by such dealer for convenient inspection for a period of three years from the date of the scrap metal sale.

E. The junk or scrap metal dealer shall inquire as to where the scrap metal was obtained for the purpose of determining if purchasing scrap metal from that person is a lawful transaction. If the seller presents a bill of sale, receipt or other document indicating that the person is in lawful possession of the scrap metal, or was otherwise lawfully acquired, the dealer shall photocopy such document and maintain it with the transaction information otherwise required by this section.

F. Air conditioner evaporator coils.

1. It is an offense for a scrap metal dealer to knowingly accept any portion of an air conditioner evaporator coil or condenser unless it is accompanied by a statement and appropriate documentation from a licensed HVAC contractor evidencing that the coil or condenser has been decommissioned and removed from an appliance in compliance with the Federal Clean Air Act and its regulations. This provision shall not apply to an air conditioner evaporator coil or condenser still contained within a window unit air conditioner.

2. It is an offense for a scrap metal dealer to ever pay cash to a person who presents an air conditioner evaporator coil or condenser or any portion of an air conditioner coil or condenser for sale as scrap, nor may such dealer make payment at the time of the transaction. This provision shall not apply to an air conditioner evaporator coil or condenser still contained within a window unit air conditioner. An air conditioner evaporator coil or condenser still contained within a window unit air conditioner is subject to the tag-and-hold and voucher provisions of this section.

3. Payment for scrap metal described in subsection F.1 of this section shall be:

   a. Made by check or money order to a licensed HVAC contractor named by the seller;

   b. After a period of five business days from the date of the scrap transaction such check or money order shall be mailed to the business address of the licensed HVAC contractor; and

   c. The payee on the check shall be the name of such licensed HVAC contractor.

4. a. A violation of this section shall be punishable by a fine not to exceed $50.00 for each coil or portion of a coil offered or accepted.

   b. Nothing in this section shall be construed to preclude a person violating this section from also being prosecuted for any applicable criminal offense.

G. Sale of certain scrap metals prohibited.

1. Except as provided in subsection G.2 of this section, it is an offense to knowingly sell or attempt to sell to a scrap metal dealer or for a scrap metal dealer to knowingly purchase or attempt to purchase the following types of scrap metal:

   a. Scrap metal marked with the initials of an electrical, a telephone, a cable, or other public utility;

   b. Utility access covers;

   c. Street light poles and fixtures;

   d. Road and bridge guardrails;

   e. Highway or street signs;

   f. Water meter covers;

   g. Traffic directional and control signs;

   h. Traffic light signals;

   i. Any scrap metal visibly marked or painted with the name of a governmental entity, business, company or the name of the owner of such metal;

   j. Property owned by a telephone, a cable, an electric, a water, or other utility or by a railroad and marked or otherwise identified as such; and

   k. Unused and undamaged historical markers, or grave markers and vases.

2. It is an exception to application of this section that the person attempting to sell the scrap metal provides reasonable, written documentation that the seller is the owner of the scrap metal or is an employee, agent, or other person authorized to sell the scrap metal on behalf of the owner. The dealer shall make a photocopy of any documentation provided pursuant to this subsection and retain the copy as part of the transaction record, and maintain such photocopy for a period of three years following the transaction. All photocopies shall be made available for inspection upon request by law enforcement officials.

3. a. A violation of this subsection G shall be punishable by a fine not to exceed $50.00 for each transaction offered or accepted.

   b. Nothing in this section shall be construed to preclude a person violating this section from also being prosecuted for any applicable criminal offense.

H. The junk or scrap metal dealer shall keep on hand and in separate packages, and not allow to be mixed or confused with other purchases, in order that identification may be readily made, all scrap metal as defined herein, in any form, of:

1. Telephone wire or cable such as is used for telecommunications purposes, waveguide, copper bus bar, catalytic converters, back flow preventers, new copper tubing over 20 feet long still in roll form (as it comes from manufacturer), bare copper grounding wire still on spools;
2. Copper tubing or copper wire that bears sufficient ID or unique descriptive markings which may likely prove chain of custody that the copper is a victim's property;
3. Air conditioner evaporator coils, radiators, and condensers in whole or part, including air conditioner evaporator coils and condensers still contained within a window unit air conditioner; and
4. Any metal that accurately fits a description containing distinguishing characteristics provided either by voice or in writing to a scrap metal dealer by either a victim or by representatives/agents of the City of Memphis or Shelby County law enforcement that such metal so described has been stolen; that is bought or obtained from any person, the same to be kept on site, separate and subject to easy and convenient inspection during normal business hours without warrant or subpoena by any city, county, state or federal law enforcement officer and any person who has filed a police report of metal theft in the previous month, if such person is accompanied by such law enforcement officer, for a period of not less than the longer of ten days after purchase or in any way acquired, or ten days after the scrap metal dealer delivers notice to either the victim or appropriate law enforcement official with respect to items that have been reported stolen.

I. If it appears from the inquiry required by subsection E of this section, from the nature of the scrap metal being offered, or from any other circumstances, that the seller may not be in lawful possession of the scrap metal, the scrap metal dealer shall immediately contact the city police department and report such circumstances. If it appears from the requirements of this section and all other circumstances that the seller is in lawful possession of the scrap metal and buying or otherwise receiving the scrap metal from the seller would not violate this chapter, the scrap metal dealer may buy or otherwise receive the scrap metal and pay the seller. If, however, the scrap metal in whole or in part consists of:

1. Copper;
2. An unattached catalytic converter or portion thereof;
3. Aluminum house gutters or house siding or portions thereof;
4. A beer keg or portion thereof;
5. A chain link fence or portion thereof;
6. Stainless steel sinks or portions thereof;
7. Railroad spikes;
8. Any item subject to the ten-day hold period pursuant to subsection H of this section; or
9. Any item subject to the purchase restrictions of subsection G of this section;

then the transaction, if otherwise permitted and in addition to other applicable restrictions of this chapter, must occur in accordance with this section.

If the person selling scrap metal specified in this subsection is selling as an agent or employee of a business, payment for the scrap metal shall be made only by check or money order, mailed to the business address of the business for whom the employee or agent is employed, and the payee on the check shall be the name of the business. Notwithstanding the preceding sentence, a business that sells the type of scrap metal specified in this subsection on a regular or frequent basis may annually preregister with a scrap metal dealer a list of employees who are authorized to sell on behalf of the business. A scrap metal dealer may pay an authorized, preregistered employee by any method, on site, and at the time of the transaction.

If the person selling scrap metal specified in this subsection is not selling as an employee or agent of a business, payment for the scrap metal shall be by check, money order or voucher, at the option of the scrap metal dealer except to the extent state law gives such option to the seller. If the scrap metal dealer pays by check or money order, it shall be mailed to the physical address provided on the driver license the seller used for identification. If the scrap metal dealer pays by voucher, the scrap metal dealer shall give the seller a voucher for the amount of metal purchased. The voucher shall include the same information required under subsection C of this section and the date on which the voucher can be redeemed. The voucher may only be redeemed by the person whose name appears on the voucher as the seller, or by the person's heirs or legal representative. No voucher may be redeemed by the voucher holder, or the holder's heirs or legal representative, sooner than five days from the date of the scrap metal transaction. If a voucher is not redeemed by an authorized person within six months of the date of the transaction, the voucher expires and the scrap metal dealer shall remit the value of the expired voucher to the city.

Payment for air conditioner evaporator coils or condensers or any portion of an air conditioner evaporator coil or condenser shall be made as provided in subsection F of this section.

Sec. 6-40-14. Retention period for articles purchased.

A. No property purchased by any junk and scrap metal dealer shall be sold, disposed of or removed from the place of business of such dealer until at least 48 hours after the required reports have been delivered to the director of police services pursuant to section 6-40-5.

B. Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection A of this section, junk and scrap metal dealers shall keep on hand and in separate packages, and not allow to be mixed or confused with the other purchases, in order that identification may be made of all scrap brass, copper, lead, and all other metals including automobile accessories, except scrap iron and castings, and bottles and merchandise bought or received from any person. This material shall be kept separate and subject to easy and convenient inspection of anyone desiring to investigate, for a period of not less than ten days after purchase or other acquisition. Junk and scrap metal dealers shall deal only with persons to them personally known, and of whose identification they are certain. Such dealers shall promptly give to any officer, upon request, information to enable the seller to be identified. Dealing with strangers or failing to give such information on demand shall render such dealer guilty of a violation of this chapter.

(Code 1967, § 26-54; Code 1985, § 24-63; Ord. No. 5217, § 3, 2007)

Sec. 6-40-17. Special regulations for air conditioner evaporator coils and condensers.

For the avoidance of any doubt, any air conditioner evaporator coils and condensers, in whole or part, shall be subject to the most restrictive provisions of this chapter, including the ten-day hold period of section 6-40-13(H) and the payment methodologies requiring delayed payment and issuance of checks to the licensed HVAC contractor. In addition, all air conditioner evaporator coils and condensers, in whole or part, except those as part of an entire window air conditioning unit, shall be subject to the restrictions related to those sellers from whom such material may be purchased. Also for the avoidance of any doubt, any telephone wire or cable shall be subject to the most restrictive provisions of this chapter, including all of the provisions applicable to air conditioner evaporator coils and condensers, except those provisions specifically limited to air conditioner evaporator coils and condensers.

Sec. 6-44-6. Insurance.

A. No certificate of public convenience and necessity shall be issued unless the applicant provides to the city treasurer proof of financial responsibility by either a written policy of liability insurance coverage as provided in subsections (A)(1) or (A)(3) of this section, or a self-insurance certificate as provided in subsection (A)(2) of this section. The liability insurance coverage limits as provided in subsections (A)(1) and (2) of this section are the same as that provided by the Tennessee Financial Responsibility Law of 1977, as amended T.C.A. § 55-12-101 et seq., generally and in particular sections 55-12-102 and 55-12-111, and shall be automatically increased as of January 1, 1990, as provided by said state statute, and thereafter as the statute is amended.

1. A written policy of liability insurance coverage issued by an insurance carrier duly authorized to do business in the state, covering separately, or in a schedule attached to such policy, each passenger vehicle for hire to be operated under the direction of such applicant, for vehicle for hire services shall be provided by a single-limit policy with a limit of not less than $50,000.00, applicable to one accident or split limit policy with a limit of not less than $20,000.00 for bodily injury to or death of one person, not less than $40,000.00 for bodily injury or death to two or more persons in any one accident, and not less than $10,000.00 for damage to property in any one accident.

2. A self-insurance certificate issued by the state commissioner of the department of safety, for which documentation from the commissioner should also be filed with the city treasurer.

3. A written policy of liability insurance coverage issued by an insurance carrier duly authorized to do business in the state, covering separately or in a schedule attached to each policy, each passenger vehicle having a capacity of more than five persons including the driver, shall be provided by a policy with limits of at least $5,000.00 more per each seat capacity beyond five than the minimum single-limit or split-limit requirement for taxicabs, as provided herein, for injuries or death of more than one person in any one accident.

4. a. A self-insured retention or deductible funding, whether or not in conjunction with automobile liability insurance for vehicle for hire services which achieves the substantial equivalent of the liability insurance set forth in subsection A of this section. The applicant or certificate holder shall file a statement of compliance providing that the certificate holder or applicant shall pay within 30 days any final judgment of a court for damages on account of bodily injury, death or property damages resulting from the ownership or negligent use or operation of a vehicle for hire service subject to the single-limit liability of subsection A of this section and shall deposit collateral for the faithful performance of such statement in a restricted account to insure the liability protection required in subsection A of this section as follows: $20,000.00 to be deposited immediately in a commercial bank or other such depository with a branch office located in the city, three deposits of $20,000.00 each, every 90 days thereafter, and then 12 deposits of $10,000.00 each, every 90 days thereafter until a total amount of $200,000.00 is deposited. Documentation of the deposits should be filed with the city treasurer. Within 30 days of any withdrawals, as provided for below, the fund shall be replenished to required funding level.

   b. The certificate holder or applicant shall file with the city treasurer and the depository, written authorization wherein the certificate holder or applicant shall expressly agree that, if any court, or the clerk thereof, shall certify to the city treasurer and to the depository that such certificate holder has failed to satisfy within 30 days any final judgment of the court upon which execution has been lawfully issued for damages in a single accident on account of bodily injury, death or property damage resulting from the ownership or negligent use or operation of any vehicle for hire service of such certificate holder, such cash or government obligations so deposited shall, to the extent of no more than $50,000.00, be applied by the depository upon the written order of the city treasurer, to the satisfaction of the judgment; and agreeing that, for that purpose, any government obligations so deposited may be sold and converted into cash by the depository at its market price, and that any cash excess from the proceeds of such sale shall remain with the depository as collateral security aforesaid. Nothing herein shall affect the right of the general public to recover damages in excess of the limits stated herein from a source other than the restricted fund. The certificate holder shall reimburse the fund for such judgment so that the fund shall be brought to the required level within 30 days of the withdrawal by the city treasurer. The certificate holder shall not encumber the fund nor shall the fund be encumbered or moneys withdrawn from the fund except as provided herein.

c. The certificate holder shall report claims activities on a quarterly basis to the city treasurer, including the following information per claim: the name(s) and addresses of the claimant(s), the date and location of the accident(s), the name(s) of the vehicle for hire service driver(s) involved, and the amount and current status of the claim. Records of the claims maintained by the certificate holder shall be made available for inspection by the city treasurer or his or her representative during regular business hours in the office of the certificate holder for a period of one year of the final disposition of each claim.

d. It is unlawful for a permit holder, or anyone acting on his or her behalf to commit or perform any of the following in handling of claims:

   i. Misrepresent insurance policy provisions relating to coverage at issue;

   ii. Fail to acknowledge and act reasonably and promptly, considering all the circumstances, upon written or oral communications with respect to claims;

   iii. Fail to adopt and implement reasonable standards for the prompt investigation of claims.

e. So long as a depository has received no written notice of default by a certificate holder in the faithful performance of this statement of compliance referred to in subsection (A)(4)(a) of this section, such certificate holder shall be entitled to receive, and the depository shall pay to him or her, if, as and when collected by it, all interest from time to time accruing upon any cash or government obligations deposited as herein provided. All charges made by the depository for such account shall be paid by the certificate.

f. In case a certificate holder, after making a deposit of cash or government obligations as provided in subsection (A)(4)(a) of this section shall discontinue the operation of vehicle for hire services or in the event he or she shall, with the consent of the city treasurer, substitute in lieu of such agreement a policy of liability insurance in accordance with subsection A of this section, the certificate holder shall continue to maintain the deposit at the required level for such period of time as shall be made by the city treasurer and the certificate holder of all outstanding and unpaid claims pending against such person; and a sufficient amount of such cash or government obligations so deposited shall be retained by the depository as, in the reasonable discretion of the city treasurer, shall be reasonably sufficient to guarantee payment of such claims. The balance of such deposit shall thereupon be returned to the person making such deposit by the depository, upon the order of the city treasurer; and thereafter the balance of such fund shall, from time to time as claims are reduced, be returned by the depository to the person making such deposit on the order of the city treasurer, in the proportion to the amount that it shall be shown to the city treasurer that such claims have been paid or satisfied, or have been reduced, dropped or abandoned. In case of dispute over such appraisal between the person making such deposit and the city treasurer, the dispute shall be settled by the chief administrative officer or his or her designee, and the decision of same shall be final and binding upon the parties.

g. Failure by the certificate holder to fully comply with all the provisions of subsection (A)(4) of this section shall result in the immediate suspension of the affected certificate of public convenience and necessity and notification of a revocation hearing.

B. Any insurance policy issued pursuant to this section shall further provide that the insolvency or bankruptcy of the insured shall not relieve the company from the payment of damages for injuries or death sustained, or loss occasioned within the provisions of the policy and that the prepayment of any judgment that may be recovered against the insured upon any claim covered by such policy shall not be a condition precedent to any right of action against the company upon the policy, but that the company shall be bound to the extent of its liability under the policy and shall pay and satisfy such judgment, and that action may be maintained upon such judgment by the injured person or his or her heirs, or personal representatives, as the case may be, to enforce the liability of the company as therein set forth.

C. Any insurance policy issued pursuant to this section shall further provide that the same may not be canceled or not renewed without at least 30 days written notice to be sent by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, to the city treasurer, except that cancellation for nonpayment of premium shall require no more than ten days, properly mailed, written notice of cancellation.

D. If the certificate holder fails to fully and timely comply with all the provisions of subsection (A)(4) of this section, the certificate of public convenience and necessity affected by such fund shall fail within the period specified in such notice of cancellation or nonrenewal of a liability insurance policy or self-insurance certificate to provide a policy or self-insurance certificate meeting the requirements of this section on or before the date of cancellation or nonrenewal, then the certificate of public convenience and necessity affected by such cancellation or nonrenewal shall be immediately suspended. Any such suspended certificate of public convenience and necessity may be revoked after a public hearing to be held following ten days' written notice, sent registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, the date of post mark and the date of cancellation, nonrenewal, or the date the subsection (A)(4) of this section fund falls below the level provided for in subsection (A)(4)(a) of this section being day one, upon the finding that the policy or self-insurance certificate has not been provided or the subsection (A)(4) of this section fund has not been properly funded. The suspended certificate of public convenience and necessity may be reinstated by the city treasurer before the hearing or at the hearing, upon compliance in full with the provisions of this section, so long as no other cause for suspension or revocation exists. An application for a certificate of public convenience and necessity, after revocation, shall be treated as an initial application.

Sec. 6-44-22.1. Charitable nonprofit transportation providers.

A. Qualifying organizations.

1. Name. Charitable nonprofit transportation providers.

2. Classification. 501c3 nonprofit organizations chartered under the laws of the State of Tennessee, with the specific stated focus on individuals with special needs, such as elderly and visually impaired, accountable to federal and state government.

3. Definitions.

Charitable nonprofit transportation provider "CNPTP" means a 501c3 organization dedicated, at least in part, to helping meet the special transportation needs of individuals in the City of Memphis that adheres to every element of "classification."

Charitable nonprofit transportation vehicle means a vehicle for hire provided by a local nonprofit charitable organization affiliated with a state or national nonprofit charitable organization to transport persons who are elderly or visually impaired.

B. Permits.

1. Type. Qualifying organizations must obtain a CNPTP permit which would have to be renewed annually, with a copy of the affiliate agreement with the state or national organization.

2. Application for license. Applications for a CNPTP permit shall be made to the city manager or his designee upon forms provided by the city manager or his designee. At a minimum, these forms shall set forth the name and address of the applicant, the class of each vehicle for which a license is desired, the seating capacity, the design, color scheme, and lettering and marks, if any, to be used on the vehicle, and any other information required by the city manager. Upon the first application, the applicant shall pay to the city treasurer upon filing for each such public vehicle license the sum of $10.00, which fee shall not be refunded. If the application is approved, the applicant shall furnish the city treasurer prior to the issuance of the decal information covering the particular vehicle to be licensed the make, the state license number, where applicable, the length of time the vehicle has been in use, and the name and address of the person from whom the vehicle was purchased, and any other information required by the city manager, pertinent to the issuance of a license. When an unpaid, citizen volunteer drives his or her own personal vehicle to assist the CNPTP with rides for the special transportation needs of individuals, this license requirement shall not apply.

3. Fees. There shall be no annual fee for charitable, nonprofit organizations or for any vehicles used.

C. Insurance.

1. Requirements. Insurance certification is required, and the City of Memphis is exempted and indemnified against all claims.

2. Type and amount. Each CNPTP shall maintain the following insurance:

a. Director's and officer's insurance.

b. General liability/business owner's insurance. Minimum coverage of $1,000,000.00 for each injury, $1,000,000.00 for all injuries, and $1,000,000.00 property damage.

c. Auto insurance. This insurance protects the CNPTP and CNPTP employees. Vehicles owned by the CNPTP will be covered under an automobile liability policy with limits of $1,000,000.00 combined single limits auto liability-bodily injury and property damage and $1,000,000.00 uninsured motorist, property damage and bodily injury.

d. Auto insurance—Hired and non-owned. This insurance will be carried only if it is available in the geographic service area. This insurance protects the CNPTP, not the drivers. The driver's own insurance is primary in an accident. The hired coverage protects the CNPTP when there is use of a rental/leased vehicle by the CNPTP. The non-owned coverage protects the CNPTP in the event a volunteer driver has an accident in a vehicle not owned by the CNPTP and damages exceed coverage under his/her primary insurance policy. The limits for hired and non-owned will be $1,000,000.00 should this coverage be available.

e. Worker's compensation insurance. As required under Tennessee law.

3. Qualifying organizations. Each qualifying organization shall obtain and, at all times during the term of this agreement, maintain in force and pay the premiums for comprehensive general liability insurance, including complete operations coverage and, unless such coverage is not available in the geographic service area, non-owned automobile coverage, with an established and reputable insurer, with limits of liability for bodily injury of not less than $1,000,000.00 for each injury and $1,000,000.00 for property damage in each occurrence.

4. Volunteer drivers. Volunteer drivers must carry their own automobile coverage at or above the state level. The volunteer driver's insurance is primary.

D. Regulation of drivers. Regulation of drivers shall be the province of the nonprofit organization, and said organization must provide satisfactory certification and supervision of its drivers. State of Tennessee driver's license and approved safety record is acceptable. Every volunteer driver must have an acceptable background check.

E. Established need. There is insufficient specialized public transportation to meet the needs of the rapidly aging population, and without adequate mobility, older people cannot access healthcare, nutrition, or any kind of social or civic engagement. Older people have the highest fatal crash rate of any group except teenagers, and without adequate transportation options, they are more likely to drive when they should not, at risk to themselves, their families and the community.

F. Miscellaneous.

1. Volunteer drivers. Volunteer drivers shall receive no monetary compensation for their services, other than mileage reimbursement or credit as allowed by the IRS for their actual expenses.

2. Certificate of public convenience and necessity exemption. Qualifying organizations are not required to obtain a certificate of public convenience and necessity pursuant to the Memphis Code of Ordinances.

(Ord. No. 5561, §§ 1—5, 7, 9-2-2014)

poses, upon the streets, in public places, buildings, and from house to house, or by the use of the telephone or otherwise, but nothing herein shall be construed to prevent or forbid any pastor, priest, rabbi, rector or minister of the gospel from soliciting funds exclusively from members of his or her own congregation or flock. The offering for sale of any merchandise or subscriptions to any magazine, periodical or publication, the profits from which sale or any part thereof, are to be used for the benefit of any charitable, religious, educational or benevolent purpose, shall be deemed a "public solicitation" within the meaning of this chapter. The offering for sale of tickets to any show or other performance represented as being for the benefit of a charitable, religious, educational or benevolent purpose shall be deemed to be a "public solicitation" within the meaning of this chapter.

Sec. 6-64-2. Use of sound trucks restricted.

It is unlawful to use any sound truck as a means of soliciting money, subscriptions or contributions for any charitable, religious, educational or benevolent purpose upon the streets of the city, unless express permission is granted therefor at the time the permit is issued pursuant to sections 6-64-3 through 6-64-7. The board of supervisors shall have the right to prescribe the terms and conditions under which sound trucks may be used for such purposes on the streets of the city.
(Code 1967, § 33-2; Code 1985, § 30-2)

It is unlawful for any person to engage in or conduct any public solicitation without a permit duly issued by the board of supervisors.
(Code 1967, § 33-32; Code 1985, § 30-36)

Sec. 6-64-4. Permit application.

Any person desiring a permit required by section 6-64-3 shall file with the board of supervisors an application on a form approved by such board and shall answer, under oath, all of the questions contained in such form and furnish to such board all such information with reference to such public solicitation as may be of assistance to the board in determining whether the permit shall be given to such person. (Code 1967, § 33-33; Code 1985, § 30-37)

Sec. 6-64-5. Investigation of application—Issuance and contents.

A. It shall be the duty of the secretary of the board of supervisors to investigate all applications for a permit under this chapter. If the secretary, after such investigation, is satisfied that the purpose of such solicitation is a bona fide charitable, religious, educational or benevolent purpose, and that the applicant for a permit will solicit in good faith and in the manner authorized for such bona fide charitable, religious, educational or benevolent purposes and that a proper proportion of the money subscribed or contributed will be used for the purpose for which the subscription or contribution is made, it shall be the duty of the secretary to issue to such applicant a permit in the form of a card, giving the name of the person so authorized to solicit, the purpose for which the funds are being solicited, the time within which solicitations of money, contributions or subscriptions are permitted, the manner in which such solicitation is authorized, and whether the person soliciting such funds is being paid for his or her services as such solicitor. For purposes of this subsection, the use of less than 75 percent of the money subscribed or contributed for the purpose for which such money was given shall create a rebuttable presumption that a proper proportion of the money has not been or will not be used for the purpose for which such money was subscribed or contributed.

B. It shall not be necessary for each solicitor to apply to the board of supervisors where more than one person is soliciting for the same purpose, but a general application for such persons may be made by any one of them, and permit cards for all such solicitors may be issued upon one application therefor.
(Code 1967, § 33-34; Code 1985, § 30-38)

Sec. 6-64-6. Permit—Denial.

If the secretary of the board of supervisors, after investigation of any application for a permit under this chapter, decides that such permit should not be issued, he or she shall decline to issue such permit and the person whose application has been declined shall have the right of appeal to the board of supervisors, and such board shall hear the appeal and rule on the application and appeal at any open meeting, after notice thereof to the applicant. The decision of a majority of the members of the board of supervisors, after such hearing, shall be final and binding on all of the parties thereto.

(Code 1967, § 33-35; Code 1985, § 30-39)

Sec. 6-64-7. Permit—To be carried and exhibited by solicitors.

Every person engaged in a public solicitation shall have in his or her possession at all times while so engaged a permit issued by the board of supervisors authorizing the solicitation at the time and in the manner the solicitation is being made. Such permit shall be exhibited upon demand by any person.
(Code 1967, § 33-36; Code 1985, § 30-40)

Sec. 6-64-8. Suspension or cancellation.

In the event of violation of any condition, limitation or restriction imposed in the granting of any permit under this chapter, or in the event of the misapplication of any funds collected thereunder, the board of supervisors may suspend the effectiveness of such permit pending a hearing before it as to whether or not any condition, limitation or restriction imposed by the board in the granting of such permit has been violated. Such suspension shall be in effect only until the hearing before the board of supervisors, upon reasonable notice to the holder of the permit, at which hearing the holder of such permit may appear before such board, in person or by counsel, and may produce evidence. The board of supervisors is authorized to hear testimony and swear witnesses, and it may require the production of papers and documents by subpoena to be served by any lawful police officer of the city. If, upon the hearing, the board shall determine that this chapter has been violated, or any condition, limitation or restriction imposed in any permit has been violated, the board may cancel the permit or may suspend the effectiveness thereof for such time as the board may deem advisable. The board shall make a written finding of facts, based upon the testimony heard by it, and its finding as to the facts shall be conclusive.

A. Written notice of the denial or proposed suspension or revocation shall be sent to the permittee by certified mail, return receipt requested, or have delivered by process server.

B. The appeal of the denial, revocation or suspension must be filed with the director of police services within ten calendar days of receipt of notice.

C. A hearing must be scheduled and held before the director of police services within 60 days, unless continued to a later date by consent of the parties.

D. When a permit is suspended or revoked, the suspension or revocation of the permit shall not occur within 60 days of receipt of notice described in subsection A of this section or prior to the date of the hearing, whichever is less, unless the health officer determines there to be a health hazard or risk of disease at the location. No issuance of a new permit for that permittee, business or location shall occur until after the date set for hearing has passed.

E. A decision of the director of police services must be made in writing to all parties within five days of the conclusion of the hearing.

Sec. 6-72-7. Transfer of permit.

A permittee shall not transfer his or her permit to another, nor shall a permittee operate a sexually oriented business under the authority of a permit at any place other than the street address designated in the application.

(Code 1985, § 20-125; Ord. No. 4013, § 1, 1-15-1991)

Sec. 6-72-8. Location of sexually oriented businesses.

A. A person commits an offense if he or she operates or causes to be operated a sexually oriented business within 1,500 feet of:

1. A duly organized and recognized church;

2. A public or private elementary or secondary school;

3. A boundary of a residential or landmark district as defined in this Code;

4. A public park; or

5. The property line of a lot devoted to a residential use as defined in this Code.

B. A person commits an offense if he or she causes or permits the operation, establishment, substantial enlargement, or transfer of ownership or control of a sexually oriented business within 1,500 feet of another sexually oriented business.

C. A person commits an offense if he or she causes or permits the operation, establishment or maintenance of more than one sexually oriented business in the same building, structure, or portion thereof, or the increase of floor area of any sexually oriented business in any building, structure, or portion thereof containing another sexually oriented business.

D. For the purpose of subsection A of this section, measurement shall be made in a straight line, without regard to intervening structures or objects, from the nearest portion of the building or structure used as a part of the premises where a sexually oriented business is conducted, to the nearest property line of the premises of a church or public or private elementary or secondary school, or to the nearest boundary of an affected public park, residential district or local historic district.

E. For purposes of subsection B of this section, the distance between any two sexually oriented businesses shall be measured in a straight line, without regard to intervening structures or objects, from the closest exterior wall of the structure in which each business is located.

F. Any sexually oriented business lawfully operating on July 1, 1990, that is in violation of subsections A, B or C of this section shall be deemed a nonconforming use. The nonconforming use will be permitted to continue for a period not to exceed one year, unless sooner terminated for any reason or voluntarily discontinued. In the event of termination of such a sexually oriented business, anyone applying for a reopening or for another sexually oriented business establishment at the premises will be considered a new applicant. Such nonconforming uses shall not be increased, enlarged, extended or altered except that the use may be changed to a conforming use. If two or more sexually oriented businesses are within 1,500 feet of one another and otherwise in a permissible location, the sexually oriented business which was first established and continually operating at a particular location is the conforming use and the later-established business(es) is nonconforming.

G. A sexually oriented business lawfully operating as a conforming use is not rendered a nonconforming use by the location, subsequent to the grant or renewal of the sexually oriented business permit, of a church, public or private elementary or secondary school, public park, residential district or residential lot within 1,500 feet of the sexually oriented business. This provision applies only to the renewal of a valid permit and does not apply when an application for a permit is submitted after a permit has expired or has been revoked.

H. Nothing in this section shall prohibit the city from seeking and obtaining injunctive relief, or the continuation of litigation for injunctive relief pending at the time this chapter becomes effective, against any sexually oriented business which has opened or may open, from March 31, 1987, to the time this chapter becomes effective, within 1,000 feet of a duly organized, recognized church, public or private elementary or secondary school, boundary of a residential district as defined by this Code, public park adjacent to a residential district as defined by this code, or any other sexually oriented business. For purposes of this subsection only, the term "sexually oriented business" shall be limited to and retain the definitions set forth in the predecessor ordinance of the city, Ordinance No. 3647, dated March 31, 1987, Code section 6-72-1 et seq., especially section 6-72-4. This chapter is an amended recreation of, and not an abandonment of, said predecessor ordinance.

Sec. 6-72-9. Exemption from location restrictions.

A. If the director of police services denies the issuance of a permit to an applicant because the location of the sexually oriented business establishment is in violation of section 6-72-8, then the applicant may, not later than ten calendar days after receiving notice of the denial, file with the comptroller a written request for an exemption from the locational restrictions of section 6-72-8.

B. If the written request is filed with the comptroller within the ten-day limit, the city council shall consider the request. The comptroller shall set a date for the hearing within 60 days from the date the written request is received, and shall give notice to the public of such hearing according to the provisions of T.C.A. § 8-44-103.

C. The city council shall hear and consider evidence offered by any interested person.

D. The city council may, in its discretion, grant an exemption from the locational restrictions of section 6-72-8 if it makes the following findings:

1. That the location of the proposed or existing sexually oriented business will not have a detrimental effect on nearby properties or be contrary to the public welfare;

2. That the granting of the exemption will not violate the spirit and intent of this chapter of the Code;

3. That the location of the proposed or existing sexually oriented business will not downgrade the property values or quality of life in the adjacent areas or encourage the development of urban blight;

4. That the location of an additional sexually oriented business or the continued location of an existing sexually oriented business in the area will not be contrary to any program of neighborhood conservation nor will it interfere with any efforts of urban renewal or restoration; and

5. That all other applicable provisions of this chapter and chapters 6-56, 9-24, 9-32, 9-88, 10-4 through 10-32, 12-64 and 12-68 will be observed.

E. The city council shall grant or deny the exemption by a majority vote. The vote shall be decided on the basis of a preponderance of the evidence. The decision of the city council is final. Appeal shall lie by common law writ of certiorari to a court of competent jurisdiction. Such an appeal must be made within 30 days of the city council vote.

F. If the city council grants the exemption, the exemption is valid for one year from the date of the city council's action. Upon the expiration of an exemption, the sexually oriented business is in violation of the locational restrictions of section 6-72-8 until the applicant applies for and receives another exemption.

G. If the city council denies the exemption, the applicant may not re-apply for an exemption until at least 12 months have elapsed since the date of the city council's action.

H. The grant of an exemption does not exempt the applicant from any other provisions of this chapter and chapters 6-56, 9-24, 9-32, 9-88, 10-4 through 10-32, 12-64 and 12-68 other than the locational restrictions of section 6-72-8.

It is a defense to prosecution under this subsection if the person under 18 years was in a restroom not open to public view or persons of the opposite sex.

Sec. 6-72-14. Regulations pertaining to exhibition of sexually explicit films or videos.

A. A person who operates or causes to be operated a sexually oriented business, other than an adult motel, which exhibits on the premises in a viewing room of less than 150 square feet of floor space, a film, videocassette or other video reproduction which depicts specified sexual activities or specified anatomical areas, shall comply with the following requirements:

ARTICLE 2. TERMINALS AND ROUTING

Sec. 6-80-2. Approval of terminals.

A. No terminal shall be located within the corporate limits of the city without making application for such location to and receiving the express approval of the building official. If the applicant for the terminal has applied for a certificate of public convenience and necessity under this chapter, the director of police services shall forward the application to the building official.
